to grow a rich diverse leadership team and evolve from a company basing decisions on the gut and whims of a founder to one with a more robust wholistic strategic approach in a way that allows them to stay creative and maintain their irreverent off centered culture Discover how ditching your competitive nature and embracing collaboration can allow you to better serve your customers Explore innovative solutions to the challenges that today s businesses face Consider how your company can grow through the collaboration over competition business model Leverage the experiences of other companies to truly understand how collaboration can contribute to your businesss success Off Centered Leadership is a groundbreaking book that explores the power of collaboration within the business world Consumer Tribes Avi Shankar,Bernard Cova,Robert

Kozinets,2012-06-25 Marketing and consumer research has traditionally conceptualized consumers as individuals who exercise choice in the marketplace as individuals not as a class or a group However an important new perspective is now emerging that rejects the individualistic view and focuses on the reality that human life is essentially social and that who we are is an inherently social phenomenon It is the tribus the many little groups we belong to that are fundamental to our experience of life Tribal Marketing shows that it is not individual consumption of products that defines our lives but rather that this activity actually facilitates meaningful social relationships The social links social relationships are more important than the things brands etc The aim of this book is therefore to offer a systematic overview of the area that has been defined as cultures of consumption consumption microcultures brand cultures brand tribes and brand communities It is though these that students of marketing and marketing practitioners can begin to genuinely understand the real drivers of consumer behaviour It will be essential to everyone who needs to understand the new paradigm in consumer research brand management and communications management The Star Trek: The Next Generation Companion: Revised Edition

SPACE TO CREATE IN CHINESE SCIENCE FICTION. Robert G. Price,2017 This study of Chinese science fiction will be of interest to students SF fans and even to those with a mere passing fancy of science fiction in the Middle Kingdom The book is split into three main parts firstly the development of Anglo American and Chinese SF are compared mainly for those who are new to the genre Next the unspoken limiting guidelines for authors that no one can will universally agree on are discussed Also historical case studies demonstrate why freedom to create is absolutely vital to the progressive developments of companies and even countries which also rings true for China's role in the 21st century Finally a sampling of 12 short stories by three major authors over the last forty years are examined for content that agrees with statements made about SF in China by experts in SF studies as well as authors themselves All this helps even a novice in the subject to gain important insights into what it means to be an SF author in China

How to Make a Spaceship Julian Guthrie,2017-09-05 A New York Times bestseller The historic race that reawakened the promise of manned spaceflight Winner of the 2016 Eugene E Emme Award for Astronautical Literature A Finalist for the PEN E O Wilson Literary Science Writing Award Alone in a Spartan black cockpit test pilot Mike Melvill rocketed toward space He had eighty seconds to exceed the speed of sound and begin the climb to a target no civilian pilot had ever reached He might not make it back alive If he did he would make history as the world's first commercial astronaut The spectacle defied reason the result of a competition dreamed up by entrepreneur Peter Diamandis whose vision for a new race to space required small teams to do what only the world's largest governments had done before Peter Diamandis was the son of hardworking immigrants who wanted their science prodigy to make the family proud and become a doctor. But from the age of eight when he watched Apollo 11 land on the Moon, his singular goal was to get to space. When he realized NASA was winding down manned space flight, Diamandis set out on one of the great entrepreneurial adventure stories of our time. If the government wouldn't send him to space, he would create a private space flight industry himself. In the 1990s, this idea was the stuff of science fiction. Undaunted, Diamandis found inspiration in an unlikely place: the golden age of aviation. He discovered that Charles Lindbergh made his transatlantic flight to win a $25,000 prize. The flight made Lindbergh the most famous man on earth and galvanized the airline industry. Why, Diamandis thought, couldn't the same be done for space flight? The story of the bullet-shaped SpaceShipOne and the other teams in the hunt is an extraordinary tale of making the impossible possible. It is driven by outsized characters: Burt Rutan, Richard Branson, John Carmack, Paul Allen, and obsessive pursuits. In the end, as Diamandis dreamed, the result wasn't just a victory for one team; it was the foundation for a new industry and a new age.

Beyond Craft Steve Westbrook, James Ryan, 2020-08-20. Simultaneously a handbook and a critique of one, Beyond Craft combines an orientation to the field of creative writing with an insight into current scholarship surrounding creative writing pedagogy. A much-needed alternative to the traditional craft guide, this text pairs advice and exercises on composition with an illuminating commentary on the issues surrounding these very techniques. Teaching the craft whilst apprising students of the issues of craft pedagogy, this book allows them to gain an awareness of how current pedagogy comes at the expense of larger and increasingly relevant cultural concerns. Westbrook and Ryan bring emerging writers into the larger conversations that define the field, inviting them to contextualize their own writing practices and educational experiences in relation to the history of creative writing as an academic discipline. Determine how New Critical lore and Romantic mythology may affect even distort their understanding of literary production. Critically examine their notions of authorship, collaboration, and invention in relation to contemporary literary and rhetorical theory. Understand and evaluate the economic, social, political, and professional challenges facing creative writers today. Analyze the contemporary literary marketplace not only to identify potential publication contexts but also to understand how issues of diversity and bias affect writing communities. Reflect on how increasingly rapid technological developments may affect their own writing and the future of literature. Earnestly self-aware throughout, Beyond Craft both inducts new writers into the field of creative writing and infuses them with an understanding of the wider dialogue surrounding their craft.

Star Trek: Harlan Ellison's City on the Edge of Forever #1 Harlan Ellison, Scott Tipton, David Tipton. For the first time ever, a visual presentation of the much-discussed, unrevised, unadulterated version of Harlan Ellison's award-winning Star Trek teleplay script, The City on the Edge of Forever. This Hugo and Writers Guild of America Award-winning teleplay has been much discussed for decades, but only here can you see the story as Mr. Ellison originally intended. Telling Stories, Talking Craft

Christopher Feliciano Arnold, Anthony Cook, 2010-06-13 Telling Stories Talking Craft is a collection of fifteen conversations with some of the finest contemporary fiction writers. These distinguished authors discuss their lives and their craft in candid thought provoking interviews from the pages of Sycamore Review, Purdue University's international journal of literature opinion and the arts.

Star Trek: Mission's End Ty Templeton, 2014-09-10 The most important lost tale of the Star Trek saga can now be told. The final mission of the original Starship Enterprise and her crew. What prompts Mr Spock and Doctor McCoy to retire from Starfleet? What earns Kirk his promotion to Admiral? And what is the mystery of Archenar IV that threatens to tear the Federation itself apart? All will be revealed.

The Art and Craft of TV Directing Jim Hemphill, 2019-07-19 The Art and Craft of TV Directing offers a broad and in depth view of the craft of TV Directing in the form of detailed interviews with dozens of the industry's most accomplished episodic television directors. Author Jim Hemphill provides students with essential information on the complexities of working in episodic TV, highlighting the artistic, technical and interpersonal skills required and exploring a variety of entry points and approaches to provide a comprehensive overview of how to begin and sustain a career as a television director. The book discusses how to merge one's personal style with the established visual language of any given show while also adhering to tight budgets and schedules and navigating the complicated politics of working with showrunners, networks and producers. The book also features interviews with a range of directors from feature directors who have moved into episodic TV, Kimberly Peirce, Mark Pellington, to directors who have made the transition from other disciplines like acting, Andrew McCarthy, Lea Thompson, hair and makeup, Stacey K Black, and stunts, David M Barrett. This book provides unprecedented access to the experiences and advice of contemporary working episodic television directors and is an ideal resource for students studying television directing, early career professionals looking for advice, and working directors looking to make the transition from feature directing to episodic TV directing.
