The Struggle For Pakistan A Muslim Homeland And Global Politics:

The Struggle for Pakistan - a Muslim Homeland and Global Politics Ayesha Jalal, 2020-03-18 Power, Legitimacy, and World Order Sanjay Pulipaka, Krishnan Srinivasan, James Mayall, 2023-05-03 This book reflects on the reasons for the decline of international cooperation in world politics and studies ways to restore legitimacy in the international order. It engages with the concept of legitimacy in international relations theories and practices to examine the discussions around power shifts, the decline of liberalism, demands for inclusive international architectures and challenges to multilateralism as well as established norms by leaders and nationalisms. It studies the impact of the post COVID 19 world order on the nature of power in the international system and changes in normative concerns of security. The volume also interrogates political legitimacy through an area studies lens by examining the concept of legitimacy separately in the USA, Europe, South Asia, Southeast Asia, Latin America, and Africa. An important and timely text featuring contributions from eminent scholars, this book will be of use to students and researchers of modern history, political science, and international relations. It will also be of interest to think tanks and policy making bodies concerned with international affairs and foreign policy. Anglo-Indian Identity Robyn Andrews, Merin Simi Raj, 2021-02-17 Revisionist in approach, global in scope, and a seminal contribution to scholarship, this original and thought provoking book critiques traditional notions about Anglo Indians, a mixed descent minority community from India. It interrogates traditional notions about Anglo Indian identity from a range of disciplines, perspectives, and locations. This work situates itself as a transnational intermediary, identifying convergences and bridging scholarship on Anglo Indian studies in India and the diaspora. Anglo Indian identity is presented as hybridised and fluid and is seen as being representative, performative, affective, and experiential through different interpretative theoretical frameworks and methodologies. Uniquely, this book is an international collaborative effort by leading scholars in Anglo Indian Studies and examines the community in India and diverse diasporic locations such as New Zealand, Britain, Australia, Pakistan, and Burma. Marxist Thought in South Asia Kristin Plys, Priyansh, Kanishka Goonewardena, 2023-12-11 Forging an anti imperialist Marxism through dialectical and historical approaches, this volume of Political Power and Social Theory demonstrates how the South Asian facet of this revolutionary tradition can contribute to and even reenergize global Marxist theory. Deadly Impasse Sumit Ganguly, 2016-03-31 Evaluating state relations from 1999 to 2009, Deadly Impasse seeks to explore what ails the Indo Pakistani relationship and perpetuates the enduring rivalry. Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad Shinwari, 2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan. It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category, analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan's former Federally Administered Tribal Areas (FATA). Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA, this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region s socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia

Dictators and Democrats Stephan Haggard,Robert R. Kaufman,2016-09-06 A rigorous and comprehensive account of recent democratic transitions around the world From the 1980s through the first decade of the twenty first century the spread of democracy across the developing and post Communist worlds transformed the global political landscape What drove these changes and what determined whether the emerging democracies would stabilize or revert to authoritarian rule Dictators and Democrats takes a comprehensive look at the transitions to and from democracy in recent decades Deploying both statistical and qualitative analysis Stephen Haggard and Robert Kaufman engage with theories of democratic change and advocate approaches that emphasize political and institutional factors While inequality has been a prominent explanation for democratic transitions the authors argue that its role has been limited and elites as well as masses can drive regime change Examining seventy eight cases of democratic transition and twenty five reversions since 1980 Haggard and Kaufman show how differences in authoritarian regimes and organizational capabilities shape popular protest and elite initiatives in transitions to democracy and how institutional weaknesses cause some democracies to fail The determinants of democracy lie in the strength of existing institutions and the public's capacity to engage in collective action There are multiple routes to democracy but those growing out of mass mobilization may provide more checks on incumbents than those emerging from intra elite bargains Moving beyond well known beliefs regarding regime changes Dictators and Democrats explores the conditions under which transitions to democracy are likely to arise

Christianity, Islam and Liberal Democracy Robert Alfred Dowd, 2015 Based on research conducted in Nigeria and other parts of sub Saharan Africa Christianity Islam and Liberal Democracy argues that Christian and Islamic religious communities become more conducive to actions and attitudes conducive to and compatible with liberal democracy in religiously diverse and integrated settings than in religiously homogeneous or diverse but segregated settings

The Covid-19 Crisis in South Asia Sumit Ganguly, Dinsha Mistree, 2022-07-05 This edited book provides a range of perspectives on the handling of particular aspects of the Covid 19 pandemic across the principal states of South Asia As the first academic volume to deal with the COVID 19 pandemic in South Asia it examines such issues as how India has dealt with the fallout of the pandemic on its substantial diaspora in the Middle East the competitive Sino Indian vaccine diplomacy strategies in Bangladesh Nepal's attempts to cope with the pandemic in light of its limited health infrastructure Sri Lanka's differential treatment of its population based upon ethnic preferences and how Pakistan's civil military relations shaped its handling of the pandemic The Introduction and the first section summarize the responses to the pandemic made by each principal state in the region These chapters assess the process of decision making within each state with special attention placed on identifying and analyzing the actors involved The Covid 19 pandemic is also reshaping international relations of the subcontinent and the pandemic has laid bare several new cross border challenges and opportunities that states will have to contend with in the future The book also considers five of the most pressing issue areas First it considers how diaspora communities in the Gulf were affected by the pandemic and what lessons South Asian sending states can take from protecting their citizens in the future Second the Covid 19 pandemic will affect how countries engage in status politics shaping which countries will be able to lead in regional relations Third the Covid 19 pandemic is likely to affect prospects for regional cooperation both for dealing with the current pandemic as well as future crises Fourth it will shape how South Asian states engage in global governance Fifth South Asian states may revisit their relations with China in light of the pandemic This book will be of much interest to students of South Asian politics human security and international relations

Kashmir after 2019 Werner Menski, Muneeb Yousuf, 2025-01-21 This interdisciplinary volume portrays India's removal of Article 370 and of Jammu and Kashmir's special status in August 2019 as an effort to stop the suffering of its highly diverse people While the state had been divided between the only two successor nations allowed in 1947 local people were subjected to prolonged violence by several competing external and internal stakeholders Though the bold step of August 2019 signified acceptance by both India and Pakistan of the completion of the partition of 1947 evidence of continuing discontent and latent adherence to continuing dreams of freedom Azadi indicates that the current arrangement needs to be better and more widely understood as a viable peace making effort The book re traces the history of the suffering of Kashmir s people and provides an intriguing new analysis of the conflict through the plurality conscious kite model of law and life suggesting important policy implications It also challenges the negative implications of international and foreign meddling in the Kashmir problem This book will be useful to scholars students and teachers of political science sociology governance economics and development studies It will also be an indispensable companion to scholars and general readers interested in India especially Jammu and Kashmir as well as those engaging with South Asian Studies Gandhi Manash Firaq Bhattacharjee,2025-05-01

Transition in Afghanistan William Maley,2018-04-17 This book by one of the most experienced authorities on the subject presents a deep analysis of the very difficult current situation in Afghanistan Covering a wide range of important subjects including state building democracy war the rule of law and international relations the book draws out two overarching key factors the way in which the prevailing neopatrimonial political order has become entrenched making it very difficult for any other political order to take root and the hostile region in which Afghanistan is located especially the way in which an ongoing creeping invasion from Pakistani territory has compromised the aspirations of both the Afghan government and its international backers to move the country to a more stable position

Populist Identification in Public Discourse Ihsan Yilmaz,Fizza Batool,2025-01-17 Based on semi structured interviews with ordinary citizens in Pakistan this book analyses the complex relationship between populism political identity and historical experiences in Pakistan highlighting how populist discourse influences and is influenced by varied interpretations of Pakistani at the identification with Pakistan It introduces a novel theoretical framework for analysing populism in the public sphere using Laclau's view of populism as a discursive logic and Panizza's definition as a mode of identification. This connection allows for a deeper understanding of how populist constructs form a collective identity amidst diverse demands, particularly through the concept of the people as an empty signifier. The book also examines the multiple meanings associated with Pakistani identity and their ties to the rise of populism, addressing gaps in existing literature regarding the demand side of populism and its impact on both politicians and the public.

Bangladesh in Anglophone and Vernacular Literature Asif Iqbal, 2025-08-14. This book illuminates individual and collective imaginings of postcolonial Bangladesh. It explores the emergence of Bangladesh as a nation from a variety of perspectives. The author studies the impact of Muslim nationalism on the subaltern life worlds of East Bengal during the Partition, religious minorities and their insecurity in East Pakistan, East Pakistan's political insurgencies, the victims of the 1971 Bangladesh Liberation War, the Indian stake in the 1971 War, and the cosmopolitan interpretations of the war. The literary and cultural texts that inform this project include contemporary Bengali novels, South Asian Anglophone literature, as well as selected visual media and digital sources. The project's reading of these texts in conjunction with politics and history has interdisciplinary relevance. This book will be of interest to researchers in South Asian Literature, South Asian History and Culture, World Literatures in English, as well as Area Studies, Security Studies, and Political Theory.

Spaces of Religion in Urban South Asia István Keul, 2021-02-25. This book explores religion in various spatial constellations in South Asian cities, including religious centres such as Varanasi, Madurai, and Nanded, and cities not readily associated with religion such as Mumbai and Delhi. Contributors from different disciplines discuss a large variety of urban spaces: physical and imagined, institutional and residential, built and landscaped, virtual and mediated, historical and contemporary. In doing so, the book addresses a wide range of issues concerning the role of religion in the dynamic interplay of factors which characterise complex urban social spaces. Chapters incorporate varying degrees and forms of the religious, spiritual, ranging from invisible and incorporeal to material and explicit, embedded in and expressed as spatial politics, works of fiction, mission, pilgrimage, festivals, and everyday life. Topics examined include conflictual situations involving places of worship in Delhi, inclusive religious practices in Kanpur, American Protestant mission in Madurai, the celebration of the Prophet's birthday in Lahore, gardens as imaginative spaces, the politics of religion in Varanasi, and many others. Illustrating and analysing ways and forms in which religion persists in South Asian urban contexts, this book will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of cultural studies, the study of religions, urban studies, and South Asian studies.
