Reclaiming the Spiritual in Art Dawn Perlmutter, Debra Koppman, 1999-01-01 Examines the role of the sacred in art and makes a compelling case for its continued contemporary relevance Envisioning Worlds in Late Antique Art Anna Cecilia Olovsson, 2018-12-17 It has long been an accepted assumption that the abstracted mode of visual representation that emerged in late antiquity reflected a collective shift from the outer directed and material world view of classical antiquity to an inner directed spiritual mentality informed by Christianity the purpose of this volume is to offer a more nuanced and diverse image of the nature and meanings of abstraction and symbolism in late antique and early medieval art beyond normative interpretation models and from a number of different methodological and interpretative perspectives In ten chapters ten authors specialised in various fields of late antique and Byzantine art explore the historiographical background of the spiritual interpretation paradigm neuroscientific and theological dimensions of Christian visual aesthetics meanings and motive factors behind apparently wholly abstract and aniconic compositions symbolic motifs and schemes for visualising cosmic order and the cosmic state of Christ and the re use of symbolic Greco Roman themes in Christian contexts The result is a multi focal image of late antique abstraction and symbolism that illuminates the heterogeneity and complexity of the phenomena and of their study Spiritual Art and Art Education Janis Lander, 2013-12-17 This book is a study of contemporary spirituality as it is practiced in the world today characterized by its secular and inclusive nature and applied to art and art education It identifies the issues facing a formal introduction of contemporary spiritual concepts into a secular and multicultural arts educational environment Lander begins by separating the notion of the spiritual from the study of organized religions She uses examples of art from different cultures in contemporary spiritual systems making the study a reference book for contemporary spirituality and spirituality in art education with usable definitions and practical examples suitable for scholars in art and visual studies art education and contemporary spirituality The Image of Christ in

Modern Art Richard Harries, 2016-03-03 The Image of Christ in Modern Art explores the challenges presented by the radical and rapid changes of artistic style in the 20th century to artists who wished to relate to traditional Christian imagery In the 1930s David Jones said that he and his contemporaries were acutely conscious of the break by which he meant the fragmentation and loss of a once widely shared Christian narrative and set of images In this highly illustrated book Richard Harries looks at some of the artists associated with the birth of modernism such as Epstein and Rouault as well as those with a highly distinctive understanding of religion such as Chagall and Stanley Spencer He discusses the revival of confidence associated with the rebuilding of Coventry Cathedral after World War II and the commissioning of work by artists like Henry Moore Graham Sutherland and John Piper before looking at the very testing last quarter of the 20th century He shows how here and even more in our own time fresh and important visual interpretations of Christ have been created both by well known and less well known artists In conclusion he suggests that the modern movement in art has turned out to be a friend not a foe of Christian art Through a wide and beautiful range of images and insightful text Harries explores the continuing challenge present from the beginning of Christian art as to how that which is visual can in some way indicate the transcendent
