Three Women Bavaria King Sweden:

Three Women of Bavaria John M Pilkington, 2015-12-17 In this historical novel based on actual events the author portrays three strong women a peasant a baroness and her daughter Their lives are interrupted as the King of Sweden violently invades their Bavarian homeland during the Thirty Years War Events focus on the potential nobility of the three protagonists The book is uplifting but not without romance and humor while emphasizing the importance of loyalty to friends country and one's own personal beliefs After reading the story you may wonder as did the author how another woman a queen not a fictional character could bring the madness of the conflict to an end Littell's Living Age, 1855 The History of the Swedes, by Eric Gustave Geijer Eric Gustave Geijer, 1845 The Rise of Female Kings in Europe, 1300-1800 William Monter, 2012-01-24 In this lively and pathbreaking book William Monter sketches Europe's increasing acceptance of autonomous female rulers between the late Middle Ages and the French Revolution Monter surveys the governmental records of Europe's thirty women monarchs the famous Mary Stuart Elizabeth I Catherine the Great as well as the obscure Charlotte of Cyprus Isabel Clara Eugenia of the Netherlands describing how each of them achieved sovereign authority wielded it and more often than men abandoned it Monter argues that Europe's female kings who ruled by divine right experienced no significant political opposition despite their gender Women of Europe in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries Sophia Elizabeth Higgins, 1885 Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 1820 An Introduction to Nineteenth-Century Art Michelle Facos, 2011-02-22 Using the tools of the new art history feminism Marxism social context etc An Introduction to Nineteenth Century Art offers a richly textured yet clear and logical introduction to nineteenth century art and culture This textbook will provide readers with a basic historical framework of the period and the critical tools for interpreting and situating new and unfamiliar works of art Michelle Facos goes beyond existing histories of nineteenth century art which often focus solely on France Britain and the United States to incorporate artists and artworks from Scandinavia Germany and Eastern Europe The book expertly balances its coverage of trends and individual artworks where the salient trends are clear trend setting works are highlighted and the complexity of the period is respected by situating all works in their proper social and historical context In this way the student reader achieves a more nuanced understanding of the way in which the story of nineteenth century art is the story of the ways in which artists and society grappled with the problem of modernity Key pedagogical features include Data boxes provide statistics timelines charts and historical information about the period to further situate artworks Text boxes highlight extracts from original sources citing the ideas of artists and their contemporaries including historians philosophers critics and theorists to place artists and works in the broader context of aesthetic cultural intellectual social and political conditions in which artists were working Beautifully illustrated with over 250 color images Margin notes and glossary definitions Online resources at www.routledge.com/textbooks/facos with access to a wealth of information including original documents pertaining to artworks discussed in the textbook contemporary criticism timelines and maps to enrich your understanding of the period and allow for further comparison and exploration Chapters take a thematic approach combined within an overarching chronology and more detailed discussions of individual works are always put in the context of the broader social picture thus providing students with a sense of art history as a controversial and alive arena of study Michelle Facos teaches art history at Indiana University Bloomington Her research explores the changing relationship between artists and society since the Enlightenment and issues of identity Prior publications include Nationalism and the Nordic Imagination Swedish Painting of the 1890s 1998 Art Culture and National Identity in Fin de Si cle Europe co edited with Sharon Hirsh 2003 and Symbolist Art in Context 2009
