Love Is Like Water and Other Stories Samia Serageldin, 2009-09-15 Like the author of this remarkable collection of thirteen linked stories the protagonist Nadia was born and raised in Egypt educated in England and immigrated to the United States Samia Serageldin draws her characters out with subtlety and control moving from the narrator's grandmother's garden house in Cairo to the suburbs of North Carolina yielding powerful portraits of cultural dislocation faith and multigenerational conflicts As the narratives shift in time and place they unfold through memory In The Zawiya Nadia reflects on the change in women's space from the coiffeur's salon to a religious pulpit as she revisits a childhood ritual In the title story Nadia offers a vivid sketch of her grandmother Nanou a force of nature who as an early widow single handedly raised six children and ran the household At a time when few women experienced such independence Nanou had a potent influence on the young narrator Told with compassion and clarity Serageldin's stories reveal one woman's exploration of identity finding it in both the sweeping backdrop of Egyptian history and the quotidian exchanges with friends and family

My Name on His Tongue Laila Halaby, 2012-05-22 This unique collection of poetry reaches out to readers of all kinds offering the compelling voice of a woman who grew up and lived in the United State as an Arab and an American

The Man Who Guarded the Bomb Gregory Orfalea, 2010-04-14 A boy finds himself alone with his first love in a toboggan stalled atop the Matterhorn at Disneyland A woman bitter about her marriage to a man turned blind must decide if he lives or dies A man haunted by his role in creating the H bomb suddenly disappears in old age only to turn up at Alamogordo seeking an Indian and redemption Such characters at the crossroads of emotion and ethics confounding loss and resurrection populate this unforgettable collection of tales Loosely connected the stories chronicle the lives of the Matters a captivating tragic yet ultimately exultant Arab American family Spanning continents and a century the stories center on the balm that human relationships offer In The Chandelier a boy desperate to feed his starving family hauls a stolen chandelier over a snowy mountain in Lebanon during World War I A young Mexican nurse and her lover wind their way through eighteenth century California missions in Fabiola Against the backdrop of the September 11 attacks an Arab American man is thrown from a bus echoing past racial discriminations in Get Off the Bus With a poet's ear and a historian's keen eye for detail Orfalea offers readers beautifully crafted stories filled with flawed yet irresistible characters who are rendered with great tenderness and aching complexity

Loom Therese Chehade, 2010-11-17 As a blizzard blankets the northeast United States burying residents and shutting down airports the Zaydan family eagerly awaits the arrival of Eva a cousin visiting from Lebanon after a long separation from the family Over the course of one day while Eva is stranded in New York City Chehade's nuanced story unfolds in the reminiscences and anxieties of each family member Emilie the matriarch of this Lebanese American family lives in a world of voluntary silence Barely able to read and write in English and refusing to speak for the last several years she immerses herself in her garden and leaves elaborately cooked meals anonymously for her solitary neighbor Emilie's oldest daughter Josephine middle aged and still living with her mother and married brother struggles to gain her independence and prepare for the arrival of her cousin whose impending visit has reawakened conflicting emotions Young Marie Emilie's granddaughter is stifled by her conservative family and determined to study at Berkeley and to leave behind her immigrant identity All three are drawn to their mysterious neighbor nicknamed Loom whose loneliness and isolation mirror their own and kindle within each woman a desire to make a connection When Emilie takes off during the blizzard in the direction of Loom's house and the rest of the family follows her their act is both an escape and a reaching out Beautifully written and alive with vivid portraits Chehade's novel is both heartfelt and wise

Making It in America Elliott Robert Barkan, 2001-05-01 This collection of over 400 biographies of eminent ethnic Americans celebrates a wide array of inspiring individuals and their contributions to U S history The stories of these 400 eminent ethnic Americans are a testimony to the enduring power of the American dream These men and women from 90 different ethnic groups certainly faced unequal access to opportunities Yet they all became renowned artists writers political and religious leaders scientists and athletes Kahlil Gibran Daniel Inouye Zbigniew Brzezinski Thurgood Marshall Madeleine Albright and many others are living proof that the land of opportunity sometimes lives up to its name Alongside these success stories as historian Elliot R Barkan notes in his introduction to this volume there have been many failures and many immigrants who did not stay in the United States Nevertheless the stories of these trailblazers visionaries and champions portray the breadth of possibilities from organizing a nascent community to winning the Nobel prize They also provide irrefutable evidence that no single generation and no single cultural heritage can claim credit for what America is

Dinarzad's Children Pauline Kaldas, Khaled Mattawa, 2009-11-01 The first edition of Dinarzad's Children was a groundbreaking and popular anthology that brought to light the growing body of short fiction being written by Arab Americans This expanded edition includes sixteen new stories thirty in all and new voices and is now organized into sections that invite readers to enter the stories from a variety of directions Here are stories that reveal the initial adjustments of immigrants the challenges of forming relationships the political nuances of being Arab American the vision directed towards homeland and the ongoing search for balance and identity The contributors are D H Melhem Mohja Khaf Rabih Alameddine Rawi Hage Laila Halaby Patricia Sarrafian Ward Alia Yunis Diana Abu Jaber Susan Muaddi Darraj Samia Serageldin Alia Yunis Joseph Geha May Monsoor Munn Frances Khirallah Nobel Nabeel Abraham Yussef El Guindi Hedy Habra Randa Jarrar Zahie El Kouri Amal Masri Sahar Mustafah Evelyn Shakir David Williams Pauline Kaldas and Khaled Mattawa The Time Between Places Pauline Kaldas, 2010-11-01 This collection of twenty stories delves into the lives of Egyptian characters from those living in Egypt to those who have immigrated to the United States With subtle and eloquent prose the complexities of these characters are revealed opening a door into their intimate struggles with identity and place We meet people who are tempted by the possibilities of America and others who are tempted by the desire to return home Some are in the throes of re-creating themselves in the new world while others seem to be embedded in the loss of their homeland Many of these characters although physically located in either the United States or Egypt have lives that embrace both cultures A Game of Chance follows the actions of a young man when he wins the immigration lottery and then must decide whether or not to change his life Cumin and Coriander takes us inside a woman's thoughts as she tries to come to terms with the path her life has taken while working as a cook for American expatriates in Egypt The Top enters the mind of a man whose immigration results in a loss of identity and sanity These compelling stories pull us into the lives of many different characters and offer us striking insights into the Arab American experience
