Times New Romanian Voices And Narrative From Romania:

Times New Romanian James Nigel Shakespeare, 2025-03-20 Non fiction Oral History interviews with Westerners who made a life in Romania covering their experiences and why they stay despite the challenges Times New Romanian Nigel Shakespeare, 2014-07-28 In Romania anything is possible everything is impossible and nothing is ever as it seems Times New Romanian provides a picture of Romania today through the individual first person narratives of people who chose to go and make a life in this country Each chapter a voice each story in Times New Romanian provides readers with a look into the Romanian world the way things work the vitality of the people the living heritage of rural traditions ordinary life sometimes dark sometimes sublime always interesting In a land full of character and contradiction there is a strong attraction for those with the spirit to meet the challenges where the one thing you can be sure of is the unpredictable Life is not always easy These stories will tell you why If you want to know more about Romanians and their country the voices in Times New Romanian make for an enjoyable and lively read Inspired by Studs Terkel and Tony Parker Nigel used their oral history style and his own experience in Romania to guide him in recording these interviews Featured in The Bookseller The German Legacy in East Central Europe as Recorded in Recent German-language Literature Valentina Glajar, 2004 Valentina Glajar investigates these narratives as representations of multicultural East Central Europe in German language literature that show the political and ethnic tensions between Germans and local peoples that marked these regions throughout the twentieth century often with tragic consequences The study thus expands and diversifies the understanding of German literature and challenges the concept of a homogeneous German identity reaching far beyond the borders of the German speaking countries BOOK JACKET The Adventure George C. Klein, 2007 Born from Professor George C Klein s adoption of two Romanian babies in 1990 this work is a personal and analytical autobiography Compiling data from the 1989 Romanian revolution the oppression that led to the overthrow of Communism and his personal experiences in Romania The Adventure is primarily a description of the torturous process he and his wife endured in order to adopt two babies from a Romanian orphanage It is also an examination of Romanian society from an institutional national and global perspective The author analyzes individual issues such as forced pregnancies neglect in orphanages and economic deprivation Professor Klein examines how the Romanian Communist Party held power in that era and explores the collapse of Communism in Eastern Europe His adept study discusses the various socio economic and political factors that led to the collapse of Communism and ultimately to the successful adoption of his Romanian children BOOK JACKET Romania and the Quest for European Identity Cristian Cercel, 2019-03-15 Exploring the largely positive representations of Romanian Germans predominating in post 1989 Romanian society this book shows that the underlying reasons for German prestige are strongly connected with Romania s endeavors to become European The election in 2014 of Klaus Iohannis as Romania s president was hailed as evidence that the country chose a European future that Iohannis belonged to Romania s tiny German minority was also considered to have played a part in his success Cercel argues that representations of Germans in Romania descendants of twelfth century and eighteenth century colonists become actually a symbolic resource for asserting but also questioning Romania's European identity Such representations link Romania's much desired European belonging with German presence whilst German absence is interpreted as a sign of veering away from Europe Investigating this case of discursive self colonization and this apparent symbolic embrace of the German Other in Romania the book offers a critical study of the discourses associated with Romania's postcommunist Europeanization to contribute a better understanding of contemporary West East relationships in the European context This fresh and insightful approach will interest postgraduates and scholars interested in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe and in German minorities outside Germany It should also appeal to scholars of memory studies and those interested in the study of otherness in general

Women's Life Writing in Post-Communist Romania Simona Mitroiu, 2022-11-07 This book analyzes the impact of abusive regimes of power on women's lives and on their self expression through close readings of life writing by women in communist Romania In particular it examines the forms of agency and privacy available to women under totalitarianism and the modes of relationships in which their lives were embedded The self expression and self reflexive processes that are to be found in the body of Romanian women's autobiographical writings this study presents create complex private narratives that underpin the creative development of inclusive memories of the past through shared responsibility and shared agency At the same time however the way these private personal narratives intertwined with collective and official historical narratives exemplifies the multidimensional nature of privacy as well as the radical redefinition of agency in this period This book argues for a broader understanding of the narratives of the communist past one that reflects the complexity of individual and social interactions and allows a deep exploration of the interconnected relations between memory trauma nostalgia agency and privacy

Between the Memory and Post-Memory of Communism in Romania Monica Ciobanu, Mihaela Șerban, 2025-05-23 The first of its kind this book traces the construction of post memory in post communist Romania Focusing on the processes gaps agents and contradictions of post memory it examines a range of topics across a variety of disciplines addressing questions of museums and musealization law and memory political trials and retrospective justice and post memory in a digital context while also considering marginalized and forgotten voices such as those of the Roma population and abandoned children Moving away from a focus on the institutional mechanisms of transitional justice or officially sanctioned historical narratives Between the Memory and Post Memory of Communism in Romania brings together some of the leading voices in the field of memory studies in Romania to adopt a more pluralistic and diverse approach to the communist past It will therefore appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology museum studies and history with interests in the communist period in Eastern Europe

Marginal Spaces and Cultures of Dissent in Socialist Romania's Black Sea Ruxandra-Iuliana Canache, 2023-09-05 This book analyzes two Romanian villages 2 Mai and Vama Veche as spaces of relative freedom during the last decades of socialist rule This microhistorical study refutes simplistic views of the communist past which focus on political figures and events and instead explores ordinary people and everyday life Taking a multidisciplinary approach it considers a broad range of sources including official Communist Party documents secret police files personal memoirs oral history interviews ethnographic films songs and artistic performances This book intertwines three narrative threads that of the visitors mainly members of the Romanian intelligentsia young people and hippies that of the local inhabitants and that of authority local and central state agents actively engaged in surveillance and supervision In doing so it interrogates the spectrum of consent dissent and resistance collaboration hitherto neglected in scholarship

After the Fall Noemi Marin, 2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance

Realms of Exile Domnica Radulescu, 2002-01-01 Realms of Exile brings together authors writing on diverse themes of Eastern European exile The book defines the experiential and linguistic peculiarities of exiled people who share similar cultural geographical and mythological backgrounds and who have suffered under totalitarian rule The contributions discuss a variety of media from the soulful melodies of the Russian gypsies to the delicate sensuousness of Kieslowski s films as the authors treat some of the most crucial issues of our times such as political dissent and resistance the fractured self alienation and migr consciousness Realms of Exile is interdisciplinary and cross cultural scholarship at its best casting new light on the many nuances and variations of many of the cultures and ethnic groups of Eastern Europeans
