Authorial Personality and the Making of Renaissance Texts Douglas S. Pfeiffer, 2022 Studying texts by Lorenzo Valla Erasmus Saint Jerome George Gascoigne and Fulke Greville this volume explores authorial character as an instrument of textual analysis in the scholarship of early Renaissance literature A Material History of the Bible, England 1200-1553 Eyal Poleg, 2020-08-13 This study of hundreds of manuscripts and early printed books reveals that the Bible has never been an abstract text This book offers a new history of the Bible in England putting the advent of moveable type print and religious reform in a new perspective Self-Commentary in Early Modern European Literature, 1400-1700 Francesco Venturi, 2019-05-15 This volume investigates the various ways in which writers comment on present and defend their own works and at the same time themselves across early modern Europe A multiplicity of self commenting modes ranging from annotations to explicatory prose to prefaces to separate critical texts and exemplifying a variety of literary genres are subjected to analysis Self commentaries are more than just an external apparatus they direct and control reception of the primary text thus affecting notions of authorship and readership With the writer understood as a potentially very influential and often tendentious interpreter of their own work the essays in this collection offer new perspectives on pre modern and modern forms of critical self consciousness self representation and self validation Contributors are Harriet Archer Gilles Bertheau Carlo Caruso Jeroen De Keyser Russell Ganim Joseph Harris Ian Johnson Richard Maber Martin McLaughlin John O'Brien Magdalena Oarska Federica Pich Brian Richardson Els Stronks and Colin Thompson English Paleography and Manuscript Culture, 1500-1800 Kathryn James, 2020-02-25 This richly illustrated book provides an essential introduction to the manuscript in early modern England From birth to death parish record to probate inventory writing framed the lives of the early modern English Offering a technical introduction to the handwriting of the period case studies tracing the significance of manuscript to British cultural identity and exercises to practice reading and transcription the book opens the study of early modern English manuscript to a new generation of students and scholars Medical Authority and Englishwomen's Herbal Texts, 1550-1650 Rebecca Laroche, 2009 The first study to analyze print vernacular herbals from the standpoint of gender this book also recognizes the rhetorical agenda of female writers who claim herbal practice As she examines women's herbal language across various genres and in both manuscript and print Laroche also incorporates meticulous archival research which ultimately generates original findings to do with women's ownership of medical texts The Routledge Handbook of Material Culture in Early Modern Europe Catherine Richardson, Tara Hamling, David Gaimster, 2016-09-13 The Routledge Handbook of Material Culture in Early Modern Europe marks the arrival of early modern material culture studies as a vibrant fully established field of multi disciplinary research The volume provides a rounded accessible collection of work on the nature and significance of materiality in early modern Europe a term that embraces a vast range of objects as well as addressing a wide variety of human interactions with their physical environments This

Spaces for Reading in Later Medieval England Mary C. Flannery, 2016-04-08 We are living in an age in which the relationship between reading and space is evolving swiftly Cutting edge technologies and developments in the publication and consumption of literature continue to uncover new physical electronic and virtual contexts in which reading can take place In comparison with the accessibility that has accompanied these developments the medieval reading experience may initially seem limited and restrictive available only to a literate few or to their listeners yet attention to the spaces in which medieval reading habits can be traced reveals a far more vibrant picture in which different kinds of spaces provided opportunities for a wide range of interactions with and contributions to the texts being read Drawing on a rich variety of material this collection of essays demonstrates that the spaces in which reading took place or in which reading could take place in later medieval England directly influenced how and why reading happened
