Promoting Equity for Multilingual Learners With Disabilities

Sara E. N. Kangas, This book examines the nature of equity for one of the most vulnerable populations of K 12 students multilingual learners MLs with disabilities Drawing from a rich array of research and experiences as a teacher educator and policy consultant the author demonstrates how MLs with disabilities encounter inequities in predictable repeated ways throughout their schooling Kangas establishes how these patterned inequities pervade education systems school policies and processes ultimately stifling the learning opportunities and educational rights of students with intersecting language learning and disability needs Through concrete recommendations and helpful resources the text empowers educators researchers and policymakers to detect and dismantle patterned inequities in their respective roles This is an important guide for all stakeholders wishing to promote equitable learning and life opportunities for MLs with disabilities Book Features Examines contemporary research across a range of topics e g service provision individualized plans reclassification and policy Offers a lens for understanding the challenges and solutions to supporting multilingual learners with disabilities Focuses on equity and social justice in education systems classrooms and policies Written to be accessible for a wide range of stakeholders including K 12 administrators and teachers researchers and policymakers Leadership for Increasingly Diverse Schools George Theoharis, Martin Scanlan, 2020-10-12 The second edition of Leadership for Increasingly Diverse Schools helps both practicing and aspiring school leaders deepen their knowledge skills and dispositions to create schools that best serve all students This book helps readers sharpen their awareness of how students multiple dimensions of diversity intersect as well as develop strategies for working with students of all socioeconomic statuses races religions sexual orientations languages and special needs Leadership for Increasingly Diverse Schools provides school leaders with the theory research and practical guidance to foster teaching and learning environments that promote educational equity and excellence for all students Special features Each chapter focuses on a specific dimension of diversity and discusses intersectionality across other areas of difference including ability disability linguistic diversity race socioeconomic status sexual orientation gender religion and social frontiers Chapters synthesize literature share practical strategies and tools include school level and district level cases illustrating inclusive leadership and provide extended learning opportunities Online eResources features additional resources documents and links to specific tools described in the chapters accessible at www.routledge.com/9780367404604

Teaching at Work Yeping Li, Janet Hammer, 2015-06-17 This book presents a new and important scholarship on teaching at the time when studies on teaching in teacher education are long overdue This book is designed to put together such a set of chapters contributed by those teacher educators who are not only taking teaching as a professional practice but also upholding teaching improvement as a scholarly pursuit that needs collaboration and systematic studies Teaching at Work refers to not only the importance of effective teaching in K 12 classrooms and teacher preparation but also the importance of taking teaching and its improvement as a subject of scholarly studies In the field of teacher preparation this book aims to make timely knowledge contribution and is positioned to stimulate further discussion and exploration on teaching and its improvement. The book contains 13 chapters by 35 scholars in the United States. This collection presents many innovative teaching practices and approaches as well as provides new insights into this topic of interest to teacher educators, researchers, and graduate students who wish to learn about various teaching approaches and practices for advancing teacher preparation.

Teaching Practices from America's Best Urban Schools Joseph F. Johnson, Jr., Cynthia L. Uline, Lynne G. Perez, 2013-08-16 Discover the teaching practices that make the biggest difference in student performance. This practical research-based book gives principals, teachers, and school administrators a direct inside look at instructional practices from top award-winning urban schools. The authors provide detailed examples and analyses of these practices and successfully demystify the achievement of these schools. They offer practical guides to help educators apply these successful practices in their own schools. Teaching Practices from America's Best Urban Schools will be a valuable tool for any educator in both urban and non-urban schools, schools that serve diverse student populations including English language learners and children from low-income families.

Bending the Arc Towards Justice Rajni Shankar-Brown, 2021-09-01 School districts are experiencing increasing economic, racial, ethnic, linguistic, gender, and sexuality cultural diversity across the United States and globally. With increasing diversity and persistent social inequities, widening. National Center for Educational Statistics 2019 U.S. Census Data 2018 educational leaders face immense challenges and must actively work to build an equitable, healthy school climate. Educational leaders are critical for ensuring positive student outcomes and success but often report feeling inadequately prepared for current challenges. Coalition for Teacher Equality 2016, Jordan 2012, Miller 2013, Mitani 2018, Papa 2007. Unfortunately, growing challenges are contributing to high school administrator turnover rates and shortages. Gates et al 2006, Jacob et al 2015, Mordechai Fuller 2012, Manna 2015, Rangel 2018, Shankar Brown 2015. A research study by the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) and the Learning Policy Institute (LPI) reveals that public schools with higher percentages of low-income students and students of color are more likely to experience administrative and teacher turnover, which compounds equity issues affecting already vulnerable students. Levin and Bradley 2019. This book provides educational leaders with a deeper understanding of equity-focused and inclusive leadership practices while offering intersectional views on social inequalities and stark reminders of the work still ahead. Connecting theory to practice, this book offers needed encouragement and inspiration to both in-service and practicing educational leaders. Rooted in social justice and weaving together diverse voices, this edited volume systematically examines equity-focused PreK-12 and higher education leadership practices. Shankar Brown Ed calls on educational leaders to collectively rise and mindfully work together to bend the arc toward justice.

Handbook of Research on the Educator Continuum and Development of Teachers Zugelder, Bryan S., L'Esperance, Mark, 2022-06-24 In light of recent sociological events and the COVID-19 pandemic, education has undergone an incredible change in both policy and delivery. As a result, many educators have sought different career paths It is essential to maintain a concentrated effort to retain educators however recruiting teachers into the profession is only one area of focus there must be intentional support for teacher development along the educator continuum in order to sustain the profession through institutional struggles The Handbook of Research on the Educator Continuum and Development of Teachers expands on the body of research related to the educator continuum with a holistic view of teacher development This book combines theory concepts and research studies that pinpoint facets of the educator continuum providing researchers with scholarly contributions that advance the profession Covering topics such as instructional coaching special educator career development and teacher retention this major reference work is a valuable resource for educational faculty and administration teacher colleges educators of K 12 and higher education pre service teachers government officials teacher education administrators libraries researchers and academicians
