The Song Of The Dodo David Quammen, 2012-03-31 Why have island ecosystems always suffered such high rates of extinction In our age with all the world's landscapes from Tasmania to the Amazon to Yellowstone now being carved into island like fragments by human activity the implications of this question are more urgent than ever Over the past eight years David Quammen has followed the threads of island biogeography on a globe encircling journey of discovery Wild Dog Dreaming Deborah Bird Rose, 2011-04-01 We are living in the midst of the Earth's sixth great extinction event the first one caused by a single species our own In Wild Dog Dreaming Deborah Bird Rose explores what constitutes an ethical relationship with nonhuman others in this era of loss She asks Who are we as a species How do we fit into the Earth's systems Amidst so much change how do we find our way into new stories to guide us Rose explores these questions in the form of a dialogue between science and the humanities Drawing on her conversations with Aboriginal people for whom questions of extinction are up close and very personal Rose develops a mode of exposition that is dialogical philosophical and open ended An inspiration for Rose and a touchstone throughout her book is the endangered dingo of Australia The dingo is not the first animal to face extinction but its story is particularly disturbing because the threat to its future is being actively engineered by humans The brazenness with which the dingo is being wiped out sheds valuable and chilling light on the likely fate of countless other animal and plant species People save what they love observed Michael Soul the great conservation biologist We must ask whether we as humans are capable of loving and therefore capable of caring for the animals and plants that are disappearing in a cascade of extinctions Wild Dog Dreaming engages this question and the result is a bold account of the entangled ethics of love contingency and desire The Publishers Weekly, 1920 Lost Land of the Dodo Anthony S. Cheke, Julian Pender Hume, 2008-01-01 Uninhabited by humans the Mascarene Islands of the Indian Ocean were once home to an extraordinary range of birds and reptiles giant tortoises parrots skinks geckos burrowing boas flightless rails and herons and most famously dodos But the discovery of the three isolated islands in the 1500s and their colonization in the 1600s led to dramatic ecological changes The dodo became extinct on its home island of Mauritius within several decades and over the next 150 years most native vertebrates suffered the same fate This fascinating book provides the first full ecological history of the Mascarene Islands as well as the specific story of each extinct vertebrate accompanied by Julian Hume's superb color illustrations The Literary Criticism of Frank Norris Donald Pizer, 2014-11-06 All of American author Frank Norris's significant critical writings have been compiled in this book including his articles for the San Francisco Wave during 1896-1897 and selections from his Weekly Letter column for the Chicago American in 1901 Essays from these two previously unexploited sources comprising almost half the book reveal certain areas of Norris's thought which heretofore had been overlooked by scholars This book was compiled in order to clarify Frank Norris's literary creed When Donald Pizer began to read Norris's uncollected critical articles he observed concepts which had been unnoted or misunderstood by his critics Crediting this to the inadequate representation of Norris's ideas in the posthumous The Responsibilities of the Novelist 1903 Pizer recognized the need for an interpretive and complete edition of Norris's critical writings This volume thus fills a noticeable gap in the field of American literary criticism By the time of his death in 1902 Norris had a closed system of critical ideas This core of ideas however is only peripherally related to the conventional concept of literary naturalism which perhaps explains why critics have gone astray trying to find Zolaesque ideas in Norris's criticism Norris's central idea around which he built an aesthetic of the novel was that the best novel combines an intensely primitivistic subject matter and theme with a highly sophisticated form His paradox of sophisticated primitivism clarifies the vital link between the fiction produced in the 1890s and that written by Hemingway Faulkner and Steinbeck Norris's essays deal with many of the literary themes which preoccupy modern critical theorists His range of subjects includes the form and function of the novel definitions of naturalism realism and romanticism and the problem of what constitutes an American novel His interpretation of commonplace events his comments on prominent figures of his day and his parodies of writers such as Bret Harte Stephen Crane and Rudyard Kipling are characterized by ingenuity and perception Through these writings the personality of a man with well defined convictions and the ability to expound them provocatively comes into sharp focus In a general introduction Pizer summarizes Norris's critical position and surveys his career as literary critic This introduction and the interpretative introductions preceding each section constitute an illuminating essay on the literary temper of the period and provide a new insight into Norris craft and his literary philosophy Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Musical News and Herald ,1916 Literature of Girmitya Neha Singh,Sajaudeen Chapparban,2023-01-31 This book covers various forms of the production of girmitya culture and literature One of the main objectives is to conceptualize the idea of girmitya girmityology and girmitya literature culture history and identity in both colonial and postcolonial contexts This book aims to document the history experiences culture assimilation and identity of girmitya community It also critically analyses the articulation projection and production of their experiences of migration and being immigrant their narratives tradition culture religion and memory It also explores how this labour community formulated into a diaspora community and reconnected created the home land and continues to do so in the wake of globalization and Information and Communication Technology ICT This book is an attempt to bring the intriguing neglected diverse historical heritage of colonial labour migration and their narratives into the mainstream scholarly debates and discussions in the humanities and the social sciences through the trans and interdisciplinary perspectives This book assesses the routes of migration of old diaspora and it explains the nuances of cultural change among the generations Although they have migrated centuries back absorbed and assimilated and got citizenships of respective countries of destinations but still their longing for roots culture identities home and the constant struggle is to retain connections with their homeland depicted in their cultural practices arts music songs folklore and literary manifestations Musical News ,1916 Ben Jonson Ben Jonson,1969-01-01 The Renaissance court masque traditionally an entertainment of music dancing pageantry and spectacular scenic effects was transformed by Ben Jonson into a serious mode of literary expression By using its peculiar viability as a forum for his dramatic imagination Jonson resolved and transcended the satiric vision that was in many ways the substance of Jonsonian drama He instructed as well as applauded his courtly audience and with the aid of the great theatrical designer Inigo Jones brought unity to the diverse elements of the masque infusing them with a moral and poetic life This modernized version of Jonson s masques is the most carefully edited and annotated text available it is also the first one volume edition to be published It includes the faithful reprinting of Jonson s own glosses and notes translated and annotated as well as explanatory notes which offer the most detailed critical commentary ever undertaken In the Introduction itself and important essay about the Renaissance stage Mr Orgel discusses Jonson s development of the masque in relation to Inigo Jones development of the illusionistic stage Mr Orgel is associate professor of English at the University of California in Berkeley Journey to the Mountaintop Robert
