Three Theological Mistakes Ric Machuga, 2015-01-05 Is the existence of God a matter of faith or knowledge Does God sometimes act miraculously or are there physical causes for everything Is morality absolute or relative Are humans truly free or does God's sovereignty determine everything When bad things happen is God the cause or are they the fault of humans Too frequently Christians answer these questions with a Yes to one side and a No to the other side Thomas Aquinas and Karl

Barth answer Yes to both Following their model Machuga defends a third way which transcends the Enlightenment dichotomies of fideism vs rationalism supernaturalism vs naturalism relativism vs absolutism free will vs predestination and God's justice vs his mercy Machuga begins by showing how these false dichotomies grew out of the Enlightenment assumptions of mechanism universal quantification and mono causation He then corrects these demonstrably dubious assumptions by articulating a theory of dual causation The result is a thoroughly biblical understanding of God miracles and free will that can withstand the contemporary criticisms of both science and philosophy

Renewing Our Hope Robert Barron, 2020-08-12 In a time of discouragement how can the Church renew itself and its outreach to all people Bishop Robert Barron Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles insists that a dumbed down Catholicism cannot succeed in today's highly educated society instead the Church needs to draw upon its great theological heritage in order to renew its hope in Christ With Renewing Our Hope Essays for the New Evangelization Bishop Barron traces this renewal through four stages Renewing Our Mission lays out the challenges that call for Catholics to become more aware of their own intellectual resources in encountering the Nones Renewing Our Minds showcases the importance of theological reflection as a font of wisdom and sanity in the Church touching on Thomas Aquinas Hans Urs von Balthasar the recently canonized John Henry Newman and Pope Francis In Renewing the Church he proceeds to look at how Scripture the family the seminary and Catholic college graduates can each contribute to this renewal Finally in Renewing Our Culture he returns to the judgments Catholics must make in assessing contemporary culture specifically family life liberalism relativism and surprisingly the beauty of cinema Bishop Barron known as the host of the Catholicism PBS video series was previously rector and professor of systematic theology at Mundelein Seminary outside Chicago Illinois He demonstrates again in Renewing Our Hope his ability to make the fruits of his wide reading accessible to a broad audience while still giving his academic colleagues much to consider

Scripture and Metaphysics Matthew Levering, 2008-04-15 This book makes a major contribution to contemporary theological and philosophical debates bridging scriptural and metaphysical approaches to the triune God Bridges the gap between scriptural and metaphysical approaches to biblical narratives Retrieves Aquinas's understanding of theology as contemplative wisdom Structured around Aquinas's treatise on the triune God in his Summa Theologiae Argues that intellectual contemplation is part of a broader spiritual journey towards a better understanding of God Contributes to the current resurgence of Thomistic theology in both Protestant and Catholic circles

The Seductiveness of Virtue John J. Fitzgerald, 2016-12-15 John J Fitzgerald addresses here one of life's enduring questions how to achieve personal fulfillment and more specifically whether we can do so through ethical conduct He focuses on two significant twentieth century theologians Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and Pope John Paul II seeing both as fitting dialogue partners given the former's influence on the Second Vatican Council's deliberations on the Jews and the latter's groundbreaking overtures to the Jews in the wake of his experiences in Poland before and during World War II Fitzgerald demonstrates that Heschel and John Paul II both suggest that doing good generally leads us to growth in various components of personal fulfillment such as happiness meaning in life and freedom from selfish desires There are however some key differences between the two theologians John Paul II emphasizes more strongly the relationship between acting well and attaining eternal life whereas Heschel wrestles more openly with the possibility that religious commitment ultimately involves anxiety and sadness By examining historical and contemporary analyses including the work of the Fourteenth Dalai Lama the philosopher Peter Singer and some present day psychologists Fitzgerald builds a narrative that shows the promise and limits of Heschel's and John Paul II's views

Conscience and Prayer Dennis Joseph Billy, James Keating, 2001 Conscience and Prayer takes the new conversation between Christian spirituality and moral theology to a deeper level of precision and focus The authors argue that the relationship between moral theology and spirituality can best be explored by looking at how conscience is related to prayer In exploring this relationship both historically and theologically Billy and Keating open new ways to approach the fundamental aspects of Catholic moral theology

Pope Benedict XVI

Vincent Twomey, 2009-09-03 Fr D Vincent Twomey a former doctoral student of Joseph Ratzinger and long time friend of the Pope felt the need to respond to the common question he heard often after the papal election What kind of person is the new Pope So often Twomey had read false depictions of both the man and his thought especially the image presented by the media as a grim enforcer Twomey offers here a unique double presentation of the man Pope Benedict XVI a theological portrait that encompasses both an overview of the writings teachings and thought of the brilliant theologian and spiritual writer as well as the man himself and his personality traits and how he communicates with others Twomey shows that the secret to the serene dignified behavior of Benedict is that he is open to beauty as much as truth that he lives outside himself and is not preoccupied with his own self He also is a man that Twomey says has the courage to be imperfect showing he has a deep humility and strives for teaching the truth even when misunderstood or not presented as well as he would like Fr D Vincent Twomey S V D holds a PH D in Theology and is a Professor of Moral Theology at the Pontifical University at St Patrick s College in Ireland He is the author of several books including his most recent acclaimed study on the state of Irish Catholicism The End Of Irish Catholicism

Freedom and Sin Ross McCullough, 2022-07-12 A fresh argument for a venerable but recently neglected solution to the problem of human freedom and divine sovereignty If God is the creator of all that is then God is the creator of everything we do This basic premise of Christian theology raises difficult questions How can we have free will if God is the source of all our actions And how can we explain the existence of evil without ascribing it to God Freedom and Sin resolves this conundrum through a classical position known as compatibilist indeterminism the idea that God can determine our free choices while not determining all our choices This solution which insists that God s agency is both non competitive with ours and is not implicated in our sins has been neglected in recent years but remains the most compelling response to philosophical objections to Christian doctrine In this volume Ross McCullough provides a detailed defense and exposition of compatibilist indeterminism showing how human freedom is not compromised but perfected by being fixed to the will of God With a novel re working of Hans Urs von Balthasar s account of analogy with an attention to everyday Christian concerns about suffering and with a consideration of challenging scriptural passages Jesus s cryptic explanation of parables in Mark 4 and Paul s account of election in Romans 9 McCullough demonstrates a commitment both to formidable theological questions and their concrete applications Science and Christian Ethics Paul Scherz,2019-05-09 The scientific reproducibility crisis is a crisis of character Stoic and Christian spiritual exercises build virtues that address these problems Informed Consent to Abortion Caterina Milo,2025 In Informed Consent to Abortion Caterina Milo argues that this politically polarised debate has neglected the crucial component of the decision making process Informed Consent IC She provides a legal and ethical framework of abortion law and professional guidelines by critically analysing the implications of the 2015 UK Supreme Court judgment in Montgomery v Lanarkshire Health Board on informed consent Milo grounds the theoretical debate in the realities of how the law presently responds and how it should respond to key ethical values informing contemporary medicine and health both nationally and internationally The New Cambridge Companion to Christian Doctrine Michael Allen,2022-11-17 This Companion guides the reader through the main topics and the most significant methods for practicing Christian theology The essays in this first part engage the ten most notable loci in Christian doctrine The ten essays in the second part address the most significant movements that have broad impact upon the practice of Christian doctrine Theological Negotiations Douglas Farrow,2018-11-06 One of today s leading theologians tackles some of the most significant themes in contemporary theology Douglas Farrow explores key theological loci such as nature and grace and justification and sanctification introduces theological giants such as Anselm Aquinas Luther and Barth and examines contemporary questions about sacraments and unity Throughout his explorations Farrow invites readers to consider how to negotiate controversy in Christian theology especially between Catholics and Protestants arguing that theology does its best work at the intersection of topics in dispute Historical Dictionary of Catholicism William J. Collinge,2021-08-15 This work covers the whole history of Catholicism including the periods of Christian history prior to the present divisions into Catholic Orthodox and Protestant but within the earlier periods it focuses on the story line that leads to Catholicism in the Roman Rite and particularly to Roman Catholicism in the United States The Historical Dictionary of Catholicism Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important persons and places as well as themes such as baptism contraception labor church architecture the sexual abuse crisis Catholic history doctrine and theology spirituality and worship moral and social teaching and church structure This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Catholicism An Introduction to Biblical Ethics David Wayne Jones,2013 An introductory text explaining the nature relevancy coherency and structure of the moral law as revealed throughout the Bible with discussion of the Ten Commandments as a moral rubric and
