The Stations Of The Cross Of A Person With Aids:

Threshold Dwellers in the Age of Global Pandemic Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2022-05-19 So many lives have been lost now and the death toll still continues to rise because of the COVID 19 pandemic The poor and the marginalized not surprisingly have been disproportionately affected The pandemic has exposed the fault lines not only in our healthcare but also in our political and economic system a system driven by the pursuit of the bottom line profits If we are not only to survive but also thrive as a global society the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic must lead us to explore ways of thinking being and dwelling that promote our shared flourishing It is time to take personal stock about ourselves who we are where we have been and where we are heading What can the pandemic teach us about ourselves What is it revealing about us and our situation How shall we dwell together Do we want to wake up to a new and better tomorrow after this nighttime of pandemic That will largely depend on the way we respond now Who are we becoming in this time of pandemic What daily practices are we doing as embodiments of the new world we are anticipating

Fear Not Eric H. F. Law, 2020-02-04 Learn how to face your fears and live into courageous and faithful action with Fear Not Americans live in a culture of fear whether we know it or care to admit it Who will attack us next Who will steal our jobs Whose relationship undermines the sanctity of mine In an era when manipulative messaging is unavoidable politicians media marketers and even faith leaders play on our fears and use them to win elections gain attention sell products and influence the way you view those around you all in the name of claiming power Fear Not subverts insidious fear based messaging with the creation of courageous communities committed to truth telling grace hope and love Drawing on decades as a community building and church growth leader for churches and nonprofit organizations Eric H F Law shares practical resources and processes for bringing diverse people together to build authentic relationships and share their truth Each chapter includes suggested activities and questions for discussion and tips for creating small discussion groups

Hidden Mercy Michael J. O'Loughlin, 2021-11-30 The 1980s and 1990s the height of the AIDS crisis in the United States was decades ago now and many of the stories from this time remain hidden A Catholic nun from a small Midwestern town packs up her life to move to New York City where she throws herself into a community under assault from HIV and AIDS A young priest sees himself in the many gay men dying from AIDS and grapples with how best to respond eventually coming out as gay and putting his own career on the line A gay Catholic with HIV loses his partner to AIDS and then flees the church focusing his energy on his own health rather than fight an institution seemingly rejecting him Set against the backdrop of the HIV and AIDS epidemic of the late twentieth century and the Catholic Church's crackdown on gay and lesbian activists journalist Michael O Loughlin searches out the untold stories of those who didn't look away who at great personal cost chose compassion even as he seeks insight for LGBTQ people of faith struggling to find a home in religious communities today This is one journalist's gay and Catholic himself compelling picture of those quiet heroes who responded to human suffering when so much of society and so much of the church told them to look away These pure acts of compassion and mercy offer us hope and inspiration as we continue to confront existential questions about what it means to be Americans Christians and human beings responding to those most in need

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Couples with Mixed HIV Status: Beyond Positive/Negative Asha Persson, Shana D. Hughes, 2016-10-24 This edited volume presents a detailed portrait of couples living with mixed HIV status where one partner is HIV positive and the other negative Readers will come to understand the various and complex ways in which these mixed status or serodiscordant couples build a life together within the shadow of HIV related stigma Spanning the globe coverage explores serodiscordance as a negotiated practice and process inseparable from the social context in which it is situated The book shows how couples draw on diverse and sometimes contradictory cultural discourses of medicine romance and normality to make sense of and manage their mixed HIV status and any perceived risks not uncommonly in ways that depart from prevailing HIV prevention messages Throughout compelling personal stories accompany the empirical research sharing the firsthand experiences of men and women in serodiscordant relationships Bringing together research from diverse disciplines and geographical regions this book contributes important insights for future HIV health promotion as well as offers new knowledge to scholarship on the cultural intersections of illness and intimacy It will appeal to a broad audience working across the fields of HIV health gender sexuality development and human rights

The Flag, the Cross, and the Station Wagon Bill McKibben, 2022-05-31 One of the New Yorker's Best Books of 2022 Bill McKibben award winning author activist educator is fiercely curious I'm curious about what went so suddenly sour with American patriotism American faith and American prosperity Like so many of us McKibben grew up believing knowing that the United States was the greatest country on earth As a teenager he cheerfully led American Revolution tours in Lexington Massachusetts He sang Kumbaya at church And with the remarkable rise of suburbia he assumed that all Americans would share in the wealth But fifty years later he finds himself in an increasingly doubtful nation strained by bleak racial and economic inequality on a planet whose future is in peril And he is curious What the hell happened In this revelatory cri de coeur McKibben digs deep into our history and his own well meaning but not all seeing past and into the latest scholarship on race and inequality in America on the rise of the religious right and on our environmental crisis to explain how we got to this point He finds that he is not without hope And he wonders if any of that trinity of his youth The Flag the Cross and the Station Wagon could or should be reclaimed in the fight for a fairer future

The Spirit of Colin McCahon Zoe Alderton,2015-02-27 The Spirit of Colin McCahon provides a vivid historical contextualisation of New Zealand s premier modern artist clearly explaining his esoteric religious themes and symbols Via a framework of visual rhetoric this book explores the social factors that formed McCahon s religious and environmental beliefs and justifications as to why his audience often missed the intended point of spiritual his discourse or chose to ignore it The Spirit of Colin McCahon tracks the intricate process by which the artist s body of work turned from optimism to misery and explains the many communicative techniques he employed in order to arrest suspicion towards his Christian prophecy More broadly The Spirit of Colin McCahon outlines a model of analysis for the intersection of art and religion and the place of images as rhetorical devices within Antipodean culture The emerging field of religion and visual culture is important not only to students of New Zealand art history but also to a growing field of appreciation for the communicative power of images This book provides a helpful model for examining art and literature as social and religious tools and advances the importance of visual rhetoric within studies of art and social expression
