Chaplin, 2012-10-30 In this first full history of around the world travel Joyce E Chaplin brilliantly tells the story of circumnavigation Round About the Earth is a witty erudite and colorful account of the outrageous ambitions that have inspired men and women to circle the entire planet For almost five hundred years human beings have been finding ways to circle the Earth by sail steam or liquid fuel by cycling driving flying going into orbit even by using their own bodily power The story begins with the first centuries of circumnavigation when few survived the attempt in 1519 Ferdinand Magellan left Spain with five ships and 270 men but only one ship and thirty five men returned not including Magellan who died in the Philippines Starting with these dangerous voyages Joyce Chaplin takes us on a trip of our own as we travel with Francis Drake William Dampier Louis Antoine de Bougainville and James Cook Eventually sea travel grew much safer and passengers came on board The most famous was Charles Darwin but some intrepid women became circumnavigators too a Lady Brassey for example Circumnavigation became a fad as captured in Jules Verne s classic novel Around the World in Eighty Days Once continental railroads were built circumnavigators could traverse sea and land Newspapers sponsored racing contests and people sought ways to distinguish themselves by bicycling around the world for instance or by sailing solo Steamships turned round the world travel into a luxurious experience as with the tours of Thomas Cook Son Famous authors wrote up their adventures including Mark Twain and Jack London and Elizabeth Jane Cochrane better known as Nellie Bly Finally humans took to the skies to circle the globe in airplanes Not much later Sputnik Gagarin and Glenn pioneered a new kind of circumnavigation in orbit Through it all the desire to take on the planet has tested the courage and capacity of the bold men and women who took up the challenge Their exploits show us why we think of the Earth as home Round About the Earth is itself a thrilling adventure The Anthology of Babel Ed Simon,2020-01-21 Why should there only be literary scholarship about authors who actually lived and texts which exist Where are the articles on Enoch Champion Linus Withold Redondo Panza Darshan Singh or Heidi B Morton That none of these are real authors should be no impediment to interpreting their invented writings In the first collection of its kind The Anthology of Babel publishes academic articles by scholars on authors books and movements that are completely invented Blurring the lines between scholarship and creative writing The Anthology of Babel inaugurates a completely new literary genre perfectly attuned to the era we live in a project evocative of Jorge Louis Borges Umberto Eco and Italo Calvino Sailing Alone Richard J. King,2024-05-21 2024 National Outdoor Book Award Silver Medal Winner A masterfully curated collection You don t have to be a sailor to be blown away by this fascinating bighearted book Nathaniel Philbrick author of In the Heart of the Sea Travels with George and Second Wind A story as vast and exhilarating as the open ocean itself SAILING ALONE chronicles the daring disastrous and often absurd history of those who chose to sail across the ocean in very small boats alone Sailing by yourself out of sight of land can be invigorating and terrifying compelling and tedious and sometimes all of the above in one morning But it is also a wide expanse of time in which to think Sailing Alone tells the story of some of the remarkable people who over the last four centuries have spent weeks and months moving slowly over the world s largest laboratory a capricious and startling place in which to observe oneself the weather the stars and countless sea creatures from the tiniest to the most massive and threatening Richard J King profiles characters famous diverse international and obscure from Joshua Slocum of 1898 to modern teenagers daring to take the challenge They see strange hallucinations lie to us and themselves on their travel logs encounter sharks befriend birds and experience ESP all part of the unnerving reality of extended isolation And some disappear altogether Sailing Alone also recounts the author s own nearly catastrophic solo crossing of the Atlantic and the mystery of his inexplicable survival one sunny afternoon An enormously engaging new book for skippers and armchair voyagers alike

The Race Tim

Zimmermann,2004-01-01 A contributing editor for Outside magazine provides a behind the scenes look at the fast paced around the world sailing race An invigorating behind the scenes look at the world of extreme sailing The Race is also a taut engrossing account of the first running of the competition called The Race which began on December 31 2000 in Barcelona and ended sixty two days later in Marseilles The most intense event of its kind a nonstop circumnavigation of the globe in the fastest boats ever built The Race attracts some of the world s best sailors and arguably its most eccentric personalities Tim Zimmermann an experienced blue water sailor relates in knuckle whitening detail how and why sailors risk millions of dollars and their lives to dash around the world in record time He garnishes this story with a chronicle of the tumultuous history of extreme sailing from the nineteenth century to today Zimmermann puts the reader right on board with the tough colorful crews as they take a crash course sometimes literally in how to handle these astonishing machines Derek Lundy author of Godforsaken Sea Praise for The Race Zimmerman turns a daring race of unthinkably fast high tech sailing machines into a page turner Bruce Knecht author of The Proving Ground This is probably the finest account of the history of the circumnavigator's quest yet written refreshingly free of hyperbole and false expectation Zimmerman's pace matches that of The Race itself though he never puts his bow under Lincoln P Paine author of Ships of the World Zimmerman's behind the scenes look at the characters boats and technology in The Race as well as the rich sailing history that preceded it captures the nuances of adventure only a masochist could love The Race was a wild ride and The Race is a fine read Herb McCormick sailing correspondent of the New York Times editor of Cruising World "Framing the Ocean, 1700 to the Present "

Tricia Cusack,2017-07-05 Before the eighteenth century the ocean was regarded as a repulsive and chaotic deep Despite reinvention as a zone of wonder and pleasure it continued to be viewed in the West and elsewhere as uninhabited empty space This collection spanning the eighteenth century to the present recasts the ocean as social space with particular reference to visual representations Part I focuses on mappings and crossings showing how the ocean may function as a liminal space between places and cultures but also connects and imbricates them Part II considers ships as microcosmic societies shaped for example by the purpose of the voyage the mores of shipboard life and cross cultural encounters Part III analyses narratives accreted to wrecks and rafts what has sunk or floats perilously and discusses attempts to recuperate plastic flotsam Part IV plumbs ocean depths to consider how underwater creatures have been depicted in relation to emergent disciplines of natural history and museology how mermaids have been reimaged as a metaphor of feminist transformation and how the symbolism of coral is deployed by contemporary artists This engaging and erudite volume will interest a range of scholars in humanities and social sciences including art and cultural historians cultural geographers and historians of empire travel and tourism The Other Shore Michael Jackson,2013 In this book ethnographer and poet Michael Jackson addresses the interplay between modes of writing modes of understanding and modes of being in the world Drawing on literary anthropological and autobiographical sources he explores writing as a technics akin to ritual oral storytelling magic and meditation that enables us to reach beyond the limits of everyday life and forge virtual relationships and imagined communities Although Maurice Blanchot wrote of the impossibility of writing the passion and paradox of literature lies in its attempt to achieve the impossible a leap of faith that calls to mind the mystic's dark night of the soul unrequited love nostalgic or utopian longing and the ethnographer's attempt to know the world from the standpoint of others to put himself or herself in their place Every writer whether of ethnography poetry or fiction imagines that his or her own experiences echo the experiences of others and that despite the need for isolation and silence his or her work consummates a relationship with them Squid Martin Wallen,2020-10-14 In myths and legends squids are portrayed as fearsome sea monsters lurking in the watery deeps waiting to devour humans Even as modern science has tried to turn those monsters of the deep into unremarkable calamari squids continue to dominate the nightmares of the Western imagination Taking inspiration from early weird fiction writer H P Lovecraft modern writers such as Jeff VanderMeer depict squids as the absolute Other of human civilization while non Western poets such as Daren Kamali depict squids as anything but threats In Squid Martin Wallen traces the many different ways humans have thought about and pictured this predatory mollusk as guardians harbingers of environmental collapse or an untapped resource to be exploited No matter how we have perceived them squids have always gazed back at us unblinking from the dark
