The Supreme Source The Fundamental Tantra Of Dzogchen Semde Kunjed Gyalpo:

The Supreme Source Chogyal Namkhai Norbu, Andriano Clemente, 1999-05-01 The aim of Dzogchen is the reawakening of the individual to the primordial state of enlightenment which is naturally found in all beings The master introduces the student to his or her real nature already perfected and enlightened but it is only by recognizing this nature and remaining in this state of recognition in all daily activities that the student becomes a real Dzogchen practitioner of the direct path of self liberation In this book the Dzogchen teaching is presented through the tantra Kunjed Gyalpo or The King Who Creates Everything a personification of the primordial state of enlightenment This tantra is the fundamental scripture of the Semde or Nature of Mind tradition of Dzogchen and is the most authoritative source for understanding the Dzogchen view The commentary by Chogyal Namkhai Norbu gives easier insight into the depths of these teachings Adriano Clemente translated the main selections of the original tantra Yogacara Texts: Indo-Tibetan Sources of Dzogchen Mahamudra Rodney Devenish, 2013-09-24 The Yogacara Doctrine teaches one fundamental truth namely that all beings are Buddha sattva Buddha evam or in other words all beings are aspects of one all embracing absolute awareness were they but to know it This book sets a context for the study and meditation on ten pivotal texts of Yogacara The source texts translated from a practice perspective derive from the Indo Tibetan mahasiddha tradition and are presented with an ecumenical approach As this collection of pithy Yogacara works will readily prove to the reader the ancient Practice Tradition of the Yogin rnal bhyor pa i sgrub brgyud is based on a clearly active realization of the essential nature of mind and consciousness gained through years of intensive examination and reflection Yogacara approach advocates a dynamic form of meditation that is neither suppressive nor lethargic The guide to this attainment the mechanism that sharpens the mind s penetrative and illuminative qualities is metaphysical inquiry Nondualism Jon Paul Sydnor, Anthony J. Watson, 2023-09-05 The time has come for nondualism As a fundamentally unifying concept nondualism may seem out of place in an age of rising nationalism and bitter deglobalization but our current debates over tribalism and universalism all grant nondualism an informative relevance Nondualism rejects both separation and identity thereby encouraging unity in difference Yet nondualism as a word occupies a large semantic field Nondual theists advocate the unity of humankind and God while nondual atheists advocate the inseparability of all persons without reference to a divinity Ecological nondualism asserts that we are in nature and nature is in us while monistic nondualists assert that only God exists and all difference is illusion Edited by Jon Paul Sydnor and Anthony Watson and guided by scholars from different religions and specializations Nondualism An Interreligious Exploration explores the semantic field that nondualism occupies The collection elicits the expansive potential of the concept clarifies agreement and disagreement and considers current applications In every case nondualism is universal in its relevance yet always distinctive in its contribution Rainbow Body and Resurrection Francis V. Tiso, 2016-01-26 A leading authority on the rainbow body traces its history in the encounter of religions in medieval Central Asia exploring a previously unimagined connection between early Dzogchen and the resurrection of Jesus Francis V Tiso a noted authority on the rainbow body explores this manifestation of spiritual realization in a wide ranging and deeply informed study of the transformation of the material body into a body of light Seeking evidence on the boundary between physical science and deep spirituality that might elucidate the resurrection of Jesus he investigates the case of Khenpo A Ch a Buddhist monk who died in eastern Tibet in 1999 Rainbow Body and Resurrection chronicles the dissolution of Khenpo s material body within a week of his death including eye witness interviews Tiso describes the spiritual practices that give rise to the rainbow body and traces their history deep into the encounter of religions in medieval Central Asia His erudite exploration of the Tibetan phenomenon raises the fascinating question of whether there is a connection between the rainbow body and the dying and rising of Jesus Drawing on a wealth of recent research Tiso expands his discussion to include the contemplative geography out of which Dzogchen arose some time in the eighth century along the great Silk Road across Central Asia The result is an illuminating consideration of previously unimagined relationships between spiritual practices and beliefs in Central Asia

Entering the Way of the Great Vehicle Rongzom Chokyi Zangpo, 2021-06-15 The first English translation of a classic treatise on how the Tibetan practice of Dzogchen or Great Perfection is in fact the culmination of the path of Mahayana Buddhism Rongzom Chokyi Zangpo wrote this treatise in the eleventh century during the renaissance of Buddhism in Tibet that was spurred by the influx of new translations of Indian Buddhist texts tantras and esoteric transmissions from India For political and religious reasons adherents of the new schools of Tibetan Buddhism fostered by these new translations cast the older tradition of lineages and transmissions as impure and decadent Rongzompa composed the work translated here in order to clearly and definitively articulate how Dzogchen was very much in line with the wide variety of sutric and tantric teachings espoused by all the Tibetan schools Using the kinds of philosophic and linguistic analyses favored by the new schools he demonstrates that the Great Perfection is indeed the culmination and maturation of the Mahayana the Great Vehicle The central topic of the work is the notion of illusory appearance for when one realizes deeply that all appearances are illusory one realizes also that all appearances are in that respect equal The realization of the equality of all phenomena is said to be the Great Perfection approach to the path which frees one from both grasping at and rejecting appearances However for those unable to remain effortlessly within the natural state in the final chapter Rongzompa also describes how paths with effort are included in the Great Perfection approach
