The Tears Of Eros By Bataille Georges 1989:

Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-09-20 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Erotici

The ^AOxford Handbook of Politics and Performance Shirin M. Rai, Milija Gluhovic, Silvija Jestrovic, Michael Saward, 2021-02-19 While political scientists and political theorists have long been interested in social and political performance and theatre and performance researchers have often focused on the political dimensions of the live arts the interdisciplinary nature of this labor has typically been assumed rather than rigorously explored This volume brings together leading scholars in the fields of Politics and Performance drawing on experts across the fields of literature law anthropology sociology psychology and media and communication as well as politics and theatre and performance to map out and deepen the evolving interdisciplinary engagement Organized into seven thematic sections the volume investigates the relationship between politics and performance to show that certain features of political transactions shared by performances are fundamental to both disciplines and that to a large extent they also share a common communicational base and language

Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas, 2019-11-19 A groundbreaking reading of Duchamp's work as informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices identifying creative energy with the erotic impulse Considered by many to be the most important artist of the twentieth century the object of intensive critical scrutiny and extensive theorizing Marcel Duchamp remains an enigma He may be the most intellectual artist of all time and yet toward the end of his life he said If you wish my art would be that of living each second each breath is a work which is inscribed nowhere which is neither visual or cerebral In Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas offers a groundbreaking new reading of Duchamp arguing in particular that his work may have been informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices that identify creative energy with the erotic impulse Duchamp drew on a wide range of sources for his art from science and mathematics to alchemy Largely overlooked until now have been Asian spiritual practices including Indo Tibetan tantra Baas presents evidence that Duchamp's version of artistic realization was grounded in a western interpretation of Asian mind training and body energetics designed to transform erotic energy into mental and spiritual liberation She offers close readings of many Duchamp works beginning and ending with his final work the mysterious shockingly explicit tant donn's 1 la chute d'eau 2 le gaz dclairage Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas Generously illustrated with many images in color Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life speculates that Duchamp viewed art making as part of an esoteric continuum grounded in Eros It asks us to unlearn what we think we know about both art and life in order to be open to experience

Architecture and Violence Bechir Kenzari, 2011 In today's turbulent times few subjects deserve a closer scrutiny than the interactions between violence and constructed environment Modernity's contradictory histories laid bare the fact that it is impossible to consider architecture simply a benign passive victim of humanity's violent vices Built space is as capable of incarnating violent acts as enacting them disciplining and silencing the subject in the process In this compelling volume some of the most incisive thinkers of contemporary architectural theory make manifest the intricacies of interrelations between architecture and violent events Employing a wide variety of perspectives and methodical approaches the authors examine some of the most dramatic and unexpected instances of these vexing relations Back cover

Critical Theory to Structuralism David Ingram, 2014-09-11 Philosophy in the middle of the 20th Century between 1920 and 1968 responded to the cataclysmic events of the time Thinkers on the Right turned to authoritarian forms of nationalism in search of stable forms of collective identity will and purpose Thinkers on the Left promoted egalitarian forms of humanism under the banner of international communism Others saw these opposed tendencies as converging in the extinction of the individual and sought to retrieve the ideals of the Enlightenment in ways that critically acknowledged the contradictions of a liberal democracy racked by class cultural and racial conflict Key figures and movements discussed in this volume include Schmitt Adorno and the Frankfurt School Arendt Benjamin Bataille French Marxism Black Existentialism Saussure and Structuralism Levi Strauss Lacan and Late Pragmatism These individuals and schools of thought responded to this modernity crisis in different ways but largely focused on what they perceived to be liberal democracy's betrayal of its own rationalist ideals of freedom equality and fraternity

The History of Continental Philosophy Alan D. Schrift, 2013-04-12 From Kant to Kierkegaard from Hegel to Heidegger continental philosophers have indelibly shaped the trajectory of Western thought since the eighteenth century Although much has been written about these monumental thinkers students and scholars lack a definitive guide to the entire scope of the continental tradition The most comprehensive reference work to date this eight volume History of Continental Philosophy will both encapsulate the subject and reorient our understanding of it Beginning with an overview of Kant's philosophy and its initial reception the History traces the evolution of continental philosophy through major figures as well as movements such as existentialism phenomenology hermeneutics and poststructuralism The final volume outlines the current state of the field bringing the work of both historical and modern thinkers to bear on such contemporary topics as feminism globalization and the environment Throughout the volumes examine important philosophical figures and developments in their historical political and cultural contexts The first reference of its kind A History of Continental Philosophy has been written and edited by internationally recognized experts with a commitment to explaining complex thinkers texts and movements in rigorous yet jargon free essays suitable for both undergraduates and seasoned specialists These volumes also elucidate ongoing debates about the nature of continental and analytic philosophy surveying the distinctive sometimes overlapping characteristics and approaches of each tradition Featuring helpful overviews of major topics and plotting road maps to their underlying contexts A History of Continental Philosophy is destined to be the resource of first and last resort for students and scholars alike

Women and Gothic Maria Purves,2014-03-17 This small collection of essays explores women s relationship with the gothic a relationship which has since its eighteenth century beginnings always been complex These essays demonstrate some of the scope and diversity of that relationship and much of its intensity the ingenuity and genius employed the anguish experienced and the risks taken in its evolution Genuinely representative of gothic s flexibility and presence in everything from novels to architecture from surrealist art to hypertext fiction this volume brings new primary sources and topics to the reader s attention and will be of interest to anyone who wants to expand and challenge their understanding of how and why women engage with the gothic

Invention in the Real Linda Clifton,2018-05-08 The Papers of the Freudian School of Melbourne Volume 24 give testament to that quasi suicidal risk taken by analysts and members of the school in applying not a technique but the Freudian method to their clinical practice to their seminars to their writing and to the functioning of the School itself In pursuing a practice that seeks to avoid the inertia spoken of by Lacan the contributors to this volume take the risk of encountering the impasses of the clinic today and the incompleteness of Lacanian theory with invention Being marked by the residue of the psychoanalytic clinic they continue to work their transference to that clinic and to the texts of Freud and Lacan Included in this volume is a paper by Oscar Zentner founder of the School as well as translations of papers and extracts from books by analysts from overseas

The Body in the Library ,2022-06-08 The body is increasingly understood as being at the centre of colonial and post colonial relationships and textual productions Creating and circulating images of the undisciplined body of the other was and is a critical aspect of colonialism Likewise resistance to colonial practices was also frequently corporeal with indigenous peoples appropriating parodying and subverting those European practices which were used to signify the civilized status of the colonizing body The Body in the Library reads representations of the corporeal in texts of empire case studies include gendered representations of corporeality medical r gimes ethnography and photography in the Pacific cultural transvestism in theatre disease and colonial knowledge generation freak shows and colonial exhibits cinematic representations of bodies geography and the metaphorization of land as a penetrable body marketing the body organ transplants and the limits of the post colonial paradigm In viewing colonialism and resistance as a bodily phenomenon The Body in the Library enables new perspectives on the process of colonization and resistance It is an important resource for teachers and students of colonial and post colonial literatures

On Jean Améry Magdalena Zolkos,2011-10-16 On Jean Améry provides a comprehensive discussion of one of the most challenging and complex post

Holocaust thinkers Jean Améry 1912-1978 a Jewish Austrian-Belgian essayist, journalist and literary author. In the English-speaking world Améry is known for his poignant publication At the Mind's Limits, a narrative of exile, dispossession, torture and Auschwitz. In recent years there has been a renewed interest in Améry's writings on victimization and resentment, partly attributable to a modern fascination with tolerance, historical injustice and reconciliatory ambitions. Many aspects of Améry's writing have remained largely unexplored outside the realm of European scholarship and his legacy in English-language scholarship limited to discussions of victimization and memory. This volume offers the first English-language collection of academic essays on the post-Holocaust thought of Jean Améry. Comprehensive in scope and multi-disciplinary in orientation, contributors explore central aspects of Améry's philosophical and ethical position, including dignity, responsibility, resentment and forgiveness. What emerges from the pages of this book is an image of Améry as a difficult and perplexing yet exceptionally engaging thinker whose writings address some of the central paradoxes of survivorship and witnessing. The intellectual and ethical questions of Améry's philosophies are equally pertinent today as they were half a century ago. How can one reconcile with the irreconcilable? How can one account for the unaccountable? And how can one live after catastrophe?

Sensible Ecstasy Amy Hollywood, 2010-01-15. Sensible Ecstasy investigates the attraction to excessive forms of mysticism among twentieth-century French intellectuals and demonstrates the work that the figure of the mystic does for these thinkers. With special attention to Georges Bataille, Simone de Beauvoir, Jacques Lacan and Luce Irigaray, Amy Hollywood asks why resolutely secular even anti-Christian intellectuals are drawn to affective, bodily and widely denigrated forms of mysticism. What is particular to these thinkers, Hollywood reveals, is their attention to forms of mysticism associated with women. They regard mystics such as Angela of Foligno, Hadewijch and Teresa of Ávila not as emotionally excessive or escapist but as unique in their ability to think outside of the restrictive oppositions that continue to afflict our understanding of subjectivity, the body and sexual difference. Mystics such as these, like their twentieth-century descendants, bridge the gaps between action and contemplation, emotion and reason, and body and soul, offering new ways of thinking about language and the limits of representation.

The Roots of Morality Maxine Sheets-Johnstone, 2010-11-01. The Chinese Postmodern Xiaobin Yang, 2002. An insightful look into contemporary Chinese avant-garde fiction and the problem of Chinese postmodernity.

The Representation of the Political in Selected Writings of Julio Cortázar Carolina Orloff, 2013. Orloff shows that Cortázar did not become a political writer as a result of the Cuban Revolution as is often claimed but rather that the representation of the political was present in Cortázar's very first writings. The book analyses the evolution of the representation of distinct political elements throughout Cortázar's writings, mainly with reference to the novels and the so-called collage books which have so far received only limited critical attention. The author also alludes to some short stories and refers to many of Cortázar's non-literary texts. Through this chosen corpus, the book follows a thematic thread showing that politics was present in Cortázar's fiction from his very first writings and not as he himself tended to claim only following his conversion to socialism The study aims to show that contrary to what many critics have argued this political conversion did not divide the writer into an irreconcilable before and after the apolitical versus the political but rather it simply shifted the emphasis of the representation of the political that already existed in Cortázar's writings Carolina Orloff is an independent scholar working on research projects in the UK and in Argentina Animal Philosophy Matthew Calarco, Peter Atterton, 2004-07-30 Animal Philosophy is the first text to look at the place and treatment of animals in Continental thought A collection of essential primary and secondary readings on the animal question it brings together contributions from the following key Continental thinkers Nietzsche Heidegger Bataille Levinas Foucault Deleuze Guattari Derrida Ferry Cixous and Irigaray Each reading is followed by commentary and analysis from a leading contemporary thinker The coverage of the subject is exceptionally broad ranging across perspectives that include existentialism poststructuralism postmodernism phenomenology and feminism This anthology is an invaluable one stop resource for anyone researching teaching or studying animal ethics and animal rights in the fields of philosophy cultural studies literary theory sociology environmental studies and gender and women's studies

Eschatology and Space V. Westhelle, 2012-10-01 This unique volume focuses on the subjects of time in the area of theology known as eschatology the consideration of the fullness the limit and the goal of time He traces the historical development of understandings of eschatology from the Bible to contemporary theology and adds a postcolonial subaltern perspective

The Choreographic Jenn Joy, 2014-10-10 An investigation of dance and choreography that views them not only as artistic strategies but also as intrinsically theoretical and critical practices The choreographic stages a conversation in which artwork is not only looked at but looks back it is about contact that touches even across distance The choreographic moves between the corporeal and cerebral to tell the stories of these encounters as dance trespasses into the discourse and disciplines of visual art and philosophy through a series of stutters steps trembles and spasms In The Choreographic Jenn Joy examines dance and choreography not only as artistic strategies and disciplines but also as intrinsically theoretical and critical practices She investigates artists in dialogue with philosophy describing a movement of conceptual choreography that flourishes in New York and on the festival circuit Joy offers close readings of a series of experimental works arguing for the choreographic as an alternative model of aesthetics She explores constellations of works artists writers philosophers and dancers in conversation with theories of gesture language desire and history She choreographs a revelatory narrative in which Walter Benjamin Pina Bausch Francis Alÿs and Cormac McCarthy dance together she traces the feminist and queer force toward desire through the choreography of DD Dorvillier Heather Kravas Meg Stuart La Ribot Miguel Gutierrez Luciana Achugar and others she maps new forms of communicability and pedagogy and she casts science fiction writers Samuel R Delany and Kim Stanley Robinson as perceptual avatars and dance partners for Ralph Lemon Marianne Vitali James Foster and Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller Constructing an expanded notion of the choreographic Joy explores how choreography as critical concept and practice attunes us to a more productively
