questions about her surroundings Soon after this Helen learned how to read Miss Sullivan taught her this by giving her strips of cardboard with raised letters on them and then having her act out the sentence with objects Soon Helen could read entire books In May 1888 Helen went north to visit Boston with her mother and teacher She spent some time studying at the Perkins Institute for the Blind and quickly befriended the other blind girls who were her age They spent a vacation at Brewster in Cape Cod where Helen experienced the ocean for the first time Following this they spent nearly every winter up north Once she had learned to read Helen was determined next to learn how to speak Her teacher and many others believed it would be impossible for her to ever speak normally but she resolved to reach that point Miss Sullivan took her to the Horace Mann School in 1890 to begin learning with Miss Sarah Fuller and Helen learned by feeling the position of Miss Fuller s lips and tongue when she spoke The moment she spoke her first words It is warm was a powerful memory for her she was thrilled that she might be able to speak to her family and friends at last The winter of 1892 was a troubling time for Helen Seemingly inspired by the beautiful fall foliage around her she wrote a story called The Frost King and sent it up to her teacher at the Perkins Institute as a gift It soon came out that Helen s story was quite like another in a published book called The Frost Fairies Helen had been read the original story as a child and the words had remained so ingrained in her mind that she d unwittingly plagiarized them when she wrote her own story This tainted Helen s relationship with her Perkins Institute teacher Mr Anagnos and made her distrust her own mind and the originality of her thoughts for a long time In 1894 Helen attended the Wright Humanson School for the Deaf in New York City and began studying formal subjects like history Latin French German and arithmetic In 1896 she began her studies at the Cambridge School for Young Ladies in Massachusetts which would prepare her to eventually attend Radcliffe College the women s college affiliated with Harvard University This was her first time attending school with girls who could see or hear rather than other students who were also deaf or blind

The Shellback Alexander J. Boyd, 1898 The Story of My Life Hellen Keller, 2013-07-05 It is with a kind of fear that I begin to write the history of my life I have as it were a superstitious hesitation in lifting the veil that clings about my childhood like a golden mist The task of writing an autobiography is a difficult one When I try to classify my earliest impressions I find that fact and fancy look alike across the years that link the past with the present The woman paints the child s experiences in her own fantasy A few impressions stand out vividly from the first years of my life but the shadows of the prison house are on the rest Besides many of the joys and sorrows of childhood have lost their poignancy and many incidents of vital importance in my early education have been forgotten in the excitement of great discoveries In order therefore not to be tedious I shall try to present in a series of sketches only the episodes that seem to me to be the most interesting and important I was born on June 27 1880 in Tuscumbia a little town of northern Alabama The family on my father s side is descended from Caspar Keller a native of Switzerland who settled in Maryland One of my Swiss ancestors was the first teacher of the deaf in Zurich and wrote a book on the subject of their education rather a singular coincidence though it is true that there is no king who has not had a slave among his ancestors and no slave who has not had a king among his My grandfather Caspar Keller s son entered large tracts of land in Alabama and finally settled there I have been told that once a year he went from Tuscumbia to Philadelphia on horseback to purchase supplies for the plantation and my aunt has in her possession many of the letters to his family which give charming and vivid accounts of these trips My Grandmother Keller was a daughter of one of Lafayette's aides Alexander Moore and granddaughter of Alexander Spotswood an early Colonial Governor of Virginia She was also second cousin to Robert E Lee The Nation and Athenæum ,1923
