

Recognition Given Port City at Chamber of Commerce Session

Port City was recognized as the "Most Improved City" at the annual session of the Austin Chamber of Commerce, held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Austin, Texas, on Tuesday, June 1, 1988. The award was presented to Port City by the Chamber's President, John W. Smith, during a luncheon session. Port City Mayor, Tom Smith, accepted the award on behalf of the city. The Chamber of Commerce is a non-profit organization that promotes economic development and business growth in the Austin area. It is composed of over 1,000 members, including businesses, industry groups, and community organizations. The annual session is one of the Chamber's major events, where members gather to discuss current issues, network, and celebrate achievements. The "Most Improved City" award is given to the city that has shown the most significant progress in economic development and business growth over the past year. Port City's success in this category is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its citizens and leaders.

County Gives Over $14,000 To American Cancer Society

Brewster County has donated over $14,000 to the American Cancer Society, the largest sum ever received by the organization from a single county. The donation was made by the County Commissioners at a meeting held on Tuesday, June 1, 1988. The funds will be used to support the Society's various cancer research and patient care programs. The American Cancer Society is a national organization dedicated to the fight against cancer. It conducts extensive research into the causes and prevention of cancer, and provides a wide range of services to cancer patients, including financial assistance, counseling, and support groups. The Society's efforts have led to significant advances in cancer treatment and prevention, and it continues to be a major force in the global fight against this deadly disease.

Jennifer Brown
First Frolic
Contest Entry

Jennifer Brown, a resident of Brewster County, has been selected as the winner of the "First Frolic" contest. She was chosen from among several entries submitted by local residents. Jennifer is a young woman who is passionate about swimming and water sports. Her winning entry showcased her exceptional skills and grace in the water. The contest was organized by the local swimming club to promote the sport and encourage participation from the community. Jennifer's victory is a source of pride for her family and friends, and she will represent Brewster County at the upcoming regional competition. The club congratulates Jennifer on her well-deserved win and wishes her the best of luck in the future.

Sandbaggers to Host Tourney This Weekend

The Sandbaggers are hosting a tournament this weekend at the local golf course. The event is open to all skill levels and is expected to draw a large crowd of spectators. County Commissioners Court Faced With Ambulance System Matters

The County Commissioners Court is facing a decision on the future of the local ambulance system. The court is scheduled to hold a public hearing on the matter on Tuesday, June 14, 1988. The issue at hand is whether the county should continue to fund the current ambulance service or explore alternative options. The current service has been in place for many years and has provided reliable transportation for emergency medical services. However, there are concerns about the cost and efficiency of the current system. The court is expected to make a decision that will have a significant impact on the county's healthcare services. The public is encouraged to attend the hearing and voice their opinions on the matter. The court's decision will be final, and it is important that the community's needs are taken into account.
