Tiger And The Big Wind:

Talk That Talk Linda Goss, Marian E. Barnes, 1989-11-15 Contains almost 100 stories by famous yarn spinners from the United States Africa and the Caribbean ranging from ghost stories to ghetto adventures Slave Culture : Nationalist Theory and the Foundations of Black America Sterling Stuckey Professor of History Northwestern University, 1987-04-23 How were blacks in American slavery formed out of a multiplicity of African ethnic peoples into a single people In this major study of Afro American culture Sterling Stuckey a leading thinker on black nationalism for the past twenty years explains how different African peoples interacted during the nineteenth century to achieve a common culture He finds that at the time of emancipation slaves were still overwhelmingly African in culture a conclusion with profound implications for theories of black liberation and for the future of race relations in America By examining anthropological evidence about Central and West African cultural traditions Bakongo Ibo Dahomean Mendi and others and exploring the folklore of the American slave Stuckey has arrived at an important new cross cultural analysis of the Pan African impulse among slaves that contributed to the formation of a black ethos He establishes for example the centrality of an ancient African ritual the Ring Shout or Circle Dance to the black American religious and artistic experience Black nationalist theories the author points out are those most in tune with the implication of an African presence in America during and since slavery Casting a fresh new light on these ideas Stuckey provides us with fascinating profiles of such nineteenth century figures as David Walker Henry Highland Garnet and Frederick Douglass He then considers in detail the lives and careers of W E B DuBois and Paul Robeson in this century describing their ambition that blacks in American society while struggling to end racism take on roles that truly reflected their African heritage These concepts of black liberation Stuckey suggests are far more relevant to the intrinsic values of black people than integrationist thought on race relations But in a final revelation he concludes that with the exception of Paul Robeson the ironic tendency of black nationalists has been to underestimate the depths of African culture in black Americans and the sophistication of the slave community they arose from Plays for Every Day, 2024-12-31 Build fluent reading skills with seven engaging scripts based on folktales from around the world Plays for Every Day is a set of short scripts written specially for beginning readers There are seven plays in all These plays are an excellent way to motivate children to practice reading text again and again and to develop both fluency and expression in their reading There is no need to create elaborate productions Students do not need to memorize lines or to create costumes or sets They can simply take parts and read the plays aloud All the plays are based on folktales Aesop's fables Brothers Grimm and tales from England Norway Africa and Indonesia The plays are scripted for young students so that each student will have a character part There are no narrators There are 2-4 reading parts in each play 20 characters in all Plays for Every Day EBook, 2010-02 Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo, 2013-09-13 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between. Conceived to redress that omission, Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre. Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film/video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists. The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson, Monica Freeman, Jacqueline Shearer, Kathleen Collins, Julie Dash, Camille Billops, Zeinabu irene Davis, and Michelle Parkerson among others. Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo, Carmen Coustaut, Gloria J. Gibson, C. A. Griffith, Monique Guillory, Carol Munday, Lawrence O. Funmilayo, Makarah Ntongela, Maselila, Jacqueline Shearer, P. Jane Splawn.

Brazilian Folktales Livia Maria M. de Almeida, Ana Maria Portella, Margaret Read MacDonald, 2006-03-31. A rich brew of more than 40 traditional Brazilian tales from creation stories and stories of enchantment to animal and trickster tales draws on the varied cultural traditions of indigenous peoples, people of African descent, those of European and particularly Portuguese descent, and mixtures of these groups. The stories are retold by today's accomplished Brazilian storytellers. Also includes background information on the country and the tales, color photographs, traditional recipes, and children's games. Brazil, the largest country in South America, covers a vast terrain that ranges from the tropical rain forests of the Amazon basin and upland farms to towering mountains and sandy beaches from highly populated urban centers to virtually inaccessible interior jungle regions. Its population is composed of indigenous peoples, e.g., Tupi, Kaxinawa, Taulipang, people of African descent, those of European, mostly Portuguese, descent, and mixtures of these groups. Drawing on the varied cultural traditions and ethnic diversity of the country, this collection offers readers a rich brew of traditional Brazilian tales from creation stories and stories of enchantment to animal and trickster tales. More than 40 stories are included along with background information, color photographs, recipes, and games. There are very few collections of Brazilian folktales currently available in English, and none with this depth and range. This is a wonderful treasury for storytellers, folklorists, and educators. Also a great resource for educators planning units on the Amazon rain forest. All grade levels.
