B., 1862 Radical French Thought and the Return of the "Jewish Question" Eric Marty, 2015-05-22 Five seminal essays on contemporary antisemitism and its connections to radical thought For English speaking readers this book serves as an introduction to an important French intellectual whose work especially on the issues of antisemitism and anti Zionism runs counter to the hostility shown toward Jews by some representatives of contemporary critical theory It presents for the first time in English five essays by Eric Marty previously published in France with a new preface by the author addressed to his American readers The focus of these essays is the debate in France and elsewhere in Europe concerning the Jew The first essay on Jean Genet one of postwar France's most important literary figures investigates the nature of Genet's virulent antisemitism and hatred of Israel and its significance for an understanding of contemporary phenomena The curious reappearance of St Paul in theological and political discourse is discussed in another essay which describes and analyses the interest that secular writers of the far left have shown in Paul's universalism placed over and against Jewish or Israeli particularism The remaining essays are more polemical in nature and confront the anti Israeli attacks by Alain Badiou and Gilles Deleuze Both important and timely it will be a notable contribution to the ongoing public and intellectual discussion of contemporary antisemitism and the animus of intellectuals toward the state of Israel Elhanan Yakira author of Post Zionism Post Holocaust Represents a significant contribution to our understanding of both the phenomenon of the new antisemitism and a certain strain of French critical theory over the last several decades Maurice Samuels Yale University
