Usmc Combat Conditioning Marine Corps Martial Arts Program Exercise Book:

Usmc Combat Conditioning Joseph C. Shusko, Rgi Media and Publications, Combat Camera Camp Johnson, 2012-12-03
The Marine Corps exists to fight America's battles and make Marines. This means that everything we do as Marines is focused on our preparation for combat. For these reasons, the Marine is the ultimate warrior who must be prepared for uncertainty. Unlike the professional athlete, a Marine cannot afford to peak; rather, a Marine must maintain an optimal fitness level at all times. A Marine's training must combine strength, power, speed, and agility in order to enhance martial skills that can be applied at the optimal moment in a combat environment. Combat has no quarters, halftime, or known time element. Therefore, a Marine is required to fight in any terrain and under any climatic condition when facing the rigors of the modern battlefield. This volume on Combat Conditioning consists of various components of fitness as well as the programs that are part of the Marine Corps Martial Arts Combat Conditioning Program.

2015 MCMAP Publications Combined: USMC Martial Arts Instructor Course Student Outline; Tan, Gray, Green, Brown & Black Belt; Gear List & Log; The High Intensity Tactical Training Methodology & More, 2019-02-26
Commander's Intent: MCMAP is an integrated weapons-based system that incorporates the full spectrum of the force continuum on the battlefield and contributes to the mental character and physical development of Marines. It is the intent that MCMAP enhances the transformation from civilian to Marine by capitalizing on the zeal of entry-level training and developing the Marine ethos in a progressive manner throughout a Marine's career. Concept of operations: All Marines, regardless of age, grade, or sex, must perform MCMAP qualifications. b. Commanders shall conduct MCMAP training in accordance with the instructions contained herein. The prescribed minimum requirements of this Order should not be interpreted as limiting the commander. Commanders are encouraged to conduct additional MCMAP training in a progressive, safe manner to enhance unit performance and fitness levels of Marines.

Marine Maxims Thomas J. Gordon, 2021-11-10
Marine Maxims is a collection of fifty principle-based leadership lessons that Thomas J. Gordon acquired commanding Marines over a career spanning three decades of service. Dealing with the complexities and challenges of the contemporary operating environment requires an internal moral compass fixed true. These maxims focus on developing inner citadels of character, moral courage, and the resilience to persevere in a contested domain where information is key. Its purpose is to provide future leaders with a professional development plan that will steel their resolve and enable them to lead with honor. Thematically, these maxims build upon a foundation of character, courage, and will. To be effective, a leader must model and inspire the will to persevere in the face of danger or adversity. The essence of effective leadership is credibility. A leader's credibility is derived from a congruence of competence and character. Exceptional leaders are not remembered for what they accomplished but how they did it. Those that lead with integrity will be remembered as a leader worth following. The Marine Corps Martial Arts Program United States Marine Corps, Marine Corps Reference Publication MCRP 3-02B
