Fisherman's Blues Anna Badkhen, 2019-03-12 NAMED A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR BY THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR AND PASTE MAGAZINE An intimate account of life in a West African fishing village tugged by currents ancient and modern and dependent on an ocean that is being radically transformed The sea is broken fishermen say The sea is empty The genii have taken the fish elsewhere For centuries fishermen have launched their pirogues from the Senegalese port of Joal where the fish used to be so plentiful a man could dip his hand into the grey green ocean and pull one out as big as his thigh But in an Atlantic decimated by overfishing and climate change the fish are harder and harder to find Here Badkhen discovers all boundaries are permeable between land and sea between myth and truth even between storyteller and story Fisherman's Blues immerses us in a community navigating a time of unprecedented environmental economic and cultural upheaval with resilience ingenuity and wonder The World Is a Carpet Anna Badkhen, 2014-06-03 An unforgettable portrait of a place and a people shaped by centuries of art trade and war In the middle of the salt frosted Afghan desert in a village so remote that Google can't find it a woman squats on top of a loom making flowers bloom in the thousand threads she knots by hand Here where heroin is cheaper than rice every day is a fast day B 52s pass overhead a sign of America's omnipotence or its vulnerability the villagers are unsure They know though that the earth is flat like a carpet Anna Badkhen first traveled to this country in 2001 as a war correspondent She has returned many times since drawn by a land that geography has made a perpetual battleground and by a people who sustain an exquisite tradition there Through the four seasons in which a new carpet is woven by the women and children of Oqa she immortalizes their way of life much as the carpet does from the petal half finished where a hungry infant needs care to the interruptions when the women trade sex jokes or go fill in for wedding musicians scared away by the Taliban As Badkhen follows the carpet out into the world beyond she leaves the reader with an indelible portrait of fates woven by centuries of art war and an ancient trade that ultimately binds the invaded to the invader Wisdom from the Edge Paul Stoller, 2023-08-15 Wisdom From the Edge describes what anthropologists can do to contribute to the social and cultural changes that shape a social future of wellbeing and viability Paul Stoller shows how anthropologists can develop sensuously described ethnographic narratives to communicate powerfully their insights to a wide range of audiences These insights are filled with wisdom about how respect for nature is central to the future of humankind Stoller demonstrates how the ethnographic evocation of space and place the honing of dialogue and the crafting of character depict the drama of social life and borrows techniques from film poetry and fiction to expand the appeal of anthropological knowledge and heighten its ability to connect the public to the idiosyncrasies of people and locale Ultimately Wisdom from the Edge underscores the importance of recognizing and applying indigenous wisdom to the social problems that threaten the future Creed & Grievance Abdul Raufu Mustapha,David Ehrhardt,2018 Analyses the complexities of Christian Muslim conflict that threatens the fragile democracy of Nigeria and the implications for global peace and security
