Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel. The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies, sociology, geography and history.

Mountaineering Tourism Ghazali Musa, James Higham, Anna Thompson-Carr, 2015-06-05. In May 1993 the British Mountaineering Council met to discuss the future of high altitude tourism. Of concern to attendees were reports of queues on Everest and reference was made to mountaineer Peter Boardman calling Everest an amphitheater of the ego. Issues raised included environmental and social responsibility and regulations to minimize impacts. In the years that have followed there has been a surge of interest in climbing Everest with one day in 2012 seeing 234 climbers reach the summit. Participation in mountaineering tourism has surely escalated beyond the imagination of those who attended the meeting 20 years ago. This book provides a critical and comprehensive analysis of all pertinent aspects and issues related to the development and the management of the growth area of mountaineering tourism. By doing so it explores the meaning of adventure and special reference to mountain based adventure, the delivering of adventure experience and adventure learning and education. It further introduces examples of settings, alpine environments where a general management framework could be applied as a baseline approach in mountaineering tourism development. Along with this general management framework the book draws evidence from case studies derived from various mountaineering tourism development contexts worldwide to highlight the diversity and uniqueness of management approaches, policies and practices. Written by leading academics from a range of disciplinary backgrounds, this insightful book will provide students, researchers and academics with a better understanding of the unique aspects of tourism management and development of this growing form of adventure tourism across the world.

Mobile Lifeworlds Christopher A. Howard, 2016-07-15. Mobile Lifeworlds illustrates how the imaginaries and ideals of Western travellers, especially those of untouched nature and spiritual enlightenment, are consistent with media representations of the Himalayan region, romanticism and modernity at large. Blending tourism and pilgrimage travel across Nepal, Tibet, Bhutan and Northern India is often inspired and oriented by a search for authenticity, adventure and Otherness. Such valued ideals are shown, however, to be contested by the very forces and configurations that enable global mobility The role ubiquitous media and mobile technologies now play in framing travel experiences are explored revealing a situation in which actors are neither here nor there but increasingly are inter placed across planetary landscapes Beyond institutionalised religious contexts and the visiting of sacred sites the author shows how a secular religiosity manifests in practical bodily encounters with foreign environments This book is unique in that it draws on a dynamic and innovative set of disciplinary and theoretical perspectives especially phenomenology the mobilities paradigm and philosophical anthropology The volume breaks fresh ground in pilgrimage tourism and travel studies by unfolding the complex relationships between the virtual imaginary and corporeal dynamics of contemporary mobile lifeworlds
