Trauma-Informed Practice in Montessori Classrooms Bernadette Phillips,Catriona O'Toole,Sinéad McGilloway,Stephen Phillips,2024-12-12 Trauma Informed Practice in Montessori Classrooms provides important historical and contemporary evidence of the potential for Montessori schools to act as healing environments for children and young people Drawing upon fascinating archival evidence and contemporary trauma theory it shows how authentic Montessori schools already have the infrastructure to promote and embed trauma informed practice TIP in their classrooms The book provides cutting edge interdisciplinary knowledge on trauma and highlights its potential to negatively impact the emotional social and cognitive functioning of children and young people It explains clearly and precisely the principles of TIP and how historically these were woven into the fabric of the early Montessori schools resulting in their reputation as Case della Salute or Health Homes The book shows how this almost forgotten healing element of Montessori schools can be revived harnessed and promoted in ways that would benefit the overall health and well being of children and young people This timely book is highly informative hugely practical and reader friendly It includes features such as boxed chapter objectives learner outcomes vignettes chapter summaries and questions for group discussion It provides an invaluable guide for Montessori teachers and students for home educators using the Montessori approach and for non Montessori educators and parents

Homelessness and Housing Insecurity in Higher Education Ronald E. Hallett,Rashida Crutchfield,2018-01-24 Both colleges and policymakers recognize the importance of supporting students experiencing homelessness in higher education The challenges involve both addressing issues of college access as well as developing strategies to support retention and degree completion once enrolled This volume explores how homelessness intersects most social issues that marginalize individuals and negatively influence postsecondary completion including poverty foster care and LGBTQ discrimination As becomes evident students experiencing homelessness should be considered in conversations about equity and access For these students completing some form of degree or certification beyond high school is a vital step in achieving future stability Topics covered include how residential experiences influence educational engagement and retention an overview of research related to housing insecurity in higher education federal and state policies related to homelessness in higher education a trauma informed care approach to this issue an approach to understanding and studying housing insecurity among students ideas that will be necessary for policy and program development

Schools of Opportunity Adam York, Kevin Welner, Linda Molner Kelley, 2023 The National Education Policy Center's Schools of Opportunity project was designed to highlight public high schools that are using research based practices for closing opportunity gaps in student learning The project recognizes schools that are working to address the needs of all students regardless of their zip codes or their school's average test scores By embracing a shift away from the nation's myopic focus on standardized test scores the program's focus is on inputs access to equitable exemplary policies and practices that students experience every school day not outcomes This follows from research findings that schools alone cannot fix the problems created by the stark inequalities in our society Instead schools should be expected to do their part by responding to inequities with research based practices The book features case studies of schools that demonstrate key criteria that other schools can emulate such as an inclusive school climate support for language minority students performance based assessment teacher professionalism a commitment to detracking and supports for students in need Schools of Opportunity builds an argument for shifting the way that excellent public high schools are recognized and built Book Features Provides accounts of school reform jointly told by researcher practitioner teams connecting current research with successful efforts of educators to create outstanding learning environments Brings together the voices of principals and school leaders who share stories of how their work has unfolded in their school district and state contexts Identifies the school leadership and teacher practices that close opportunity gaps for student learning and what it takes to implement them Contributors Dwane Chapelle Janet Eckerson Lourenco Garcia Matt Garcia Kristen Goessling Kimberly Grayson Jill Gurtner Ted Hamann Ann Ishimaru Mark Larson Julie Mead John Murphy Jeannie Oakes Jeff Palladino Derek Pierce Jenifer Rayne Kellie Rolstad Lorrie Shepard Kate Somerville Michelle Valladares Kathryn Wiley
