What Makes It Great Rob Kapilow, 2011-08-24 A fresh guide to classical music from the acclaimed creator of NPR's What Makes It Great™ Rob Kapilow has been helping audiences hear more in great music for two decades with his What Makes It Great series on NPR's Performance Today at Lincoln Center and in concert halls throughout the US and Canada In this book he focuses on short masterpieces by major composers to help you understand the essence of each composer's genius and how each piece which can be heard on the book's web site transformed the musical language of its time Kapilow's down to earth approach makes music history easy to grasp no matter what your musical background Explores the musical styles and genius of great classical composers including Vivaldi Handel J S Bach Handel Haydn Mozart Beethoven Schubert Brahms Chopin Puccini Wagner Dvorak Tchaikovsky and Debussy Features an accompanying web site where you can see hear and download each short masterpiece and all of the book's musical examples Introduces you in depth to popular pieces from the classical repertoire including Spring from the Four Seasons Vivaldi Dove Sono from The Marriage of Figaro Mozart the Prelude to Tristan and Isolde Wagner and Trepak from The Nutcracker Suite Tchaikovsky Written by acclaimed composer conductor and pianist Rob Kapilow You could practically see the light bulbs going on above people's heads The Philadelphia Inquirer Rob Kapilow is awfully good at what he does The Boston Globe A wonderful guy who brings music alive Katie Couric This book along with the music on the companion web site is an ideal starting point for anyone interested in classical music whether first time listener experienced concertgoer or performing musician offering an entree into the world of eighteen great composers and a collection of individual masterpieces spanning almost two hundred years Wonderpedia / NeoPopRealism Archive 2011 , Wonderpedia offers the book's reviews while NeoPopRealism Journal publishes news views and other information additionally to the book's reviews These publications were founded by Nadia RUSS in 2007 and 2008 in New York City Educational Leadership and Music Terri N. Watson, Jeffrey S. Brooks, Floyd D. Beachum, 2017-04-01 In this book we considered new territory for educational leadership by looking to music for lessons and inspiration that may inform the next generation of schools leaders Each chapter focuses on an artist or group whose work serves to refine extend and challenge our thinking in regards to educational leadership You will find a vast array of musical forms of expression analyzed and described by an equally diverse collection of educational leadership scholars and practitioners There may be some who question the academic appropriateness or relevance of a text such as this one Our response is that part of our ongoing mission should be to break ourselves out of academic silos and forge meaningful connections between seemingly disparate disciplines Furthermore educational leadership stands to gain more by drawing from the arts and specifically musical influences Finally music is an obvious part of most of our lives why not explore the ways in which it impacts us on an academic level and not just a personal level In sum we ask that as you read the chapters of this book you reflect on your own musical tastes and favorite artists Leading Beautifully Fenwick W. English, Lisa Catherine Ehrich, 2016-01-08 Leading

Beautifully provides a new dimension to understanding effective leadership Drawing from lessons in the arts and the humanities English and Ehrich explore how educational decision making in schools can be informed by identity personal competence and an understanding of the field s intellectual foundations Based on in depth interviews of artists and educational leaders this book provides insight into the inner world of successful leaders who have developed competencies and understandings that extend beyond the standard leadership tool box This exciting new book explores the theory and practice of leadership connoisseurship as a human centered endeavor and as an antidote to mechanistic business oriented practices The authors well grounded reconsideration of educational leadership will enliven and enhance any educational leader s practice

A Rhetoric of Aesthetic Power Christian Kock,2024-10-18 This book offers a theory of those formal properties of art that are apt to afford strong aesthetic experience a project resembling Aristotle s in the Poetics where he analysed structures in tragedies that condition the peculiar pleasure of tragedy However the book s scope cuts across all genres of literature and also includes classical music the formal art par excellence Drawing on a wide array of recent theoretical work and empirical evidence the book closely analyses dozens of examples of both art forms Besides Aristotle major inspiration comes from two modern master thinkers the linguist Roman Jakobson who defined the poetic function of language and the rhetorician Kenneth Burke who proposed a psychological concept of form Throughout the book argues for aesthetic experience as an end in itself and a component of quality of life one to which everyone should have access rather than just a means to other ends

A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling,2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music It is all about after After having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection design and beauty The book relates five areas of general human interest spirituality philosophy science art and body awareness The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music their patterns of discipline are comparable to self discipline A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills there is enjoyment in being yourself which is a neglected liberal art
