Religion and the

Domestication of Dissent Russell T. McCutcheon, 2016-04-08 Since the events of 9 11 the representation of Islam has increasingly come adrift from its actuality Scholars and pundits have effectively demonised a whole faith by wilfully apportioning blame and by ignoring the differences within the Islamic movement Religion and the Domestication of Dissent examines how the classifications we use to name and negotiate our social worlds notably religion are implicitly political The study ranges widely from contemporary film and art to the War on Terror and will be invaluable to readers interested in the politics behind the portrayal of dissenting religious groups

The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Muthuraj Swamy, 2016-03-24 Muthuraj Swamy provides a fresh perspective on the world religions paradigm and interreligious dialogue By challenging the assumption that world religions operate as essential entities separate from the lived experiences of practitioners he shows that interreligious dialogue is in turn problematic as it is built on this very paradigm and on the myth of religious conflict Offering a critique of the idea of dialogue as it has been advanced by its proponents such as religious leaders and theologians whose aims are to promote inter religious conversation and understanding the author argues that this approach is elitist and that in reality people do not make sharp distinctions between religions nor do they separate political economic social and cultural beliefs and practices from their religious traditions Case studies from villages in southern India explore how Hindu Muslim and Christian communities interact in numerous ways that break the neat categories often used to describe each religion Swamy argues that those who promote dialogue are ostensibly attempting to overcome the separate identities of religious practitioners through understanding but in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography American Theological Inquiry, Volume Two, Issue Two Gannon Murphy, 2009-08-01 American Theological Inquiry ATI was formed in 2007 by Drs S Gannon Murphy PhD St David s College Univ Wales Theology Presbyterian Reformed and Stephen Patrick PhD Univ Illinois Philosophy Eastern Orthodox to open up space for diverse Christian academicians who affirm the Ecumenical Creeds to share research throughout the broader Christian scholarly community in America ATI reaches thousands of Christian scholars throughout the United States particularly specialists in theology Though ATI is a new journal scholars who publish with ATI benefit from exposure to a vast non insular network of one of the broadest Christian academic communities possible
