Heritage Conservation Rebecca Madgin, James Lesh, 2021-05-17 This book presents methodological approaches that can help explore the ways in which people develop emotional attachments to historic urban places With a focus on the powerful relations that form between people and places this book uses people centred methodologies to examine the ways in which emotional attachments can be accessed researched interpreted and documented as part of heritage scholarship and management It demonstrates how a range of different research methods drawn primarily from disciplines across the arts humanities and social sciences can be used to better understand the cultural values of heritage places In so doing the chapters bring together a series of diverse case studies from both established and early career scholars in Australia China

Europe North America and Central America These case studies outline methods that have been successfully employed to consider attachments between people and historic places in different contexts This book advocates a need to shift to a more nuanced understanding of people's relations to historic places by situating emotional attachments at the core of urban heritage thinking and practice It offers a practical guide for both academics and industry professionals towards people centred methodologies for urban heritage conservation Tourism and Development in the Himalaya Gyan P.

Nyaupane,Dallen J. Timothy,2022-06-29 This book examines the unique characteristics of the Himalaya that mark them as a special region among other orographic regions of the world The Himalayan range is an important global asset for ecological climatic cultural spiritual and economic reasons Its diversity of landscapes climates and biotic systems makes the Himalaya an extremely attractive region for tourism The book examines tourism and development in the Himalaya region exploring its sociocultural environmental and economic dimensions The contributors address Himalayan issues from a holistic perspective emphasizing the uniqueness of the region together with concerns it shares with other montane developing parts of the world With a framework of sustainable development this book elucidates interdisciplinary perspectives on nature society economic development poverty justice health social and environmental vulnerability faith and culture Indigenous rights women conflict heritage and living culture and many other concepts that broaden our understanding of tourism and development in mountain areas Many contributors are from the Himalaya region or have worked there extensively lending strength through native and insider perspectives This work will be useful for advanced undergraduate and graduate students research and teaching scholars policy makers practitioners and anyone interested in the Himalaya and their distinctive tourism and development related potential and challenges Heritage Planning Harold Kalman,2014-10-30 Heritage Planning

Principles and Process provides a comprehensive overview of heritage planning as an area of professional practice The book first addresses the context and principles of heritage planning including land use law planning practice and international heritage doctrine all set within the framework of larger societal issues such as sustainability and ethics The book then takes readers through the pragmatic processes of heritage practice including collecting data identifying community opinion determining heritage significance the best practices and methods of creating a conservation plan and managing change Heritage Planning recognizes changing approaches to heritage conservation particularly the shift from the conservation of physical fabric to the present emphasis on retaining values associations and stories that historic places hold for their communities The transition has affected the practice of heritage planning and is important for those in the field It is essential reading for both professionals that manage change within the built environment and students of heritage conservation and historic preservation Managing the Magic of Old Places Jeremy Wells,2025-10-14 From 1849 to the early 1980s the development of US historic preservation policy was shaped by fewer than one hundred elite White men from Europe and America This orthodox preservation doctrine has too long silenced the vibrant experiential relationships between everyday people and their heritage Managing the Magic of Old Places Crafting Public Policies for People Centered Historic Preservation offers a radical rethinking of how historic preservation is approached in the United States Author Jeremy C Wells argues for a revolutionary shift in federal preservation policy one that embraces community based participatory practice and draws from environmental psychology to tap into the intangible emotional connections people have with old places Wells highlights the experiential values that laypeople often ascribe to historic environments which are frequently dismissed by expert driven policies He contends that if historic preservation policy continues to ignore these aspects the field will lose relevance as the gap between professionals and the public widens Drawing from interdisciplinary research in the social sciences particularly phenomenology and environmental psychology Wells s vision of public preservation policy centers the lived experiences of communities reinvigorating the field and ensuring that the preservation of historic places resonates with a wider more inclusive audience Wells positions his work within the growing field of critical heritage studies yet his focus on the psychological and emotional aspects of preservation distinguishes it as a unique contribution By placing the needs and experiences of the public at the heart of preservation efforts Wells critiques the historical foundations of US preservation policy while offering a bold agenda for reform Managing Disaster Risks to Cultural Heritage Bijan

Rouhani,Xavier Romão,2023-11-15 Managing Disaster Risks to Cultural Heritage presents case studies from different regions in the world and establishes a framework for understanding identifying and analysing disaster risks to immovable cultural heritage Featuring contributions from academics and practitioners from around the globe the book presents a comprehensive view of the scholarship relating to cultural heritage disaster risk preparedness and post disaster recovery Particular attention is given to the complex and dynamic nature of disaster risks and how they evolve during different phases of a catastrophic event especially as hazards can create secondary effects that have greater impacts on cultural heritage infrastructure and economy Arguing that risk preparedness and mitigation have historically been secondary to reactive emergency and first aid response the book demonstrates that preparedness plans based on sound risk assessments can prevent hazards from becoming disasters Emphasising that the protection of cultural heritage through preparedness mitigation actions and risk adaptation measures especially for climate change can contribute to the resilience of societies the book highlights the vital role of communities in such activities Managing Disaster Risks to Cultural Heritage will be useful to students professionals and scholars studying and working with cultural heritage protection It will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of Cultural Heritage Archaeology Conservation and Preservation Sustainable Development and Disaster Studies

Place Meaning and Attachment Dak Kopec,AnnaMarie Bliss,2020-03-10 Revolutions have gripped many countries leading to the destruction of buildings places and artifacts climate change is threatening the ancestral homes of many the increasingly uneven distribution of resources has made the poor vulnerable to the coercive efforts by the rich and social uncertainty has led to the romanticizing of the past Humanity is resilient but we have a fundamental need for attachment to places buildings and objects This edited volume will explore the different meanings and forms of place attachment and meaning based on our histories and conceptualization of material artifacts Each chapter examines a varied relationship between a given society and the meaning formed through myth symbols and ideologies manifested through diverse forms of material artifacts Topics of consideration examine place attachment at many scales including at the level of the artifact human being building urban context and region We need a better understanding of human relationships to the past our attachments to the events and places and to the external influences on our attachments This understanding will allow for better preservation methods pertaining to important places and buildings and enhanced social wellbeing for all groups of people Covering a broad range of international perspectives on place meaning from the United States to Europe Asia to Russia and Africa this book is an essential read for students academics and professionals alike CRM ,2007
