When God And Man Failed Non Jewish Views Of The Holocaust:

When God and Man Failed Harry J. Cargas, 1981 Historicism, the Holocaust, and Zionism Steven T

Katz, 1992-02-01 Of the 12 well crafted essays in this volume the most useful are those dealing with the Holocaust Choice Especially recommended for college level students of Jewish history and culture The Bookwatch This is a critical exploration of the most repercussive topics in modern Jewish history and thought A sequel to Katz s National Jewish Book Award winning study Post Holocaust Dialogues this book identifies the main issues in the contemporary Jewish intellectual universe and outlines a larger more synthetic understanding of contemporary Jewish existence Problems Unique to the Holocaust

Harry James Cargas, 2013-07-24 Victims of the Holocaust were faced with moral dilemmas for which no one could prepare Yet many of the life and death situations forced upon them required immediate actions and nearly impossible choices In Problems Unique to the Holocaust today s leading Holocaust scholars examine the difficult questions surrounding this terrible chapter in world history Is it ever legitimate to betray others to save yourself If a group of Jews is hiding behind a wall and a baby begins to cry should an adult smother the child to protect the safety of the others How guilty are the bystanders who saw what was happening but did nothing to aid the victims of persecution In addition to these questions one contributor considers whether commentators can be objective in analyzing the Holocaust or if this is a topic to be left only to Jews In the final essay another scholar assesses the challenge of ethics in a post Holocaust world This singular collection of essays which closes with a meditation on Daniel Goldhagen s controversial book Hitler s Willing Executioners asks bold questions and encourages readers to look at the tragedy of the Holocaust in a new light Fifty Key Thinkers on the Holocaust and Genocide

Paul R. Bartrop, Steven L. Jacobs, 2013-03-01 This unique volume critically discusses the works of fifty of the most influential scholars involved in the study of the Holocaust and genocide Studying each scholar s background and influences the authors examine the ways in which their major works have been received by critics and supporters and analyse each thinker s contributions to the field Key figures discussed range from historians and philosophers to theologians anthropologists art historians and sociologists including Hannah Arendt Christopher Browning Primo Levi Raphael Lemkin Jacques S melin Saul Friedl nder Samantha Power Hans Mommsen Emil Fackenheim Helen Fein Adam Jones Ben Kiernan A thoughtful collection of groundbreaking thinkers this book is an ideal resource for academics students and all those interested in both the emerging and rapidly evolving field of Genocide Studies and the established field of Holocaust Studies

Genocide, Critical Issues of the Holocaust Alex Grobman, Daniel Landes, Sybil Milton, 1983 Christianity, The Other, and The Holocaust Michael R. Steele, 2003-02-28 According to the author Christianity offers a powerful system of rewards and incentives to create cultural uniformity Those who do not join in this cultural uniformity become anathematized oppressed marginalized and ultimately removed from the Christian circle of moral obligation Using culture studies as a framework for analysis Steele investigates the ways in which Christianity created cultural conditions based on a theology of violence and the use of sacred violence to foster behaviors that would lead to the involvement of millions of perpetrators and bystanders during the many instances of extreme violence used against the Other over the centuries. As the original Disconfirming Other in the Christian cultural world, Jews often served as the primary target. Thus, there was a system of definitions, rewards, incentives, and victims already in place when the Nazis came to power. Calling for a re-evaluation of the cultural practices and values that have developed within Christianity over time, this important new book helps account for the phenomenon of the Nazi perpetrators and bystanders during the Holocaust. Framing the Holocaust as a late but logical development in a long series of violent responses by Christianity to the Other, those who stand outside the Christian world, either by geographical accident, religious tradition, or some other factor, the author attempts to show how the Holocaust, while not a specifically Christian event, was nevertheless sanctioned and conditioned by other events in the history of Christianity. Using culture studies to frame his analysis, Steele focuses on historical antecedents that help account for the apathy of bystanders and point to the preexistence of a moral framework supporting and empowering the perpetrators of the Holocaust. This unique perspective concludes that the Nazis invented almost nothing with regard to the Shoah and that instead a long-standing insistence on cultural hegemony played a much bigger role in the attempted destruction of the Jewish community.

Rethinking Jewish Faith Steven L. Jacobs, 2012-02-01. This book addresses the faith of a member of the Second Generation, the offspring of the original survivors of the Shoah. It is a re-examination of those categories of faith central to the Jewish Religious Experience in light of the Shoah: God, Covenant, Prayer, Halakhah, and Mitzvot, Life Cycle, Festival Cycle, Israel, and Zionism, and Christianity from the perspective of a child of a survivor. The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Mass Atrocity, and Genocide Sara E. Brown, Stephen D. Smith, 2021-11-22. The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Mass Atrocity, and Genocide explores the many and sometimes complicated ways in which religion, faith, doctrine, and practice intersect in societies where mass atrocity and genocide occur. This volume is intended as an entry point to questions about mass atrocity and genocide that are asked by and of people of faith and is an outstanding reference source to the key topics, historical events, and heated debates in this subject area. The 39 contributions to the handbook by a team of international contributors span five continents and cover four millennia. Each explores the intersection of religion, faith, and mainly state-sponsored mass atrocity and genocide and draws from a variety of disciplines. This volume is divided into six core sections: Genocide in Antiquity and Holy Wars; The Genocide of Indigenous Peoples; Religion and the State; The Role of Religion during Genocide; Post-Genocide Considerations; Memory Culture. Within these sections, central issues, historical events, debates, and problems are examined, including the Crusades, Jihad, and ISIS; colonialism; the Holocaust; desecration of ritual objects; politics of religion; Shinto nationalism; attacks on Rohingya Muslims; the Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda; responses to genocide; gender-based atrocities; ritualicide in Cambodia; burial sites and mass graves; transitional justice; forgiveness; documenting genocide; survivor memory narratives; post-conflict healing and memorialization. The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Genocide is essential reading for students and researchers with an interest in religion and genocide religion and violence and religion and politics It will be of great interest to students of theology philosophy genocide studies narrative studies history and international relations and those in related fields such as cultural studies area studies sociology and anthropology

Bibliography On Holocaust Literature Abraham J Edelheit,2021-11-28 In this second supplement to their Bibliography on Holocaust Literature the authors have compiled 4000 new entries to keep pace with the outpouring of literature on the subject Readers attention is directed to new materials and to items newly available including books pamphlets and journal articles many of which are catalogued for the first time There is a new section on Soviet anti Semitism and expanded coverage of neo Nazism neo fascism

God and Humanity in Auschwitz Donald Dietrich,2017-07-12 God and Humanity in Auschwitz synthesizes the findings of research developed over the last thirty years on the rise of anti Semitism in our civilization Donald J Dietrich sees the Holocaust as a case study of how prejudice has been theologically enculturated He suggests how it may be controlled by reducing aggressive energy before it becomes overwhelming Dietrich studies the recent responses of Christian theologians to the Holocaust and the Jewish theological response to questions concerning God s covenant with Israel which were provoked by Auschwitz Social science has dealt with the psychosocial dynamics that have supported genocide and helps explain how ordinary persons can produce extraordinary evil Dietrich shows how this research combined with theological analyses can help reconfigure theology itself Such an approach may serve to help dissolve anti Semitism to aid in constructing such positive values as respect for human dignity and to point the way to restricting future outbreaks of genocide God and Humanity in Auschwitz surveys which religious factors created a climate that permitted the Holocaust It also illuminates what social science has to tell us about developing a strategy that when institutionally implemented can channel our energies away from sanctioned murder toward a more compassionate society The book has proven to be an essential resource for theologians sociologists historians and political theorists
