When Hope is Deferred Marcia G. Berger, 2024-10-01 How does one hold on to hope when everything in your personal life and the world around you turns to ashes This was the plight of Zachariah and Elisheva During the tempestuous reign of King Herod the Great upheaval was common There was war corruption conspiracy drought famine pestilence and death which dogged the people on every side This was the world all around them Between their personal anguish and their world will they be able to navigate through life without losing their trust and faith in Adonai Can they hold on to the promises of Adonai for themselves and their nation even when the heavens seem like brass when they pray

Black Feelings Lisa M. Corrigan, 2020-02-25 Honorable Mention Recipient of the 2021 Marie Hochmuth Nichols Award for Outstanding Scholarship in Public Address by the National Communication Association In the 1969 issue of Negro Digest a young Black Arts Movement poet then named Ameer Amiri Baraka published We Are Our Feeling The Black Aesthetic Baraka's emphasis on the importance of feelings in Black selfhood expressed a touchstone for how the Black liberation movement grappled with emotions in response to the politics and racial violence of the era In her latest book award winning author Lisa M Corrigan suggests that Black Power provided a significant repository for negative feelings largely Black pessimism to resist the constant physical violence against Black activists and the psychological strain of political disappointment Corrigan asserts the emergence of Black Power as a discourse of Black emotional invention in opposition to Kennedy era white hope As integration became the prevailing discourse of racial liberalism shaping midcentury discursive structures so too did racial feelings mold the biopolitical order of postmodern life in America By examining the discourses produced by Martin Luther King Malcolm X Stokely Carmichael Huey Newton Eldridge Cleaver and other Black Power icons who were marshaling Black feelings in the service of Black political action Corrigan traces how Black liberation activists mobilized new emotional repertoires

Hope in Pastoral Care and Counseling Andrew D. Lester,1995-01-01 In this ground breaking book pastoral counselor Andrew Lester demonstrates that pastoral theology as well as social and behavioral sciences has neglected to address effectively the predominant cause of human suffering a lack of hope a sense of futurelessness Lester examines the reasons that pastoral theology and other social and behavioral sciences have overlooked the importance of hope and despair in the past He then offers a starting point for the development of addressing these significant dimensions of human life He provides clinical theories and methods for pastoral assessment of and intervention with those who despair He also puts forth strategies for assessing the future stories of those who despair and offers a corrective to these stories through deconstruction reframing and reconstruction This book will be invaluable to pastoral caregivers who are looking for a vantage point from which to provide care and to pastoral theologians who are seeking to develop a theological lens through which to understand the human condition

When Money Is Not Enough Eileen R. Hannegan,2011-12-13 When personality clashes and ego battles predominate the workplace no amount of money in the world is enough to justify continued employment In an age when Americans spend more than half their waking hours either at work or performing a function related to work it is important that the workplace be a healthy community rather than a chaotic battleground When Money Is Not Enough offers the premise that work can indeed enhance our lives as well as pay the bills The book is neither pro employer nor pro employee in its approach Instead it encourages increasing interdependency among all staff members to create a healthy work environment Author Eileen R Hannegan MS says that approaching the workplace as a community or healthy family is the key to resolving work related problems
