When Women Come First Gender And Class In Transnational Migration:

When Women Come First Sheba George, 2005-07-18 With a subtle yet penetrating understanding of the intricate interplay of gender race and class Sheba George examines an unusual immigration pattern to analyze what happens when women who migrate before men become the breadwinners in the family Focusing on a group of female nurses who moved from India to the United States before their husbands she shows that this story of economic mobility and professional achievement conceals underlying conditions of upheaval not only in the families and immigrant community but also in the sending community in India This richly textured and impeccably researched study deftly illustrates the complex reconfigurations of gender and class relations concealed behind a quintessential American success story When Women Come First explains how men who lost social status in the immigration process attempted to reclaim ground by creating new roles for themselves in their church Ironically they were stigmatized by other upper class immigrants as men who needed to play in the church because the nurses were the bosses in their homes At the same time the nurses were stigmatized as lower class sexually loose women with too much independence George s absorbing story of how these women and men negotiate this complicated network provides a groundbreaking perspective on the shifting interactions of two nations and two cultures

Gender, Generations and the Family in International Migration Albert Kraler, Eleonore Kofman, Martin Kohli, Camille Schmoll, 2011 Family related migration is moving to the centre of political debates on migration integration and multiculturalism in Europe It is also more and more leading to lively academic interest in the family dimensions of international migration At the same time strands of research on family migrations and migrant families remain separate from and sometimes ignorant of each other This volume seeks to bridge the disciplinary divides Fifteen chapters come up with a number of common themes Collectively the authors address the need to better understand the diversity of family related migration and its resulting family forms and practices to question if not counter simplistic assumptions about migrant families in public discourses to study family migration from a mix of disciplinary perspectives at various levels and via different methodological approaches and to acknowledge the state s role in shaping family related migration practices and lives Rear cover

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch, Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world. Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe, this collection delves into forty-nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory. Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory, the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science, cultural studies, and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization. The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women's and men's lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories, whether the field of analysis is aesthetics, biology, cultural studies, development, economics, film studies, health, history, literature, politics, religion, science studies, sexualities, violence, or war.

Gendered Migrations and Global Social Reproduction E.

Kofman, P. Raghuram, 2015-03-24 Eleonore Kofman and Parvati Raghuram argue for the benefits of social reproduction as a lens through which to understand gendered transformations in global migration. They highlight the range of sites, sectors, and skills in which migrants are employed and how migration is both a cause and an outcome of depletion in social reproduction.

Gender and Migration Caroline B. Brettell, 2017-01-19 Gender roles, relations, and ideologies are major aspects of migration. This timely book argues that understanding gender relations is vital to a full and more nuanced explanation of both the causes and the consequences of migration in the past and at present. Through an exploration of gendered labor markets, laws, and policies and the transnational model of migration, Caroline Brettell tackles a variety of issues such as how gender shapes the roles that men and women play in the construction of immigrant family and community life, debates concerning transnational motherhood, and how gender structures the immigrant experience for men and women more broadly. This book will appeal to students and scholars of immigration, race, and ethnicity and gender studies and offers a definitive guide to the key conceptual issues surrounding gender and migration.

The Oxford Handbook of the Politics of International Migration

Marc R. Rosenblum, Daniel J. Tichenor, 2012-06-28 Twenty-nine specialists offer their perspectives on migration from a wide variety of fields: political science, sociology, economics, and anthropology.

Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations

, 2013-05-02 Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations connects the 19th and 20th-century labor migrations and migration systems in a global, transcultural perspective. It emphasizes macro-regional internal continuities or discontinuities and interactions between and within macro-regions. The essays look at migrant workers' experiences in constraining frames and the options they seize or constraints they circumvent. It traces the development from 19th-century proletarian migrations to industries and plantations across the globe to 20th and 21st-century domestic and caregiver migrations. It integrates male and female migration and shows how women have always been present in mass migrations Studies on historical development over time are supplemented by case studies on present migrations in Asia and from Asia A systems approach is combined with human agency perspectives Contributors include Rochelle Ball Shelly Chan Dennis D Cordell Michael Douglass Christiane Harzig Dirk Hoerder Muhamad Nadratuzzaman Hosen Hass ne Kassar Kamel Kateb Amarjit Kaur Kiranjit Kaur Gijs Kessler Akram Khater Elizabeth A Kuznesof Vera Mackie Adam McKeown Tomoko Nakamatsu Ooi Keat Gin Aswatini Raharto Marlou Schrover and Patcharawalai Wongboonsin Handbook of Gender and Mobilities Valerie Preston, Sara McLafferty, Monika Maciejewska, Brenda Yeoh, 2024-12-09 This important Handbook provides a critical overview of the complex links between gender mobility and immobility highlighting the production and politics of gendered mobilities and the importance of gender perspectives This title contains one or more Open Access chapters Money and Moralities in Contemporary Asia Lan Anh Hoang, Cheryll Alipio, 2025-10-01 Money and Moralities in Contemporary Asia provides original nuanced insights into social meanings of money and wealth in moral economies of Asia Through case studies from South and Southeast Asia the collection sheds important light on how the new mobilities and wealth created by neoliberal globalization transform people s ways of life notions of personhood and their meaning making of the world It highlights the moral dilemmas and anxieties emerging from the profound socio economic transformations that are taking place across the region and deepens our understanding of local cultures as well as the inner contradictions of global capital in Asian contexts With rich ethnographic insights and a diverse range of empirical contexts chapters in this volume reveal multifaceted complexities and contradictions in the relationship between money and moralities Money they affirm is not an impersonal objective economic instrument with homogenizing powers but a culturally constructed and socially mediated currency in which meanings are constantly contested and re negotiated across time and space
