

A young man with short brown hair and a serious expression stands with his arms crossed. He is wearing a dark grey tank top over a white long-sleeved shirt. The background features a hillside with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of red, orange, and yellow under a clear blue sky. A wooden fence is visible in the foreground.

Kim Harrington

When September Comes When September Comes:

When September Comes Peter Jailall, 2003-01-01 Peter Jailall continues his search for the place called home in his third volume of poetry exploring the open dangerous landscape of a post September 11th world In this climate of globalization none are untouched by the threats of terrorism or the spoils of modernization and its effect on our environment As poet teacher and storyteller Peter s unique gift for the blending of language from Caribbean accented English to Hindi allows him to paint beautiful dichotomies between the Guyana of his birth and the Canada that is his current home To those of us in the worldwide Guyanese diaspora Peter s poetry is cultural regeneration and joy It generates the anchorage of identity and self respect in a sea of uncertainty and adjustment To our host communities it provides insights into who we are as persons It encourages the realization that hopes fears and aspirations are common across cultures and all are worthy of understanding and respect To all who read Peter s work come challenges to thought and imagination glowing pride and prolonged pleasure

Judaman Seecoomar PhD Author Peter Jailall speaks poignantly to problems of identity and the painful feelings associated with movement and change in this fine new collection He examines past and present and points to our need to find out and accept who we really are before cultural identity can be recognized Bob Barton Storyteller writer educator OISE University of Toronto

The Bronx Bill Twomey, 2007-07 If you have ever been curious as to why there is a the in the Bronx or how the borough came to be named look no further Bill Twomey reveals the ins and outs of Bronx history as no one else can and he does it in over 200 stories so you can read as much or as little as you like whether you have a few moments or a few hours Find out the origins of the various communities of the borough and the stories of the many celebrities and interesting people who call the Bronx home Whether you came from West Farms Hunts Point Glason Point Throggs Neck or Riverdale there are stories here to entertain and educate you Freedomland Parkchester Fort Schuyler the Concourse Yankee Stadium the Bronx Zoo and tales of old Baychester will remind you of a bygone era No community is left out of the fascinating book that will make you the guru of all things Bronx
