Those Who Dared Richard Nelsson, 2012-06-05 Throughout their history the Guardian and the Observer have avidly reported the worlds of exploration and adventure travel In the 19th century they covered the British and European explorers who were trying to fill in the blanks on the map crossing deserts racing to the poles searching for the source of the Nile and trying to be the first to master the peaks of the Alps and later the Himalaya By the turn of the 20th century interest turned to Everest the third pole to the deserts that needed to be conquered and also to the new ways of exploring that opened up a whole new world of adventure airships over the North Pole and Citroen driving across the Sahara in the 1920s to name but two In the post war period explorers upped the ante who would be the first to row across the great oceans Travel unsupported to the Poles Climb Everest without oxygen Add to this the vogue for recreating great voyages the most famous being the Kon Tiki and Vinland expedition to Greenland and soon the newspapers were brimming with tales of derring do This collection draws together a unique collection of first person accounts news reports and inevitably obituaries that demonstrate the awe inspiring lengths to which explorers and adventurers have gone to push back the boundaries of human endeavour Gordon Laing s doomed journey to Timbuctoo in 1828 Captain Webb s epic swim across the English Channel in 1875 Wilfrid Thesiger s 1940s crossing of the Rub al Khali Aron Ralston s harrowing experience in 2003 when he amputated his lower right arm in order to free himself from a rockfall Capturing not only the adrenaline rush the adventurers feel when stepping out into the unknown but also the fear and trepidation that set in when things start to go wrong Those Who Dared is an adventure anthology that will satisfy the yearnings of the hardened explorer and armchair traveller alike Boy from Nowhere Allan Fotheringham, 2011-10-25 Born in Hearne Saskatchewan in 1932 Allan Fotheringham has had a distinguished career Dubbed Dr Foth Fotheringham graduated from the University of British Columbia and has worked for numerous news organizations including the Vancouver Sun Southam News The Financial Post Sun Media the Globe and Mail and most notably as a long time columnist for Maclean's. His career has taken him to many places on almost every continent as a correspondent and allowed him to meet many renowned personalities from Robert F Kennedy, Ronald Reagan and Brian Mulroney to The Beatles, Pierre Trudeau and Nelson Mandela. For ten years he was a panellist on the popular CBC TV show Front Page Challenge and he's won many awards including the National Magazine Award for Humour, a National Newspaper Award for Column Writing and the Bruce Hutchinson Life Achievement Award. Time once described Allan Fotheringham as Canada's most consistently controversial newspaper columnist, a tangier critic of complacency has rarely appeared in a Canadian newspaper. KADUNA: A Tale of an African Mafia, Kissinger and Latin America Stephen G.

Rabe, 2020-06-15 In Kissinger and Latin America Stephen G. Rabe analyzes U.S. policies toward Latin America during a critical period of the Cold War. Except for the issue of Chile under Salvador Allende, historians have largely ignored inter-American relations during the presidencies of Richard M. Nixon and Gerald R. Ford. Rabe also offers a way of adding to and challenging the prevailing historiography on one of the most preeminent policymakers in the history of U.S. foreign relations. Scholarly studies on Henry Kissinger and his policies between 1969 and 1977 have tended to survey Kissinger's approach to the world with an emphasis on initiatives toward the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China and the struggle to extricate the United States from the Vietnam conflict. Kissinger and Latin America offers something new, analyzing U.S. policies toward a distinct region of the world during Kissinger's career as national security adviser and secretary of state. Rabe further challenges the notion that Henry Kissinger dismissed relations with the southern neighbors. The energetic Kissinger devoted more time and effort to Latin America than any of his predecessors or successors who served as the national security adviser or secretary of state during the Cold War era. He waged war against Salvador Allende and successfully destabilized a government in Bolivia. He resolved nettlesome issues with Mexico, Peru, Ecuador and Venezuela. He launched critical initiatives with Panama and Cuba. Kissinger also bolstered and coddled murderous military dictators who trampled on basic human rights. South American military dictators whom Kissinger favored committed international terrorism in Europe and the Western Hemisphere. The Two Moons James P. Hogan, 2006. Previously published by Del Rey Books as two separate novels, Inherit the Stars and The Gentle Giants of Ganymede, these two stories now available in one volume.

began Hogan's legendary Giants series and the career of a major SF talent. Poems from My Heart and Soul Melvin Avery Edwards, 2010-02-22. This book is a collection of poems written from 1980-2009. A collection of poems that will have something for all types of folk in this life. It will also give you pause to think about your belief system and what it means to you. These poems look at life from a personal point of view from the author and will show how the author looks at life at certain points of his life while dealing with different types of folk and situations along his life's journey. It will show the angry, disappointment, happiness and love with life along the way. In the end, poems are about life and the roads you take until your world has ended at a certain point. Killing Strangers Tim Wilson, 2020. A bewildering feature of so much contemporary political violence is its stunning impersonality with every city centre a potential shooting gallery every metro system a potential bomb alley Killing Strangers explores how acts of political violence have changed over time becoming unchained from inter personal relationships
