Reflections of Messiah Jim Melchiorre, 2003 Journalist Jim Melchiorre began listening to a recording of Handel's oratorio Messiah as a way to avoid being swept away by consumerism at Christmas. He found familiar music and text a source of comfort and inspiration, a way to find solace in the midst of much seasonal busyness. He also read the scriptures on which the great oratorio is based. He came to fresh understandings of the prophetic mission of the Christ. In short meditations for all the days of Advent plus Christmas Day, Melchiorre reflects a passionate understanding of Jesus. Each day's meditation is based on a portion of scripture included in Handel's Messiah. The meditations call attention to the prophetic understanding of Christianity. Melchiorre invites us to comfort the old, the weak, the marginalized. He reminds us of the relevance of the statement: The work of the Messiah always has and always will be to comfort the afflicted and to afflict the comfortable. Using the words of the prophet Isaiah, Melchiorre reminds us that the Messiah will exalt every valley, bring every mountain low, straighten the crooked paths, and smooth over the rough roads.

McCarroll, 2013-12-24 How do we hope in the face of modernity's failure and postmodernity's absence of foundations How do we hope when the future seems fearful and no clear way forward appears How do we hope when despair indifference and cynicism dominate the psychic landscape of English speaking North America In dialogue with theologians of the cross George Grant and Douglas John Hall this book unmasks the failure of hope in our time and the vacuum of meaning that remains As an exercise in the theology of the cross Waiting at the Foot of the Cross explores the North American context as one in which true hope is discovered only when life's negations are engaged from a posture of waiting trust Such hope is not passive or blind Rather it is attentive active open and spiritually grounded in the One who meets us when all hope is spent The final chapter proposes a way toward hope for today that inspires subversive resilience in the face of the ambiguities and vicissitudes of life Readers interested in the theology of the cross in thinking theologically in our time and place and those interested in the character of Christian hope will find this book compelling Advent Review and Sabbath Herald ,1854
