Ely, Edith King, Martin James Stormzand, 1926 The Heritage of World Civilizations Albert M. Craig, 2003 This comprehensive accessible survey of world history has been extensively revised to provide an even more global and comparative perspective on the events and processes that have shaped our increasingly interdependent world. Written by leading scholars in their respective fields, Heritage of World Civilizations 6e combines unusually strong and thorough coverage of the unique heritage of Asian, African, Islamic, Western, and American civilizations while highlighting the role of the world's great religious and philosophical traditions. Interactive maps: one Web-based interactive map in each chapter provides readers with opportunities to explore the relationships between time and space in shaping world history. A three-volume organization available in A, B, C splits Volume A covers antiquity to 1300, Volume B covers the period from 1300-1850, and Volume C covers the Enlightenment to the present. Sixth editions now provide roughly the same amount of coverage for European and non-European regions. Volumes include European events during the High Middle Ages and Renaissance, extensive discussion of globalization, terrorism, and the challenges facing the world in the 21st century, revised coverage of the ancient world, treatment of the origins of humankind has been completely rewritten to reflect the newest scholarship, provides significant new coverage of women in ancient Greece and Rome. For anyone interested in world civilization or world history.

Civilization Past and Present Palmira Brummett, Neil J. Hackett, George F. Jewsbury, Alastair M. Taylor, Nels M. Bailkey, Clyde J. Lewis, T. Walter Wallbank, 2000-07. Civilization Past and Present Concise Version is a carefully honed version of the best-selling Civilization Past and Present Ninth Edition. This first brief survey of world history published in four color. Civilization Past and Present Concise Version treats the development and growth of civilization as a global experience through which all the great culture systems have interacted to produce the present-day world. This new text considers all types of history: social, economic, political, military, diplomatic, religious, aesthetic, intellectual, and technological, as it examines that global interaction. Maintained throughout this compelling brief survey are a consistent writing style and level of presentation uncommon in multi-authored texts. Its full-color format, abundant pedagogical aids, unique Discovery Through Maps feature, primary source documents, and end-of-chapter annotated website URLs make this book the most user-friendly available in this market. Civilization Past and Present Concise Version offers the content features and pedagogy of a big text but in a briefer four-color format. Finally, a book for students that is truly manageable and provocative.

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1923 The Publishers Weekly, 1924 The Making of the West, Volume A: To 1500 Lynn Hunt, Thomas R. Martin, Barbara H. Rosenwein, Bonnie G. Smith, 2012-02-01. Students of Western civilization need more than facts. They need to understand the cross-cultural global exchanges that shaped Western history to be able to draw connections between the social cultural political economic and intellectual happenings in a given era and to see the West not as a fixed region but a living evolving construct These needs have long been central to The Making of the West The book s chronological narrative emphasizes the wide variety of peoples and cultures that created Western civilization and places them together in a common context enabling students to witness the unfolding of Western history understand change over time and recognize fundamental relationships
