World Is A Text 4th Edition Silverman:

The World is a Text: Writing About Visual and Popular Culture Jonathan Silverman, Dean Rader, 2018-04-30

Wherever we look today popular culture greets us with texts that make implicit arguments this book helps students to think and write critically about these texts The World Is a Text teaches critical reading writing and argument in the context of pop culture and visual examples showing students how to read everyday objects and visual texts with basic semiotics The book shows how texts of all kinds from a painting to a university building to a pair of sneakers make complex arguments through their use of signs and symbols and shows students how to make these arguments in their own essays This new edition is rich with images real world examples writing and discussion prompts and examples of academic and student writing The first part of the book is a rhetoric covering argumentation research the writing process and adapting from high school to college writing while the second part explores writing about specific cultural topics Notes instruction and advice about research are woven into the text with research instruction closely tied to the topic being discussed New to the updated compact edition are chapters on fashion sports and nature and the environment

Linguistic Landscapes Jeffrey L. Kallen, 2023-06-22

Visible language is widespread and familiar in everyday life We find it in shop signs advertising billboards street and place name signs commercial logos and slogans and visual arts The field of linguistic landscapes draws on insights from sociolinguistics language policy and semiotics to show how these public forms of language relate to multiple issues in language policy language rights language and education language and culture and globalization Stretching from the earliest stone inscriptions to posters and street signs and to today's electronic media linguistic landscapes sit at the crossroads of language society geography and visual communication Written by one of the pioneers of the field this is the first book length synthesis of this exciting rapidly developing field Using photographic evidence from across three continents it demonstrates the methodology and approaches used and summarises its findings and developments so far It also seeks to answer common questions from its critics and to suggest new directions for further study Aging and Adult Development in the Developing World Frank E.

Eyetssemitan, James T. Gire, 2003-02-28 Most studies of human development in developing societies have focused on the childhood stage and in a few cases exploration has extended up to adolescence since this age group represents about half the population in developing societies The developed world however is experiencing a surge in the elderly population and this has spurred its study There is growing recognition that studies are needed in order to understand aging in all contexts and to discover how the experience may differ in developing and developed societies In this book the authors discuss the appropriateness or inappropriateness of applying Western theories and perspectives to studies of aging in the developing world The present study critically examines the major theories in the area of aging and adult development covering such domains as the physical psychological and social aspects of aging death and dying and social and public policies Applying the concepts of individualism and collectivism as well as the global and environmental dimensions of the developing world the authors have earmarked the theories that seem suitable only to the developed world and those that appear to be universally relevant
