WITH THE POCKETS

Express Political Correspondent GUY COEN

THE WAR IN EUROPE IS IN ITS LAST HOURS.

The final surrender of the remaining German forces will probably take place almost immediately—"an unconditional capitulation to Britain, Russia, and the United States."

This will mean that the pockets of German resistance—such as Norway, the French ports, and the Channel Islands—will fall to the Allies without fighting.

When the formalities of capitulation are completed, and they are many and complicated, Mr. Churchill in London, President Truman in Washington and Marshal Stalin in Moscow will announce that the war in Europe is over.

Mr. Churchill's statement, to be made on the radio, will be brief. He will merely announce the end of the fighting and add a word of congratulation to the nation.

At the same time, the news coming the King will broadcast. He will thank all who have contributed to victory in Europe, and commend the nation that the War that war is still to be won.

FLOODLIGHTS TESTED

Mr. Churchill plans to broadcast on Thursday, the anniversary of his appointment as Prime Minister in 1940. It is almost certain that his well-known announcement will have been made before then.

Plain Dealing Richard G. Zimmerman,2006 A collection of political remembrances from a longtime Statehouse and Washington bureau reporter Son of an Ohio Supreme Court Justice and longtime political reporter Rick Zimmerman presents Ohio politics from the inside He began learning about Ohio politics and politicians as a young boy sitting at the dinner table presided over by his father Judge Charles Ballard Zimmerman The author says his father was a Democrat of sorts but identified with the Jeffersonian wing of the party In short he was a conservative and a favorable mention of Franklin Roosevelt was practically banned in our house Yet in spite of these philosophical leanings the elder Zimmerman was truly nonpartisan as far as his political tales were concerned with an opinion about most political leaders from both parties that were for the most part negative a perspective which my later critics likely would suggest I inherited contends Zimmerman In the same way his father entertained with his reminiscences author Rick Zimmerman tells stories of and on Ohio s politicians and their machinations including governors James Rhodes and Mike DiSalle senators and congressmen His discussions of Watergate his African sabbatical and the National Press Club and reflections on the state of journalism are refreshing witty and insightful Plain Dealing is an engaging memoir that doubles as an irreverent look at Ohio s political history

Sanders Confectionery Greg Tasker,2006 For more than 130 years there has been no sweeter word in Detroit than Sanders The venerable confectioner was once as much a part of Detroit s streetscape as the Big Three Hudson s and Coney Islands Sanders was more than just an ice cream and candy shop A Detroit icon it served a fountain of memories for generations Detroiters stood two and three deep behind lunch counters for tuna or egg salad sandwiches devil s food buttercream bumpy cake hot fudge sundaes and Sanders signature dessert hot fudge cream puffs As Detroit boomed so did Sanders At its peak the company boasted more than 50 stores with its products available in as many as 200 supermarkets The Sanders story began in Chicago where Fred Sanders opened his first shop A series of misfortunes prompted him to relocate to Detroit where he began selling his confections on Woodward Avenue Business grew steadily and by the early 1900s he had opened other shops along Woodward and elsewhere in Detroit The Motor City nearly lost Sanders in the mid 1980s but its desserts shops have begun resurfacing thanks to another Detroit institution Morley Brands LLC which bought the Sanders brand
