Transcommunality From The Politics Of Conversion:

Transcommunality John Brown Childs, 2010-06-17 How can we build long lasting communities and movements for change

Unsettled Eric Tang, 2015-10 As many as 10 000 Southeast Asian refugees arrived in the Bronx during the 1980s and 90s This book chronicles the odyssey of Bronx Cambodians closely following one woman and her family for several years Argues that refuge is never found that rescue discourses mask a more profound urban reality characterized by racialized geographic enclosure economic displacement and unrelenting poverty and the criminalization of daily life Views the hyperghetto as a site of extreme isolation punishment and confinement What does it mean for these Cambodians to resettle into this distinct time and space of slavery's afterlife publisher Dangerous Digestion E. Melanie DuPuis, 2015-12

Throughout American history ingestion eating has functioned as a metaphor for interpreting and imagining this society and its political systems Discussions of American freedom itself are pervaded with ingestive metaphors of choice what to put in and control what to keep out From the country's founders to the abolitionists to the social activists of today those seeking to form and reform American society have cast their social change goals in ingestive terms of choice and control But they have realized their metaphors in concrete terms as well purveying specific advice to the public about what to eat or not These conversations about social change as eating reflect American ideals of freedom purity and virtue Drawing on social and political history as well as the history of science and popular culture Dangerous Digestion examines how American ideas about dietary reform mirror broader thinking about social reform Inspired by new scientific studies of the human body as a metabiome a collaboration of species rather than an isolated intact protected and bounded individual E Melanie DuPuis invokes a new metaphor digestion to reimagine the American body politic opening social transformations to ideas of mixing fermentation and collaboration In doing so the author explores how social activists can rethink politics as inclusive processes that involve the inherently risky mixing of cultures standpoints and ideas

Pedagogies of the Global Arif Dirlik, 2015-12-03 The essays in this collection address questions raised by a modernity that has become global with the victory of capitalism over its competitors in the late twentieth century Rather than erase difference by converting all to European American norms of modernity capitalist modernity as it has gone global has empowered societies once condemned to imprisonment in premodernity or tradition to make their own claims on modernity on the basis of those very traditions as filtered through experiences of colonialism neocolonialism or simple marginalization by the forces of globalization Global modernity appears presently not as global homogeneity but as a site of conflict between forces of homogenization and heterogenization within and between nations Prominent in this context are conflicts over different ways of knowing and organizing the world The essays here dealing for the most part with education in the United States engage in critiques of hegemonic ways of knowing and critically evaluate counterhegemonic voices for change that are heard from a broad spectrum of social ethnic and indigenous perspectives Crucial to the essays critique of hegemony in contemporary pedagogy is an effort shared by the
