Transformational Ethics of Film Martin P. Rossouw, 2021-05-31 What is the good of the film experience And how does the budding field of film as philosophy answer this question Charting new routes for film ethics Martin P Rossouw develops a critical account of the transformational ethics at work within the film as philosophy debate Whenever philosophers claim that films can do philosophy they also persistently put forward edifying practical effects potential transformations of thought and experience as the benefit of viewing such films Through rigorous appraisals of key arguments and with reference to the cinema of Terrence Malick Rossouw pieces together the idea of an inner makeover through cinema a cinemakeover which casts a distinct vision of film spectatorship as a practice of self transformation Recasting much of the existing debate Martin Rossouw s emphasis on film s power for enacting ethical transformation rather than theoretical insight or discovery gives a much needed shot in the arm to a topic whose development has stalled in recent years This highly original book offers a unique and provocative contribution to the scholarship Rossouw is a persistent questioner often demonstrating sharp philosophical instincts Shawn Loht Philosophy in Review Vol 43 no 1 February 2023 At once a comprehensive record and a ceaseless meta critique Rossouw s Transformational Ethics of Film is a thorough and bittersweet investigation into the aspiration and limits of this strand of film philosophy scholarship Rossouw s detailed commitment to this critical exercise both provides a bountiful resource for film ethics scholarship bringing organized clarity to an otherwise scattered but nonetheless commanding school of thought and presents a potentially radical prospect for the position of meta hermeneutics in the world of art theory Daniel E Smith New Review of Film and Television Studies Vol 22 no 2 July 2024
