Beyond Cutting Edge? Paul C. Heidebrecht, 2014-03-10 A quick scan of any newsstand is enough to confirm the widespread preoccupation with technological change As a myriad of articles and advertisements demonstrate not only are we preoccupied with technology but we are bombarded with numerous reminders that the cutting edge is in constant motion Most often the underlying assumption of Christians is that we have no choice but to find ways to cope with the latest and greatest Indeed it is often assumed that the church has no choice but to find ways to cope with its new technological context This book does not make the same assumptions Building on the work of Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder it argues that the practices of the church make it possible for Christians to conscientiously engage technology This happens when we recognize that marks of the church such as patience vulnerability and servanthood can put technological ideals such as speed control and efficiency in their proper place In the course of grappling with three examples of morally formative technologies automobiles genetically modified food and the Internet this book goes beyond

Yoder's thought by emphasizing that the church also plays a crucial role in our moral formation

Embodying the Way of Jesus Ted Grimsrud, 2007-01-15 The Anabaptist tradition originating as part of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation has from its beginning presented an alternative approach to Christian faith Jesus centered Anabaptist convictions such as pacifism simple living and community remain of vital concern for twenty first century Christians Embodying the Way of Jesus Anabaptist Convictions for the Twenty First Century traces the origins and historical expressions of Anabaptist faith and then suggests ways Anabaptist convictions speak to our contemporary world Ted Grimsrud proposes a fourfold approach to interpreting Anabaptist theology considering themes from the Bible from the tradition's history from present experience and from envisioning a hopeful future What emerges is an engaging portrait of a living tradition that speaks with urgency and relevance to a world badly in need of a message of peace

Practicing to Aim at Truth Ryan Andrew Newson, Brad J. Kallenberg, 2015-10-16 Beginning with her award winning book Theology in the Age of Scientific Reasoning 1990 Nancey Murphy has used philosophy of science as a way into and catalyst for fresh thinking in cosmology divine action epistemology cognitive neuroscience theological anthropology philosophy of mind and Christian virtue ethics The essays in this book written by her students and colleagues creatively honor Murphy by extending a number of her core insights within their respective disciplines An introduction provides both an account of Murphy's unique location an Anabaptist teaching at an evangelical graduate institution and a summary of her contributions to theology as a philosopher of science whose corpus more than any other epitomizes the paradigm shift in philosophy sometimes called Anglo American postmodernity Subsequently fourteen essays provide unique engagements with Murphy on subjects including divine action the interaction between science and theology epistemology the nature of humanity and political theology In its entirety Practicing to Aim at Truth provides the first in depth interaction with and extension of Nancey Murphy's unique school of thought providing a resource both for those wishing to extend her research program as well as those wishing to understand it charitably in order to critique it

Signs and Wonders Paul Alexander, 2009-03-30 Combining personal stories and sound scholarship Paul Alexander a young scholar with a Pentecostal background examines the phenomenal worldwide success of Pentecostalism While most other works on the subject are either for academics or believers this book speaks to a broader audience Interweaving stories of his own and his family's experiences with an account of Pentecostalism's history and tenets Alexander provides a unique and accessible perspective on the movement

Christ and the Other Reverend Dr Graham Adams, 2017-03-02 How should we relate to others those within a particular tradition those of different traditions and those who are oppressed In the light of these anxieties and building on the work of Andrew Shanks this book offers a vision of Christ as the Shaken One rooted in community with others Shaped through dialogue with the theologies of John Hick and Lesslie Newbigin Adams urges Christian communities to attend more deeply to the demands of ecumenical dialogical and political theologies to embody an ever greater solidarity of others a quality of community better demonstrating Christlike other regard      The Politics of the Crucified John C. Peet, 2021-07-30 Jesus died not peacefully in bed but on the cross the instrument of execution used by the Romans to keep potential disturbers of the established political order in their place Until the pioneering work of Jurgen Moltmann the cross has been the elephant in the room in Christian political theology This book explores the difference Jesus's crucifixion makes or should make to Christian political theology by examining the crucifixion in the theologies of the Mennonite John Howard Yoder and the liberation theologians Leonardo Boff and Jon Sobrino In the light of the cross and of the kenotic God revealed by the cross questions of political power are explored and a kenotic political ethic outlined In conclusion suggestions are made as to how the contemporary church can live out a cruciform or cross shaped political spirituality and ecclesiology      Radical Friendship Ryan Andrew Newson, 2017-04-01 In a society that is increasingly marked by apathy division and moral incompetence how might Christians set about working with others in such a way as to begin to address those challenges that seem to overwhelm our capacity to respond In Radical Friendship Ryan Newson argues that the often neglected practice of communal discernment provides a path to faithful political engagement that is worthy of reconsideration especially given its ability to create authentic friendships both within and beyond the church Such friendships Newson maintains are capable of fostering a type of competence in people who engage the practice that can counteract those social political forces that are antithetical to competence's formation Uniquely Newson explores the contours of communal discernment as a practice that is especially relevant to Christians seeking radical democratic alternatives to political liberalism Communal discernment is shown to be capable of generating conscientious participation in grassroots politics additionally this practice enables Christians to enjoy reciprocal discerning relationships with people of differing convictional communities Indeed communal discernment turns out to be capable of preparing Christians to recognize and celebrate analogues to the practice in the world at large
