Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations:

Trauma and Cinema E. Ann Kaplan, Ban Wang, 2004-02-01 This volume addresses the relation of trauma to transnational modern mass media The first of its kind Trauma and Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations provides ten essays which explore the ways trauma works itself out as media in images in and as film photography and video in global cultural flows The focus of our volume on the matrix of trauma visual media and modernity seeks to engage and go beyond current tendencies in trauma studies The book discusses how trauma presented in the media spills over national boundaries and can be found in images across divergent cultures in Africa Asia Australia Europe and America From the Holocaust to the Chinese Cultural Revolution from Taiwan's colonial experience to the catastrophe of Hiroshima from attempted annihilation of Australian Aborigines to attempted reconciliation in South Africa these essays offer the reader a plethora of images of trauma for comparison and contrast Eco-Trauma Cinema Anil Narine, 2014-09-19

Film has taken a powerful position alongside the global environmental movement from didactic documentaries to the fantasy pleasures of commercial franchises This book investigates in particular film's complex role in representing ecological traumas Eco trauma cinema represents the harm we as humans inflict upon our natural surroundings or the injuries we sustain from nature in its unforgiving iterations The term encompasses both circumstances because these seemingly distinct instances of ecological harm are often related and even symbiotic the traumas we perpetuate in an ecosystem through pollution and unsustainable resource management inevitably return to harm us Contributors to this volume engage with eco trauma cinema in its three general forms accounts of people who are traumatized by the natural world narratives that represent people or social processes which traumatize the environment or its species and stories that depict the aftermath of ecological catastrophe The films they examine represent a central challenge of our age to overcome our disavowal of environmental crises to reflect on the unsavoury forces reshaping the planet's ecosystems and to restructure the mechanisms responsible for the state of the earth Interrogating Trauma

Mick Broderick, Antonio Traverso, 2013-09-27 Throughout the past century traumatic experiences have been re enacted frequently by evolving media and art forms Now there is a significant body of theory across academic disciplines focused on the representation of cataclysmic European and US historical events However less critical attention has been devoted to the representation of havoc outside the West even though depictions of Third World disasters saturate contemporary media and art around the globe This book considers traumatic histories internationally in a broad range of creative arts and visual media representations Deploying diverse applications of the conventional theories of trauma it examines the theoretical limitations at the same time as considering alternative methodologies Interrogating Trauma is concerned with the examination of the concept of trauma and how it is often unproblematically used to theorise the cultural representation of disaster and atrocity It offers a theorisation of trauma in order to reappraise the relationship between cultural representation and the socio historical processes which are marked by violence conflict and suffering This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies Italian Experiences of Trauma through Film and Media Alberto Baracco, Rosario Pollicino, 2022-03-17 This volume offers new approaches to considering Italy's traumatic experiences through a wide array of media including film documentaries docufiction websites YouTube videos advertisements newspapers and literature that have not yet been fully analyzed It looks at the trauma inflicted on Italians not simply as national or cultural traumas but rather as the creation identification of subnational and transnational communities shaped by these trauma cases The term subnational or transnational community is used mostly in reference to human beings as they form those communities however they are also connected to a specific place namely Italy In addition whereas things cannot become traumatized this book also considers living things such as the environment and the nature which may create further trauma s for people Ephemeral Coast: Visualizing Coastal Climate Change Celina Jeffery, 2022-08-02 Ephemeral Coast Visualizing Coastal Climate Change considers the ways that art can offer a means through which to discover analyze re imagine and re frame emotive discourses about the ecological and cultural transformations of the coastline This edited anthology takes ephemerality as its central conceptual and methodological framework and presents a series of essays that create interconnections between environmental and social considerations of the coast a succession of embodied creative practices and shifting regional geographic identities The book presents a series of specific case studies of artistic practices and strategies that seek to capture the rewriting of cartographic maps that are being reshaped by rising seas coastal flooding and catastrophic weather The essays in this edited volume engender creative strategies for understanding new and uncertain coastal ecologies and the loss expulsion or destruction of their associated cultures habitats species and ecosystems The anthology also looks at the historical mnemonic and contemporary transitional conditions of conflicted coastal spaces in which empire modernity and globalization press on coastal erosion and incursions proliferate it with trivial plastics pollution and disposable attitudes and bring vulnerable communities into uncertain futures Handbook of Popular Culture and Biomedicine Arno Görgen, German Alfonso Nunez, Heiner Fangerau, 2018-09-10 This handbook explores the ways biomedicine and pop culture interact while simultaneously introducing the reader with the tools and ideas behind this new field of enquiry From comic books to health professionals from the arts to genetics from sci fi to medical education from TV series to ethics it offers different entry points to an exciting and central aspect of contemporary culture how and what we learn about and from scientific knowledge and its representation in pop culture Divided into three sections the handbook surveys the basics the micro and the macroaspects of this interaction between specialized knowledge and cultural production After the introduction of basic concepts of and approaches to the topic from a variety of disciplines the respective theories and methods are applied in specific case studies The final section is concerned with larger social and historical trends of the use of biomedical knowledge in popular culture Presenting over twenty five original articles from international scholars with different disciplinary backgrounds this handbook introduces the topic of pop culture and biomedicine to both new and mature researchers alike The articles all complete with a rich source of further references are aimed at being a sincere entry point to researchers and academic educators interested in this somewhat unexplored field of culture and biomedicine

Refugees and Migrants in Contemporary Film, Art and Media Deniz Bayrakdar,Robert Burgoyne,2025-10-01 Migration in the 21st century is one of the pre eminent issues of our present historical moment a phenomenon that has acquired new urgency with accelerating climate change civil wars and growing economic scarcities Refugees and Migrants in Contemporary Film Art and Media consists of eleven essays that explore how artists have imaginatively engaged with this monumental human drama examining a range of alternative modes of representation that provide striking new takes on the experiences of these precarious populations Covering prominent art works by Ai Weiwei and Richard Mosse and extending the spectrum of representation to refugee film workshops on the island of Lesbos as well as virtual reality installations of Alejandro G I rritu and works by Balkan and Turkish directors such as Melisa nel the chapters included here focus on the power of aesthetic engagement to illuminate the stories of refugees and migrants in ways that overturn journalistic clichés

Documentary Testimonies Bhaskar Sarkar,Janet Walker,2009-12-04 This volume examines documentary films that compel us to bear witness move us to anger or tears and possibly mobilize us to action The essays gathered here analyze questions regarding the usefulness and legitimacy of documentary testimony What is the value of the historical archive the televised public hearings or activist online videos constitute Is it made part of the official record or dismissed as renegade or ephemeral To what extent can documentary bring about social change How do the documentary testimonies compensate for or account for the frailty of memory

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Emotion Patrick Colm Hogan,Bradley J. Irish,Lalita Pandit Hogan,2022-04-05 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Emotion shows how the affective turn in the humanities applies to literary studies Deftly combining the scientific elements with the literary the book provides a theoretical and topical introduction to reading literature and emotion Looking at a variety of formats including novels drama film graphic fiction and lyric poetry the book also includes focus on specific authors such as Shakespeare Chaucer Jane Austen Virginia Woolf and Viet Thanh Nguyen The volume introduces the theoretical groundwork covering such categories as affect theory affective neuroscience cognitive science evolution and history of emotions It examines the range of emotions that play a special role in literature including happiness fear aesthetic delight empathy and sympathy as well as aspects of literature style narrative voice and others that bear on emotional response Finally it explores ethical and political concerns that are often intertwined with emotional response including racism colonialism disability ecology gender sexuality and trauma This is a crucial guide to the ways in which new interdisciplinary understandings of emotion and affect in fields from neuroscience to social theory are changing the study of literature and of the ways those new understandings are impacted by work on literature also

Memory, Place and Autobiography Jill Daniels,2019-01-03 There has been a significant growth in autobiographical documentary films in recent years This innovative book proposes that the filmmaker in her dual role as maker and subject may act as a cultural guide in an exploration of the social world. It argues that in the cinematic mediation of memory the mimetic approach in the construction of documentary films may not be feasible and memory may instead be evoked elliptically through hybrid strategies such as critical realism and fictional enactment. Recognizing that identity is formed by history and what goes on in the world, the book charts the historical trajectory of the British independent filmmaking movement from the mid 1970s to the present, growth of new online distribution outlets and new media through digital technologies and social media.
