Trauma And Grace Theology In A Ruptured World:

Trauma and Grace Serene Jones, 2009-01-01 This substantive collection of essays by Serene Jones explores recent works in the field of trauma studies Central to its overall theme is an investigation of the myriad ways both individual and collective violence affect one's capacity to remember to act and to love how violence can challenge theological understandings of grace and even how the traumatic experience of Jesus' death is remembered Of particular interest is Jones's focus on the long term effects of collective violence on abuse survivors war veterans and marginalized populations and the discrete ways in which grace and redemption might be exhibited in each context At the heart of each essay are two deeply interrelated faith claims that are central to Jones's understanding of Christian theology first we live in a world profoundly broken by violence second God loves this world and desires that suffering be met by words of hope of love and of grace This truly cutting edge book is the first trauma study to directly take into account theological issues Being about Borders

Michele Saracino, 2011-05-01 In an age of globalization where borders seem to be disappearing everywhere between nations religions and even within families it is easy to believe our reactions to difference are vanishing as well Bringing together the latest insights from constructive theology contemporary continental theory and trauma studies Michele Saracino shows how deceiving and even deadly this assumption can be She argues that in the post 9/11 era Christians are obligated now more than ever to be vigilant about difference to be attentive to the emotional dissonance that encountering others incites and to acknowledge it before border disputes escalate into violence We are neither so different that we have nothing to talk about nor so similar that we have everything to celebrate Instead for Saracino we are caught in the middle at porous borders at in between spaces which cause consternation fear anger and even rage By embracing these conflicting emotions that accompany border life Saracino claims that Christians can honor the person and work of Jesus Christ and the mystery of the incarnation and perhaps become living memorials to those who have suffered trauma all in the name of their being different Michele Saracino is an associate professor of religious studies at Manhattan College in Riverdale New York She is the author of On Being Human A Conversation with Lonergan and Levinas and researches and teaches on the intersections between theology and culture A Theology of Traumatic Affect Alice Kim, 2024-10-21 A Theology of Traumatic Affect offers theological tools language and framework to victims survivors of trauma and their communities Seen through the lens of affect theory the social dimensions of trauma emerge even for individual trauma Using an interdisciplinary approach Alice Kim argues that due to interconnectedness of individuals a communal effort is necessary for trauma work Living in a different world as imagined by public imagination is possible now with collective planetary engagement of all creatures participating in co creation A Theology of Failure Marika Rose, 2019-05-07 Everyone agrees that theology has failed but the question of how to understand and respond to this failure is complex and contested Against both the radical orthodox attempt to return to a time before the theology's failure and the deconstructive theological attempt to open theology up to the hope of a future beyond failure Rose proposes an account of Christian identity as constituted by not despite failure Understanding failure as central to theology opens up new possibilities for confronting Christianity's violent and kyriarchal history and abandoning the attempt to discover a pure Christ outside of the grotesque materiality of the church The Christian mystical tradition begins with Dionysius the Areopagite's uncomfortable but productive conjunction of Christian theology and Neoplatonism The tensions generated by this are central to Dionysius's legacy visible not only in subsequent theological thought but also in much twentieth century continental philosophy as it seeks to disentangle itself from its Christian ancestry A Theology of Failure shows how the work of Slavoj Žižek represents an attempt to repeat the original move of Christian mystical theology bringing together the themes of language desire and transcendence not with Neoplatonism but with a materialist account of the world Tracing these themes through the work of Dionysius and Derrida and through contemporary debates about the gift violence and revolution this book offers a critical theological engagement with Žižek's account of social and political transformation showing how Žižek's work makes possible a materialist reading of apophatic theology and Christian identity

The Ethics of Tainted Legacies Karen V. Guth, 2022-07-28 What do we do when a beloved comedian known as America's Dad is convicted of sexual assault Or when we discover that the man who wrote all men are created equal also enslaved hundreds of people Or when priests are exposed as pedophiles From the popular to the political to the profound each day brings new revelations that respected people traditions and institutions are not what we thought they were Despite the shock that these disclosures produce this state of affairs is anything but new Facing the concrete task of living well when our best moral resources are not only contaminated but also potentially corrupting is an enduring feature of human experience In this book Karen V Guth identifies tainted legacies as a pressing contemporary moral problem and ethical challenge Constructing a typology of responses to compromised thinkers traditions and institutions she demonstrates the relevance of age old debates in Christian theology for those who confront legacies tarnished by the traumas of slavery racism and sexual violence

T&T Clark Companion to Atonement Adam J. Johnson, 2017-07-27 The T T Clark Companion to Atonement establishes a vision for the doctrine of the atonement as a unified yet extraordinarily rich event calling for the church's full appropriation Most edited volumes on this doctrine focus on one aspect of the work of Christ for example Girard Feminist thought Penal Substitution or divine violence The Companion is unique in that every essay seeks to both appropriate and stimulate the church's understanding of the manifold nature of Christ's death and resurrection The essays are divided into four main sections 1 dogmatic location 2 chapters on the Old and New Testaments 3 major theologians and 4 contemporary developments The first set of essays explore the inter relationship between the atonement and other Christian doctrines for example Trinity Christology and Pneumatology opening up yet further avenues of inquiry Essays on key theologians eschew reductionism striving to bring out the nuances and breadth of the contribution The same is true of the biblical essays The final section explores more recent developments within the doctrine for example the work of Rene Girard and the ongoing reflection on Holy Saturday The book is comprised of 18 major essays and an A Z section containing shorter dictionary length entries on a much broader range of topics The result is a combination of in depth analysis and breadth of scope making this a benchmark work for further studies in the doctrine Christian Doctrines for Global Gender Justice Grace Ji-Sun Kim,Jenny Daggers,2015-06-04 This book develops creative imagining of traditional doctrines Chapters show the effectiveness of Latina mujerista evang lica womanist Asian American and white feminist imaginings in the furthering of global gender justice Religion at Ground Zero Christopher Craig Brittain,2011-07-14 The world will never be the same How many times have human beings uttered this cry after a tragic event This book analyzes how such emotive reactions impact on the way religion is understood exploring theological responses to human tragedy and cultural shock by focusing on reactions to the terrorist attacks of 9 11 and 7 7 the two World Wars and the Holocaust the 2004 South East Asian tsunami Hurricane Katrina and the 2010 earthquake in Haiti It discusses themes such as the theodicy question the function of religious discourse in the face of tragedy and the relationship between religion and politics The book explores the tension between religion s capacity to both cause and enhance the suffering and destruction surrounding historical tragedies but also its potential to serve as a powerful resource for responding to such disasters Analyzing this dialectic it engages with the work of Slavoj i ek Karl Barth Theodor Adorno Emil Fackenheim and Rowan Williams examining the role of belief difficulties of overcoming the influence of ideology and the significance of trust and humility Shouting Above the Noisy Crowd: Biblical Wisdom and the Urgency of Preaching Charles L.
