Travel Journal ISRAEL O. j,2015-12-11 TRAVEL BOOK 30 DAYS Keep travel memories weekend TRAVELER S NOTEBOOK 30 days pages printed transport hotel camping budget shopping activities CARNETS DE VOYAGE Le carnet de voyage collection omj est un journal de bord pour g rer son budget vacances et garder en m moire ses vacances activit s h tel excursion m t o Pages pr imprim es pour voyager en toute libert Reorienting the East Martin Jacobs,2014-09-30 Reorienting the East explores the Islamic world as it was encountered envisioned and elaborated by Jewish travelers from the Middle Ages to the early modern period The first comprehensive investigation of Jewish travel writing from this era this study engages with questions raised by postcolonial studies and contributes to the debate over the nature and history of Orientalism as defined by Edward Said Examining two dozen Hebrew and Judeo Arabic travel accounts from the mid twelfth to the early sixteenth centuries Martin Jacobs asks whether Jewish travelers shared Western perceptions of the Islamic world with their Christian counterparts Most Jews who detailed their journeys during this period hailed from Christian lands and many sailed to the Eastern Mediterranean aboard Christian owned vessels Yet Jacobs finds that their descriptions of the Near East subvert or reorient a decidedly Christian vision of the region The accounts from the crusader era in particular are often critical of the Christian church and present glowing portraits of Muslim Jewish relations By contrast some of the later travelers discussed in the book express condescending attitudes toward Islam Muslims and Near Eastern Jews Placing shifting perspectives on the Muslim world in their historical social and literary contexts Jacobs interprets these texts as mirrors of changing Jewish self perceptions As he argues the travel accounts echo the various ways in which premodern Jews negotiated their mingled identities which were neither exclusively Western nor entirely Eastern Recent Geographical Literature, Maps, and Photographs Added to the Society's Collection ,1923 Traveling Home Mark R. Kowalewski,2019-08-17 Offers readers a way to find their place in God s story A creative invitation to those who are on the margins of the church Recent research in the sociology of religion indicates that around one in five Americans are religiously liminal that is they are on the fence about affiliating with a faith or a congregation Traveling Home is an invitation to those people who are standing on the edges or just coming into the Church It makes a case for why Christianity can make a difference by taking the reader on a spiritual journey through the story and ancient wisdom of the Bible It shows the reader how to find a place within this great cosmic adventure Why Christianity at all How do we understand where we fit into a bigger picture Anyone asking these questions including people exploring other liturgical traditions will find this book of interest It is also a tool for clergy teaching newcomer inquirer classes Israel Dot Grid Journal Clementine Journals,2019-02-05 This trendy map themed dot grid travel journal is ideal for any traveler to document their travels adventures and write down essential information such as emergency contacts prescriptions reservations itineraries Use as a diary to capture experiences and memories that you can refer to over and over again Compact 6 x 9 paperback notebook and contains 120 dot grid cream paper The Traveling Chautauqua Roger E. Barrows, 2019-06-12 Before radio and sound movies early 20th century performers and lecturers traveled the nation providing entertainment and education to Americans thirsty for culture These chautauquas brought politicians activists scholars musical ensembles and theatrical productions to remote communities A conduit for global perspectives and progressive ideas these gatherings introduced issues like equal suffrage prohibition and pure food laws to rural America This book explores an overlooked yet influential movement in U S history capturing the vagaries of speakers and performers lives on the road and their reception by audiences Excerpts from lectures and plays portray a vibrant circuit that in a single summer drew 20 million in more than 9 000 towns Losing Site Dr Shelley Hornstein, 2013-06-28 As Ruskin suggests in his Seven Lamps of Architecture We may live without architecture and worship without her but we cannot remember without her We remember best when we experience an event in a place But what happens when we leave that place or that place no longer exists This book addresses the relationship between memory and place and asks how architecture captures and triggers memory It explores how architecture exists as a material object and how it registers as a place that we come to remember beyond the physical site itself It questions what architecture is in the broadest sense assuming that it is not simply buildings Rather architecture is considered to be the mapping of physical mental or emotional space The idea that we are all architects in some measure as we actively organize and select pathways and markers within space is central to this book s premise Each chapter provides a different example of the manifold ways in which the physical place of architecture is curated by the architecture in our mental space our imaginary toolbox when we think of a place and look at a photograph or visit a site and describe it later or send a postcard By connecting architecture with other disciplines such as geography visual culture sociology and urban studies as well as the fine and performing arts this book puts forward the idea that a conversation about architecture is not exclusively about formal isolated buildings but instead must be deepened and broadened as spatialized visualizations and experiences of place
