Treacherous Paradise

SAMUEL KNEELAND

Treacherous Paradise:

A Treacherous Paradise Henning Mankell, 2013-07-09 From the internationally acclaimed author of the Wallander crime series a dramatic new standalone novel set in turn of the century Sweden and Mozambique whose indomitable female protagonist is awoken from naiveté by her exposure to racism and by her own unexpected inner strengths Cold and poverty define Hanna Renström's childhood in remote northern Sweden and in 1905 at 19 she boards a ship for Australia in hope of a better life But none of her hopes or fears prepares her for the life she will lead After 2 brief marriages she finds herself a widow twice over and the owner of a bordello in Portuguese East Africa a world where colonialism and white supremacy rule where she is isolated within society by her profession and her sex and among the bordello's black prostitutes by her colour As Hanna's story unfurls over the next several years we watch her in this treacherous paradise as she wrestles with a constant wrenching loneliness and with the racism she's meant to unthinkingly adopt And as her life becomes increasingly intertwined with the prostitutes she moves inexorably toward the moment when she will make a decision that defies every expectation society has of her and more importantly those she has of herself The Monthly Magazine, 1823 The Monthly magazine Monthly literary register, 1822 Following the Animal Ann-Sofie Lönngren, 2015-09-10 Literary transformations from human to animal have occurred in myths folklore fairy tales and narratives from all over the world since ancient times and have always provided a narrative space for depictions of power agency and the radical nature of change In Following the Animal these transformations are analysed with regards to their use in modern literature from northern most Europe with specific attention being paid to the insights they provide regarding the human animal relationship both generally in the industrialized West and against the background of more specific circumstances in the Nordic area In three analytic chapters focusing respectively on Swedish author August Strindberg's novel Tschandala 1887 Finnish author Aino Kallas's novel The Wolf's Bride 1928 and Danish author Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen's short story The Monkey 1934 along with discussions of a range of other authors and texts the reader is introduced to several traditions of literary production that both connect to and differ from Anglophone and other literature in fascinating ways In addition to the insights it provides concerning the uses of human animal transformations in modern Nordic literature and their significance in relation to the question of the animal Following the Animal also offers literary scholars and students alike a series of useable and transferable strategies for approaching texts from a more than anthropocentric human animal studies perspective In phrasing and employing the interpretational method of following the animal over the text's surface up metaphorical elevations down material wormholes and in constant dialogue with previous research this book contributes greatly to both human animal literary studies specifically and to the field of literary scholarship generally in both an international and northern European context
