Transcending Psychoneurotic Disturbances Edward Bruce Bynum,1994 The Soul of Counseling Dwight Webb,2005 TABLE OF CONTENTS Putting the Psyche Back in Psychology Soul in Everyday Life Toward a Theory of Soul in Counseling Counseling Process Attending to Matters of Our Soul Wellness and Spiritual Integration Assessment No Numbers and Categories When Soul Collides with Culture The Emerging Counselor of the New Millennium Reflections on the Separation of Religion and Spirituality Pain, Pleasure and Perversity John R. Yamamoto-Wilson,2016-05-13 Luther s 95 Theses begin and end with the concept of suffering and the question of why a benevolent God allows his creations to suffer remains one of the central issues of religious thought In order to chart the processes by which religious discourse relating to pain and suffering became marginalized during the period from the Renaissance to the end of the seventeenth century this book examines a number of works on the subject translated into English from mainly Spanish and Italian Through such an investigation it is possible to see how the translators and editors of such works demonstrate in their prefaces and comments as well as in their fidelity or otherwise to the original text an awareness that attitudes in England are different from those in Catholic countries Furthermore by comparing these translations with the discourse of native English writers of the period a number of conclusions can be drawn regarding the ways in which Protestant England moved away from pre Reformation attitudes of suffering and evolved separately from the Catholic culture which continued to hold sway in the south of Europe The central conclusion is that once the theological justifications for undergoing inflicting or witnessing pain and suffering have been removed discourses of pain largely cease to have a legitimate context and any kind of fascination with pain comes to seem perverse if not perverted The author observes an increasing sense of discomfort throughout the seventeenth century with texts which betray such fascination Combining elements of theology literature and history this book provides a fascinating perspective on one of the key conundrums of early modern religious history Our African Unconscious Edward Bruce Bynum,2021-09-07 Examines the Oldawan the Ancient Soul of Africa and its correlation with what modern psychologists have defined as the collective unconscious Draws on archaeology DNA research history and depth psychology to reveal how the biological and spiritual roots of religion and science came out of Africa Explores the reflections of our African unconscious in the present confrontation in the Americas in the work of the Founding Fathers and in modern psychospirituality The fossil record confirms that humanity originated in Africa Yet somehow we have overlooked that Africa is also at the root of all that makes us human our spirituality civilization arts sciences philosophy and our conscious and unconscious minds In this extensive look at the unfolding of human history and culture Edward Bruce Bynum reveals how our collective unconscious is African Drawing on archaeology DNA research depth psychology and the biological and spiritual roots of religion and science he demonstrates how all modern human beings regardless of ethnic or racial categorizations share a common deeper identity both psychically and genetically a primordial African unconscious Exploring the beginning of early religions and mysticism in Africa the author looks at the Egyptian Nubian role in the rise of civilization the emergence of Kemetic Egypt and the Oldawan the Ancient Soul and its correlation with what modern psychologists have defined as the collective unconscious Revealing the spiritual and psychological ramifications of our shared African ancestry the author examines its reflections in the present confrontation in the Americas in the work of the Founding Fathers and in modern Black spirituality which arose from African diaspora religion and philosophy By recognizing our shared African unconscious the matrix that forms the deepest luminous core of human identity we learn that the differences between one person and another are merely superficial and ultimately there is no real separation between the material and the spiritual
