Charles H. Kraft

Transculturation The Cultural Factor In Translation And Other Communication Tasks:

Transculturation Robert Daniel Shaw,1988 Christian Inculturation in India Paul M. Collins,2016-09-17 Drawing together international and Indian sources and new research on the ground in South India this book presents a unique examination of the inculturation of Christian Worship in India Paul M Collins examines the imperatives underlying the processes of inculturation the dynamic relationship between the Christian message and cultures and then explores the outcomes of those processes in terms of architecture liturgy and ritual and the critique offered of these outcomes especially by Dalit theologians This book highlights how the Indian context has informed global discussions and how the decisions of the World Council of Churches Vatican II and Lambeth Conferences have impacted upon the Indian context

Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Robert Daniel Shaw,Charles Edward van Engen,2003 The authors say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences The Routledge Companion To Postcolonial Studies John McLeod,2007-10-09 The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial Studies offers a unique and up to date mapping of the postcolonial world and is composed of essays as well as shorter entries for ease of reference Introducing students to the history of the great European empires and the cultural legacies created in their wake this book brings together an international range of contributors on such topics as the colonial histories of Britain France Spain and Portugal the diverse postcolonial and diasporic cultural endeavours from Africa the Americas Australasia Europe and South and East Asia the major theoretical formulations poststructuralist materialist culturalist psychological With a comprehensive A to Z of forty key writers and thinkers central to contemporary postcolonial studies and featuring historical maps this is both a concise introduction and an essential resource for any student of postcolonial culture whatever their field God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen,Jude Tiersma,2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today's cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma's team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry Appropriate Christianity Charles H. Kraft,2005 Appropriate Christianity consists of 28 chapters by 18 authors approaching contextualization in three dimensions truth allegiance and spiritual power Over the years there have been quite a number of helpful discussions of the contextualization of theological truth Though we have been helped greatly by them it is high time we began to deal also with allegiance and spiritual power two additional dimensions that Jesus considered of great importance Any adequate and appropriate treatment of the contextualization of biblical Christianity needs to deal with all three of these 2 crucial dimensions 3 For allegiance to Christ is the basis for all we do that makes us Christian and Jesus was very much into spiritual power If we are to be truly biblical we must deal also with these areas

Translation as Mission William Allen Smalley, 1991 For Christians from New Testament times on the Bible has almost everywhere been a translated Bible For eighteen centuries it was normally translated into new languages by native speakers but with the beginning of the nineteenth century and the modern missionary movement came a burst of missionary translation around the world As missionary churches were established and as societies worldwide were affected by the gospel people studied the translations preached from them and recounted stories to their children In many societies these translations were the foundation for Christian communities for theology including indigenous theologies and a powerful stimulus to modernization and even secularization reaching beyond the Christian community Smalley contends that the theological presuppositions of these missionary translators varied widely He argues that some missionary translators were insightful scholars who probed deeply into the languages and cultures in which they were working others were unable to transcend the perspective their own culture prescribed for them Earlier missionaries did not always have a clearly formulated theory of translation or an understanding of what they were doing and why Eventually however a theoretical model was developed a model that the majority of translators both missionary and nonmissionary now use Smalley maintains that the task of Bible translation is now passing out of the hands of missionaries and back into the hands of native speakers casting the missionary translator into significantly changed roles in the translation process

Completing the Task Edgar J. Elliston, Stephen E. Burris, 1995-12 This is a valuable resource tool on world missions College students and people interested in serving in a mission setting will find this to be a great source for information

The Holy Spirit and Mission Dynamics C. Douglas McConnell, 1997-09-15 The Holy Spirit and Mission Dynamics What role does the Holy Spirit play in church growth and missions This question has stimulated much conversation among theologians and missiologists Without reflecting on the matter practitioners are ill equipped to engage in spiritual warfare or discern the hand of God from counterfeit works of human strategy The ten chapters in The Holy Spirit and Mission Dynamics attempt to reflect on the most critical and controversial aspects of the debate The contributors draw from numerous specialties including philosophy hermeneutics historiography and theology Part one provides a biblical theological perspective that helps readers assess phenomena observed in both history and contemporary mission practice Part two gives multiple historical accounts of the Holy Spirit's ministry in various mission contexts Finally the five chapters in part three examine several contemporary concerns raised by Peter Wagner and four respondents This book prepares readers to reflect on their experience in light of theology and exegesis Ultimately they will better understand the Holy Spirit's ministry in diverse missions contexts Semantics, World View and Bible Translation Gerrit van Steenberg, 2006-03-01 This study draws a number of disciplines together from a Bible translation perspective It offers a thorough semantic analysis of selected Hebrew lexical items referring to negative moral behaviour in the book of Isaiah and discusses the implications of the analysis for Hebrew lexicography The book first offers a critical appraisal of componential analysis of meaning followed by a number of proposals to improve this analytical tool in order to bring it in line with modern insights from cognitive linguistics

Whispering the Strategies of Language: An Psychological Journey through Transculturation The Cultural Factor In Translation And Other Communication Tasks
