As It Happened: A Chronological History of Color Photography. The Photographic Object 1970. Mary Statzer, 2016-01-26. In 1970, photography curator Peter C. Bunnell organized an exhibition called Photography into Sculpture for the Museum of Modern Art, New York. The project, which brought together twenty-three photographers and artists from the United States and Canada, was among the first exhibitions to recognize work that blurred the boundaries between photography and other mediums. At once an exhibition catalogue, after the fact, an oral history, and a critical reading of exhibitions and experimental photography during the 1960s and 1970s, The Photographic Object 1970 proposes precedents for contemporary artists who continue to challenge traditional practices and categories. Mary Statzer has gathered a range of diverse materials, including contributions from Bunnell, Eva Respini, and Drew Sawyer, Erin O'Toole, Lucy Soutter, and Rebecca Morse, as well as interviews with Ellen Brooks, Michael de Courcy, Richard Jackson, Jerry McMillan, and other of the exhibition's surviving artists. Featuring seventy-nine illustrations, most of them in color, this volume is an essential resource on a groundbreaking exhibition.

Photography Beyond Technique: Essays from F295 on the Informed Use of Alternative and Historical Photographic Processes Tom Persinger, 2014-02-24 Photography is not dying and has not died It has been an ever changing medium since its earliest days and while near obsession with the technology of the day may have defined photography over the course of its existence photography is so much more than hardware and software Photography is communication whether chemical or digital tangible or ephemeral in form Photography Beyond Technique is a compelling selection of essays and images that reveal the thoughts and methods of some of today's most exciting contemporary photographers These artists employ alternative historical or handmade processes and techniques and they share a comprehensive view of the medium that the choice of photographic process is just as important as the selection of subjects While other books concentrate solely on process or theory or artistic intent none focus on photography in which these decisions are considered inseparable These 20 essays originally presented at the annual F295 symposium and seminar series provide a thought provoking read for anyone interested in photography as an art form and as a medium through which to view the world Includes Looking Backward Seeing Forward Reframing Visual History by Robert Hirsch Mystery Memory and Narrative by Martha Casanave Finding Confidence Combining Process with Purpose by Mark Osterman Photograph Material and Metaphor by Jerry Spagnoli
