Trauma-Responsive Schooling Lyn Mikel Brown, Catharine Biddle, Mark Tappan, 2022-08-23 Trauma Responsive Schooling outlines a novel approach to transforming American schools through student centered trauma informed practices The book chronicles the use of an innovative educational model Trauma Responsive Equitable Education TREE as part of a multiyear research project in two elementary schools in rural Maine In this model Lyn Mikel Brown Catharine Biddle and Mark Tappan endorse whole school change encouraging educators to upend traditional classroom power dynamics by listening foremost to student voices validating student experiences and promoting student agency The authors provide complex real life examples of student involvement in the creation and implementation of trauma responsive and equitable practices Their work offers readers concrete actionable examples of such practices which include supporting the whole child by promoting social and emotional learning SEL as well as academic achievement providing access to basic needs such as food clothing and health care and meeting the instructional requirements of dual language learners Many rural schools in the United States experience low student achievement and high absenteeism rates as their geographically isolated communities struggle with poverty substance abuse and other significant stressors Yet as the authors demonstrate supportive learning environments even in under resourced rural schools are able to mitigate adversity stress and trauma and thus promote healing This heartening work illustrates that when educators and school leaders put student needs and interests at the core of school life long lasting change for all students is possible

Handbook of Research on Student-Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments Fitzgerald, Carlton J., Laurian-Fitzgerald, Simona, Popa, Carmen, 2018-06-08 As traditional classroom settings are transitioning to online environments teachers now face the challenge of using this medium to promote effective learning strategies especially when teaching older age groups Because adult learners bring a different set of understandings and skills to education than younger students such as more job and life experiences the one size fits all approach to teaching does not work thus pushing educators to create a student centered approach for each learner The Handbook of Research on Student Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments is an important resource providing readers with multiple perspectives to approach issues often associated with adult learners in an online environment This publication highlights current research on topics including but not limited to online competency based education nontraditional adult learners virtual classrooms in public universities and teacher training for online education This book is a vital reference for online trainers adult educators university administrators researchers and other academic professionals looking for emerging information on utilizing online classrooms and environments in student centered adult education
