edition also takes up new topics in response to the opportunities and concerns facing orientation transition and retention professionals such as collaborations among campus units in the development and delivery of orientation the increase in nontraditional student populations the need for effective crisis planning and management in orientation programs new technologies and even the challenge of making the case for orientation in an era of diminishing resources The authors have carefully penned chapters incorporating contemporary information ideas and concepts while being reflective of traditional practices Following a preface by Margaret J Barr and a foreword by Jennifer R Keup and Craig E Mack chapters in this edition include 1 Brief Overview of the Orientation Transition and Retention Field Craig E Mack 2 Theoretical Perspectives on Orientation Denise L Rode and Tony W Cawthon 3 Making the Case for Orientation Is It Worth It Bonita C Jacobs 4 Administration of a Comprehensive Orientation Program April Mann Charlie Andrews and Norma Rodenburg 5 Community College Orientation and Transition Programs Cathy J Cuevas and Christine Timmerman 6 Channeling Parental Involvement to Support Student Success Jeanine A Ward Roof Laura A Page and Ryan Lombardi 7 Extensions of Traditional Orientation Programs Tracy L Skipper Jennifer A Latino Blaire Moody Rideout and Dorothy Weigel 8 Technology in Orientation J J Brown and Cynthia L Hernandez 9 Incorporating Crisis Planning and Management Into Orientation Programs Dian Squire Victor Wilson Joe Ritchie and Abbey Wolfman 10 Orientation and First Year Programs A Profile of Participating Students Maureen E Wilson and Michael Dannells 11 Creating a Developmental Framework for New Student Orientation to Address the Needs of Diverse Populations Archie P Cubarrubia and Jennifer C Schoen 12 Designing Orientation and Transition Programs for Transfer Students Shandol C Hoover 13 Nontraditional Is the New Traditional Understanding Today s College Student Michael J Knox and Brittany D Henderson 14 Building the Case for Collaboration in Orientation Programs Campus Culture Politics and Power Beth M Lingren Clark and Matthew J Weigand 15 Assessment and Evaluation in Orientation Robert Schwartz and Dennis Wiese and 16 Reflections on the History of Orientation Transition and Retention Programs Jeanine A Ward Roof and Kathy L Guthrie Individual chapters contain references For the 2nd Edition 2003 see ED478603

Examining the Landscape of Transfer Support Catherine Hartman, Jeffrey Mayo, 2025-01-14 Transfer students are an important yet often understudied and underserved population within postsecondary education Millions of students rely on the transfer function of community colleges and two year schools to earn bachelor s degrees Yet low student transfer and bachelor s degree completion rates indicate a leaky transfer pipeline Given the growing interest and increase in transfer and transfer intending students across the postsecondary landscape and the longstanding degree completion challenges these students often face institutional leaders and staff must understand how they can best support transfer students and bolster their persistence For this reason the National Resource Center for The First Year Experience and Students in Transition created the inaugural National Study of Transfer Student Initiatives This report details the results from the 2021 National Study of Transfer Student Initiatives and is intended to provide leaders researchers and policymakers with a national overview of transfer related policies practices and procedures as well as institutional and bureaucratic barriers to their development coordination and implementation In addition it prompts discussions for leaders and staff as they consider how transfer related efforts may be improved to better meet the needs of students Applying Student Development

Theories Holistically Katherine Branch, Jeanne Hart-Steffes, Christine Wilson, 2018-10-12 This book dives into student development theory unpacking key foundational and emergent theories of college student development while providing contemporary examples and application Showcasing a diversity of programs practices and services across a variety of institutional types Applying Student Development Theories Holistically demonstrates how professionals are intertwining the science of theory with the art of practice in multidimensional holistic ways Helping aspiring higher education and student affairs practitioners grasp and use theories holistically this important text brings to life theoretical knowledge to enhance the development and learning of college and university students Supporting Transfer Student Success Peggy L.

Nuhn, Karen F. Kaufmann, 2020-11-06 This research based book with practical applications teaches academic librarians to support their transfer students effectively at both universities and community colleges even when transfer students information literacy needs differ from those of other students Colleges and universities across the United States serve a large and growing population of transfer students Current estimates suggest that more than one third of college students transfer from one institution of higher education to another at least once At some institutions transfer students compose up to fifty to sixty percent of the new incoming class Academic librarians understanding of the demographics and potential needs of transfer students is essential to supporting their success and mitigating transfer shock Just as public libraries often bridge gaps between individuals and services academic libraries can proactively support the often unique needs of transfer students by spearheading textbook affordability initiatives developing innovative programming and making appropriate referrals to non library student services In this practical guide to supporting transfer students authors Peggy L Nuhn and Karen F Kaufmann teach academic librarians how to optimize information literacy instruction support research help reduce stress and connect the library to virtual students They emphasize the importance of establishing partnerships with feeder institutions and other campus departments to best support transfer student success Resources in Education , 2001

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year.

The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph.

Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery.

Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting.

These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
