Translating The Devil Religion And Modernity Among The Ewe In Ghana:

Translating the Devil Birgit Meyer, 1999 Witchcraft, Demons and Deliverance Claudia Währisch-Oblau, Henning Wrogemann, 2015 Beliefs in witchcraft and demons still shape many societies and seem to be increasing rather than disappearing with modernization and urbanization Witch hunts in Africa and Asia show the scope of the problem The deliverance practices of pentecostal and charismatic churches are widely controversial and their effects are rather ambiguous The contributions in this volume written by experts and practitioners from four continents analyze these phenomena from the perspectives of intercultural theology anthropology and ethnology and also describe the responses of Catholic and Protestant churches Series Contributions to Mission Science Intercultural Theology Beitrage zur Missionswissenschaft Interkulturellen Theologie Vol 32 Subject Anthropology Ethnology Sociology Religious Studies

Hindu Gods in West Africa Albert Wuaku, 2013-07-11 In Hindu Gods in West Africa Wuaku offers an account of the histories beliefs and practices of the Hindu Monastery of Africa and the Radha Govinda Temple two Hindu Temples in Ghana Using historical material and data from his field work in southern Ghana Wuaku shows how these two Hindu Temples build their traditions on popular Ghanaian religious notions about the powerful magicality of India s Hindu gods He explores how Ghanaian soldiers who served in the colonial armies in India Sri Lanka and Burma during World War II Bollywood films and local magicians have contributed to the production and the spreading of these cultural ideas He argues that while Ghanaian worshippers appropriated and deployed the alien Hindu religious world through their own cultural ideas as they engage Hindu beliefs and rituals in negotiating challenges their own worldviews would change considerably Themes in West Africa's History Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, 2006-01-15 There has long been a need for a new textbook on West Africa s history In Themes in West Africa s History editor Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong and his contributors meet this need examining key themes in West Africa s prehistory to the present through the lenses of their different disciplines The contents of the book comprise an introduction and thirteen chapters divided into three parts Each chapter provides an overview of existing literature on major topics as well as a short list of recommended reading and breaks new ground through the incorporation of original research The first part of the book examines paths to a West African past including perspectives from archaeology ecology and culture linguistics and oral traditions Part two probes environment society and agency and historical change through essays on the slave trade social inequality religious interaction poverty disease and urbanization Part three sheds light on contemporary West Africa in exploring how economic and political developments have shaped religious expression and identity in significant ways Themes in West Africa s History represents a range of intellectual views and interpretations from leading scholars on West Africa s history It will appeal to college undergraduates graduate students and scholars in the way it draws on different disciplines and expertise to bring together key themes in West Africa s history from prehistory to the present Gender and Conversion Narratives in the Nineteenth Century Kirsten

Rüther,Angelika Schaser,2016-03-03 Addressing an important social and political issue which is still much debated today this volume explores the connections between religious conversions and gendered identity against the backdrop of a world undergoing significant social transformations Adopting a collaborative approach to their research the authors explore the connections and differences in conversion experiences tracing the local and regional rootedness of individual conversions as reflected in conversion narratives in three different locations Germany and German missions in South Africa and colonial Australia at a time of massive social changes in the 1860s Beginning with the representation of religious experiences in so called conversion narratives the authors explore the social embeddedness of religious conversions and inquire how people related to their social surroundings and in particular to gender order and gender practices before during and after their conversion With a concluding reflective essay on comparative methods of history writing and transnational perspectives on conversion this book offers a fresh perspective on historical debates about religious change gender and social relations

Things: Dick Houtman,Birgit Meyer,2012-09-12 The relation between religion and things has long been conceived in antagonistic terms privileging spirit above matter belief above ritual and objects meaning above form and inward contemplation above outward action This book addresses these issues Situating Globality Wim van Binsbergen,Rijk van Dijk,2004-03-01 Situating Globality challenges the dominant view that globalization is a primary threat to African societies and economies It explores how these societies are appropriating elements of the emerging global culture arguing the significance of this appropriation in local struggles the expression of critical thinking ideologies and ritual styles of behaviour Combining an interest for micro level processes of situating the multifaceted process of globality with the exploration of reflexivity creativity and the production of knowledge Situating Globality straddles the divide between anthropological and philosophical representations of Africa in the new world order The first section examines philosophical issues relating to the production of knowledge in and about Africa from a globalizing perspective while the other sections include case studies showing how these processes are accommodated in everyday life Pentecostalism and Witchcraft Knut Rio,Michelle

MacCarthy,Ruy Blanes,2017-10-29 This open access book presents fresh ethnographic work from the regions of Africa and Melanesia where the popularity of charismatic Christianity can be linked to a revival and transformation of witchcraft The volume demonstrates how the Holy Spirit has become an adversary to the reconfirmed presence of witches demons and sorcerers as manifestations of evil We learn how this is articulated in spiritual warfare in crusades and in healing or witch killing raids The contributors highlight what happens to phenomena that people address as locally specific witchcraft or sorcery when re molded within the universalist Pentecostal demonology vocabulary and confrontational methodology

Social Spaces of African Societies Jürgen Ossenbrügge,2004 Transnational social spaces have emerged in recent years as a research area within migration and area studies This volume is about African social spaces It incorporates examples of Central and Western Africa as well as of African European relations Contributors from different disciplines such as anthropology geography and political and educational sciences outline their interpretations of transnational social spaces based on theoretical and empirical work within a wider research project at the University of Hamburg about contemporary transformations of African societies Jrgen O enbrgge is professor of economic and political geography at the University of Hamburg Mechthild Reh is professor for African Studies at the University of Hamburg

New Media and Religious Transformations in Africa Rosalind I. J. Hackett, Benjamin F. Soares, 2015-01-21 New Media and Religious Transformations in Africa casts a critical look at Africa s rapidly evolving religious media scene Following political liberalization media deregulation and the proliferation of new media technologies many African religious leaders and activists have appropriated such media to strengthen and expand their communities and gain public recognition Media have also been used to marginalize and restrict the activities of other groups which has sometimes led to tension conflict and even violence Showing how media are rarely neutral vehicles of expression the contributors to this multidisciplinary volume analyze the mutual imbrications of media and religion during times of rapid technological and social change in various places throughout Africa
