Travelling Light Kiki Streitberger:

Second Chance Ruth Rosengarten, 2022-08-23 In this intimate memoir Ruth Rosengarten explores the subject of evocative objects through a series of interconnected essays. Evocative objects reflect our attitudes to our own lives and how we seek to display ourselves to ourselves. They are therefore closely linked to our memories and how we filter process and reconstruct them. Rosengarten explores the themes and associations invoked by her own evocative objects which are frequently shabby things of no material value. They are importantly often objects that in their materiality bear traces of actions of something having been. Through the associative pathways that these objects have paved she discusses her experiences with the losses she has undergone her family's migrations and what it means to be a childless woman. This leads her to address the question of what will become of her storied objects and the memories attached to them when she is no longer in existence. This memoir offers an interdisciplinary approach to collecting and compiling fragments of one's life paying close attention to the evocative objects that embody us. In doing so these essays explore loss memory childlessness longing family history literature and art theory through material entities which reveal the immaterial things at the heart of this study. This book is sure to be of interest to anyone stimulated by memory work and the relationship between humans and their possessions.

Searching for Home Cole Moreton, 2023-09-21 For many years award winning journalist and author Cole Moreton has been involved in and worked alongside those offering relief and welcome to men women and children arriving in desperate straits near his home on the south coast. Back in 2019 he wrote 'The men women and children risking their lives to cross the Channel in small boats are not aliens invaders migrants or some other lesser category of human to be dismissed. They are us.' Incarnation is a major theme of this exhilarating course. Mary and Joseph's search for a place to give birth to the son of God and their terrifying flight to Egypt to escape the murderous intentions of King Herod have clear echoes in the accounts Cole offers of contemporary journeys. And through his captivating exploration of Leaving Home Fleeing Home Carrying Home and Finding Home we are enabled to reflect on our own need for guidance sanctuary and comfort in the love of God who ever walks beside us. For the first time ever the course book is accompanied not only by a CD audio download but also by a video filmed on location by Monkeynut in a beautiful manor house outside Dover. Cole Moreton is joined in discussing the themes of Searching for Home by Bishop of Dover Rose Hudson Wilkin activist Bridget Chapman and Grmalem Gonetse Kasa who came to the UK from Eritrea some years ago.
