The Tulip And The Pope A Nuns Story:

The Tulip and the Pope Deborah Larsen, 2007-12-18 The story of novelist and poet Deborah Larsen's young womanhood The Tulip and the Pope is both an exquisitely crafted spiritual memoir and a beautifully nuanced view of life in the convent In midsummer of 1960 nineteen year old Deborah shares a cab to a convent She and the teenage girls with her passionate to become nuns heedless of all they are leaving behind smoke their last cigarettes before entering their new lives In the same artful prose that distinguished her novel The White Larsen's memoir lets us into the hushed life of the convent She captures the exquisite peace she found there as well as the extreme constriction of the rules and her gradual awareness of all that she is missing Eventually the physical world the lush tulip she remembers seeing as a girl the snow she tunneled in and even the mystery of sex begins to seem to her an alternative theater for a deep understanding and love of God

Predatory Nuns Brian Titley, 2022-06-08 Since the first scandals broke in the mid 1980s the sexual misconducts of priests have cost the Catholic Church in America more than 4 billion in compensation settlements and incalculable damage to its reputation Although their crimes have attracted far less attention predatory nuns have also caused harm The depredations of these nuns took place in convent novitiates orphanages boarding schools for Native Americans and in Catholic schools both elementary and secondary Their victims male and female ranged in age from six year olds to young adults This book focuses on the criminal behavior of North American nuns and the responses from church leadership Mothers superior were outspoken in their refusal to accept responsibility for the crimes committed under their watch and their inclination was to close ranks and protect the predators endangering many children and young people in the process The complainants on the other hand were considered nuisances to be pushed aside with the least amount of exposure and expense possible Straightforward and informative this text begins by exploring the nuns vow of chastity and its relationship with human sexuality followed by dozens of case studies detailing the sexual abuse that nuns committed in various settings Into Silence and Servitude Brian Titley, 2017-08-01 For many American Catholics in the twentieth century the face of the Church was a woman's face After the Second World War as increasing numbers of baby boomers flooded Catholic classrooms the Church actively recruited tens of thousands of young women as teaching sisters In Into Silence and Servitude Brian Titley delves into the experiences of young women who entered Catholic religious sisterhoods at this time The Church favoured nuns as teachers because their wageless labour made education more affordable in what was the world's largest private school system Focusing on the Church's recruitment methods Titley examines the idea of a religious vocation the school settings in which nuns were recruited and the tactics of persuasion directed at both suitable girls and their parents The author describes how young women entered religious life and how they negotiated the sequence of convent formation stages each with unique challenges respecting decorum autonomy personal relations work and study Although expulsions and withdrawals punctuated each formation stage the number of nuns nationwide continued to grow until it reached a pinnacle in 1965 the same year that Catholic schools achieved their highest enrolment Based on extensive archival research memoirs oral history and rare Church publications Into Silence and Servitude presents a compelling narrative that opens a window on little known aspects of America's convent system The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14 Navigating what at she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection She focuses on eight popular categories history true crime true adventure science memoir food cooking travel and sports Within each she explains the scope popularity style major authors and works and the subject's position in readers advisory interviews Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next In easy to follow steps Wyatt Explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read around and reading map strategies Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection This hands on guide includes nonfiction bibliography key authors benchmark books with annotations and core collections It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development helping librarians library workers and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection Veiled Desires Maureen Sabine, 2013-08-22 Ingrid Bergman's engaging screen performance as Sister Mary Benedict in The Bells of St Mary's made the film nun a star and her character a shining standard of comparison She represented the religious life as the happy and rewarding choice of a modern woman who had a complete understanding of both erotic and spiritual desire How did this vibrant and mature nun figure come to be viewed as girlish and naïve Why have she and her cinematic sisters in postwar popular film so often been stereotyped or selectively analyzed so seldom been seen as women and religious In Veiled Desires a unique full length in depth look at nuns in film Maureen Sabine explores these questions in a groundbreaking interdisciplinary study covering more than sixty years of cinema She looks at an impressive breadth of films in which the nun features as an ardent lead character including The Bells of St Mary's 1945 Black Narcissus 1947 Heaven Knows Mr Allison 1957 Sea Wife 1957 The Nun's Story 1959 The Sound of Music 1965 Change of Habit 1969 In This House of Brede 1975 Agnes of God 1985 Dead Man Walking 1995 and Doubt 2008 Veiled Desires considers how the beautiful and charismatic stars who play chaste nuns from Ingrid Bergman and Audrey Hepburn to Susan Sarandon and Meryl Streep call attention to desires that the veil concealed and the habit was thought to stifle In a theologically and psychoanalytically informed argument Sabine responds to the critics who have pigeonholed the film nun as the obedient daughter and religious handmaiden of a patriarchal church and the respectful audience who revered her as an icon of spiritual perfection Sabine provides a framework for a more complex and holistic picture of nuns onscreen by showing how the films dramatize these women's Christian call to serve sacrifice and dedicate themselves to God and their erotic desire for intimacy agency
