The Un-private House Terence Riley,1999 This book looks at twenty six houses by an international roster of contemporary architects P 4 of cover The Un-private House Terence Riley,1999 This book looks at twenty six houses by an international roster of contemporary architects P 4 of cover Unplanned Visitors Olivier Vallerand,2022-03-30 Sexuality and gender have long been influential in understanding the construction of domestic space its meanings often revealing a binary division of private and public female and male By reconstructing the foundation of queer critiques of space and by analyzing the representation of domesticity in contemporary art and architecture Unplanned Visitors shows the blurring of private and public that can occur in any domestic space and explores the potential of queer theory for understanding and designing the built environment Olivier Vallerand investigates how queer critiques building on pioneering feminist work question the relation between identity and architecture and highlight normative constructs underlying domestic spaces He draws out a genealogy of queer space in theoretical discourse in architecture studying projects by Mark Robbins Joel Sanders J Mayer H Elmgreen Dragset Andr s Jaque and MYCKET among others These works blur the traditional borders between architecture and art to emphasize the tensions between private and public and their impact on assumptions about domestic space and family structure The challenges in moving from experimental installations to built environments suggest how designers must acknowledge and respond to the social contexts that shape architecture rethinking how domestic spaces can be designed to allow everyone to better manage the expression of their self identification through their living environments Unplanned Visitors poses a challenge to traditional architectural theory and history but also suggests a renewed and more inclusive ethics whereby designers explicitly address social and political power structures The potential of a queer approach to architectural design history theory and education is precisely to enact a method that creates more inclusive buildings and safer neighbourhoods for everyone The Architecture of Home in Cairo Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem,2016-03-03 The hawari of Cairo narrow non straight alleyways are the basic urban units that have formed the medieval city since its foundation back in 969 AD Until early in the C20th they made up the primary urban divisions of the city and were residential in nature Contemporary hawari by contrast are increasingly dominated by commercial and industrial activity This medieval urban maze of extremely short broken zigzag streets and dead ends are defensible territories powerful institutions and important social systems While the hawari have been studied as an exemplar for urban structure of medieval Islamic urbanism and as individual building typologies this book is the first to examine in detail the socio spatial practice of the architecture of home in the city It investigates how people live communicate and relate to each other within their houses or shared spaces of the alleys and in doing so to uncover several new socio spatial dimensions and meanings in this architectural form In an attempt to re establish the link between architecture past and present and to understand the changing social needs of communities this book uncovers the notion of home as central to understand architecture in such a city with long history as Cairo It firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system In order to analyse the complexity and interconnectedness of the components and elements of the hawari as a collective home it layers its narratives of architectural and social developments as a domestic environment over the past two hundred years and in doing so explores the in depth social meaning and performance of spaces both private and public Electronic Elsewheres Chris Berry,So-yŏng Kim,Lynn Spigel,2010 Some chapters were previously published The Emergence of the Interior Charles Rice,2006-11-22 Taking a radical position counter to many previous histories and theories of the interior domesticity and the home The Emergence of the Interior considers how the concept and experience of the domestic interior have been formed from the beginning of the nineteenth century It considers the interior s emergence in relation to the thinking of Walter Benjamin and Sigmund Freud and through case studies in architecture s trajectories toward modernism The book argues that the interior emerged with a sense of doubleness being understood and experienced as both a spatial and an image based condition Incorporating perspectives from architecture critical history and theory and psychoanalysis The Emergence of the Interior will be of interest to academics and students of the history and theory of architecture and design social history and cultural studies Archinesia 07 Imelda Akmal,2015-01-01 SINGAPORE FROM GARDEN CITY TO CITY IN THE GARDEN Archinesia present various article based on interview with source from Jason pomeroy Colen Seah Ko Shiou Hee And essay writteen by Prof Dr Johannes Widodo and an interview with Prof Ir Moh Danisworo an Indonesian architect sho onece lived in Singapore and an expert in urban issue compliment and enrich the coverage and discussion about Singapore s lates grand ambition to be the City in a Garden BUILT PROJECTS by Architects in Southeast Asia Studiomake Patana Gallery andramatin The Sculpture Mushalla IDIN Architects Habitia H Club SUB Trimmed Reform House SO Thailand Wonderwall house S NA Architects ANH House MM Architects Oceanique Villas Aedas 8 Napier AgFacadesign hanging Garden WOHA Parkroyal on Pickering European House Philip Jodidio,2015-09-30 This beautifully illustrated book takes the reader on a journey through a number of outstanding contemporary houses designed and built across the richly varied and extraordinary European landscape Philip Jodidio presents his expertise and knowledge on the most profound influences of contemporary residential architecture in this region This book pairs images of unique architecture and interior design and a comprehensive analysis of each project set within full colour photographic portraits that all together reflect the strength of drive and progressive thinking that inspired these designs Though progressive the wide range of architects designs draw heavily on the local vernacular of the buildings of this region Ordering principles borrow from the building s context and often relate metaphorically to the surrounding natural landscape connecting the building to its site in a meaningful way Sustainability and green energy efficiency features are also crucial components in the house design objectives and are seamlessly integrated with the architecture and these influences are clearly illustrated in this impressive volume The Domestic Space Reader Kathy Mezei,Chiara Briganti,2012-01-01 Tune in to HGTV visit your local bookstore s magazine section or flip to the Homes section of your weekend newspaper and it becomes clear domestic spaces play an immense role in our cultural consciousness The Domestic Space Reader addresses our collective fascination with houses and homes by providing the first comprehensive survey of the concept across time cultures and disciplines This pioneering anthology which is ideal for students and general readers features writing by key scholars thinkers and writers including Gaston Bachelard Mary Douglas Le Corbusier Homi Bhabha Henri Lefebvre Mrs Beeton Ma Thanegi Diana Fuss Beatriz Colomina and Edith Wharton Among the many engaging topics explored are the impact of domestic technologies on family life the relationship between religion and the home nomadic peoples and housing domestic spaces in art and literature and the history of the bedroom the kitchen and the bathroom The Domestic Space Reader demonstrates how discussions of domestic spaces can help us better understand our inner lives and challenge our perceptions of life in particular times and places Teletechnologies, Place, and Community Rowan Wilken,2014-02-07 Teletechnologies or technologies of distance cannot be ignored Indeed the present electronic age is said to have wrought profound changes to how we think about and experience who we are where we are and how we relate with one another Place and community have traditionally formed key concepts for thinking about these issues but what relevance do these concepts now hold for us In this wide ranging study Wilken re evaluates how ideas of place and community intersect with and help us make sense of a world transformed by information and communication technologies This interdisciplinary investigation ranges across diverse textual and contextual terrain exploring approaches from media and communications architectural history and theory philosophy sociology geography literature and urban design The rich analysis of these myriad texts reveals the complex and at times contradictory ways in which notions of place and community circulate in relation to these technologies of distance Wilken s examination underscores both the enduring importance of ideas of place and community in the present age and the urgent need to continue to engage with think about and reconfigure these twin ideas Netspaces Katharine S. Willis,2017-05-15 The focus of this book is on understanding and explaining the way that our increasingly networked world impacts on the legibility of cities that is how we experience and inhabit urban space It reflects on the nature of the spatial effects of the networked and mediated world from mobile phones and satnavs to data centres and wifi nodes and discusses how these change the very nature of urban space It proposes that netspaces are the spaces that emerge at the interchange between the built world and the space of the network It aims to be a timely volume for both architectural urban design and media practitioners in understanding and working with the fundamental changes in built space due to the ubiquity of networks and media This book argues that there needs to be a much better understanding of how networks affect the way we inhabit urban space The volume defines five characteristics of netspaces and defines in detail the way that the spatial form of the city is affected by changing practices of networked world It draws on theoretical approaches and contextualises the discussion with empirical case studies to illustrate the changes taking place in urban space This readable and engaging text will be a valuable resource for architects urban designers planners and sociologists for understanding how of networks and media are creating significant changes to urban space and the resulting implications for the design of cities A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad,David Rifkind,2016-12-05 1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects Single Family Houses Christian Schittich,2012-12-17 The private single family house is still very much the preferred choice of home Yet in recent years there have been many changes not only in the personal situations of the residents their expectations and desires but also in the rising costs of energy and raw materials This has meant that issues such as multi functionalism the use of innovative building materials or energy efficient building methods are increasing in significance In this completely revised and expanded second edition these topical developments have been taken into consideration The organisation and layout of the first volume with its concise and detailed project documentation has been retained The authors introduce floor plan solutions using contemporary projects which bear in mind changing family structures At the same time the contributions provide an in depth introduction to planning single family houses from the design of the floor plan to useful tips for the realisation In addition to this fundamental information 22 projects are documented providing ideas and inspiration for planners students and clients The international selection of projects highlights current trends in planning and designing single family housing and reveals the tried and tested basics Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclope dia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century s vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design Graeme Brooker,Lois Weinthal,2013-10-24 The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design offers a compelling collection of original essays that seek to examine the shifting role of interior architecture and interior design and their importance and meaning within the contemporary world Interior architecture and interior design are disciplines that span a complexity of ideas ranging from human behaviour and anthropology to history and the technology of the future Approaches to designing the interior are in a constant state of flux reflecting and adapting to the changing systems of history culture and politics It is this process that allows interior design to be used as evidence for identifying patterns of consumption gender identity and social issues The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design provides a pioneering overview of the ideas and arrangements within the two disciplines that make them such important platforms from which to study the way humans interact with the space around them Covering a wide range of thought and research the book enables the reader to investigate fully the changing face of interior architecture and interior design while offering questions about their future trajectory The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon,2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies The World We Want Mark Kingwell,2001 Award winning author Kingwell traces the idea of citizenship from its roots in ancient Greece to the contemporary realities of consumerism and cultural banality Home Smart Home Oliver Herwig,2022-04-19 Welcome to the hybrid home in which the bathroom has become a temple of wellness the living room an online couch and the kitchen a lounge Everything appears tidy and chic perfect for social media In the Instagram Age even micro apartments are mutating into semi public places The German journalist Oliver Herwig has been studying the transformation of living spaces and dream interiors for years In this book he portrays a society in the throes of digital transformation The lines between work leisure and rest have been blurred as our homes become temporary multipurpose work fun and multimedia spaces the office has invaded the home and the world of smart shopping is always just a word away thanks to Alexa Nothing quite fits anymore yet everything must have its place Welcome to the hybrid home Easy reading
